Berlin, May 14. Last Thursday her Royal Highness Princess Amelia, the King of Prussia's Sister, set out for Potsdam, where she will remain for some Days, and from thence proceed to Aix la Chapelle for the Recovery of her Health. Some Days ago Count Butterlin, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Empress of Russia to the Court of Madrid, arrived here from Moscow.

Extract of a Letter from Bayreuth, dated the 7th of May, 1763. Yesterday, at Seven in the Evening, our new Margrave, arrived here in perfect Health, preceded by the Light Horse and Hussars. His Serene Highness was saluted by the Cannon of the Town, and seemed highly pleased with the Dispositions made for his Reception, the Bourgers, Guards, Grenadiers and Fusiliers, being all under Arms.

Hambourg, May 17. As last Sunday, the 15th, was appointed by this Government for a Day of Thanksgiving to Almighty God, on Account of the General Peace, the same was duly observed in all the Churches in Town, and upon the Territory belonging to this Republick; and in the Afternoon the Cannon from the Ramparts of this City were fired three Times; and at each Time one Hundred Pieces.

The new Commandant of Hambourg, Baron de Jahnus, having taken the Oath of Allegiance before the Senate, was acknowledged in that Character this Day Sevensnight by the Garrison, which was drawn up upon the Parade on that Occasion.

The Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of York, (which was inserted in the Gazette the 14th Instant) was presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Robert Lane, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

Admiralty Office, May 16, 1763.

His late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warlike Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kingsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Belson, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732; as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; This is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of this Instant, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.
