A PROCLAMATION.

For Pardoning and Discharging Soldiers now in Custody for Desertion.

GEORGE R.

Whereas divers Soldiers, duly enlisted, or in Pay as Soldiers, in certain Regiments and Military Corps, which have been since disbanded or disembodied, and in other Regiments or Corps now subsisting, have deserted Our Service, and thereby incurred the Penalties respectively inflicted for such Offence, by several Acts of Parliament passed for punishing Mutiny and Desertion: And whereas many of the said Deserters have been apprehended at various Times, and committed for safe Custody to the several Goals or Prisons belonging to the Counties, Towns, or Places, where such Deserters have been found or apprehended, to the End that they might be proceeded against according to Law; the Names of which Deserters have been, from Time to Time, transmitted to our Secretary at War for the Time being, pursuant to the Provisions of such Acts of Parliament made for Punishing Mutiny and Desertion as aforesaid: And whereas We are graciously disposed to extend Our Royal Mercy to the said Offenders, who may be hereafter useful to their Country in following their honest and lawful Occupations, in Case they are enabled thereto, by receiving Our free Pardon; and being discharged out of Custody in Consequence thereof; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, pardon and remit all and every such Offence and Offences of Desertion, from any such Regiments or Military Corps, committed by any Person or Persons now in Custody as aforesaid: And We do also release and discharge the said Offenders from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments, and Penalties, commenced or incurred, for, or by reason of any such Offence or Offences: And We do hereby, by and with the Advice of Our said Privy-Council, declare Our farther Pleasure, and do will and require all and every Goal, House of Correction, or Prison, where any such Deserter or Deserters is or are in Custody, to discharge him or them forthwith, without Fee or Reward; upon receiving a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of Our Secretary at War for the Time being, that the Name or Names of such Deserter or Deserters, do appear to him to have been transmitted to the War Office, pursuant to the Provisions of any of the said Acts. And We hereby further Charge and Command every such Goal or Keeper, within the Space of Seven Days after receiving any such Certificate as aforesaid, to make a Return to Our Secretary at War for the Time being, of what such Goal or Keeper shall have done in Pursuance of such Certificate, and of this Our Royal Proclamation.—Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to discharge any Person or Persons so in Custody for any such Offence of Desertion, from any Crime, Cause, or Matter, for which he or they shall have been lawfully committed, or detained in the Custody of any such Goal or Keeper, other than such Offence or Offences of Desertion.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 20th Day of May, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

St. James's, May 28.

The following Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Dr. Gally, Senior Prebendary, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and the Rest of the Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Gloucester, after having offered up our grateful Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving to the great Author of all human Blessings, as your own Piety directed, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with our humble Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's humane and princely Labours in procuring Peace for Europe, when you had effectually vindicated the Injults on your Imperial Crown, by a large Accession to the British Empire of ample and fruitful Dominions, solemnly yielded up to your victorious Arms by the Powers offending.

To see so desirable an End put to the Desolations of War and Bloodshed (that Opprobrium of Christian Profession) cannot but fill the Hearts of us, the Messengers and Ministers of Peace, with the warmest Gratitude towards your Royal Person for this inestimable Blessing.

While the other Part of your Majesty's happy and loyal Subjects are employed in generous and patriotic Plans for improving and enobling these vast Acquisitions by Civil Arts, Agriculture, and Commerce; we, the Servants of Religion, please ourselves in the sublimer Views of extending the Kingdom of Christ through boundless Regions of unknown, and unnamed Barbarians; Regions, which the everlasting Gospel, in its Truth and Purity, never yet enlightened.

And under the Auspices of a Monarch, the Friend of Mankind, as well as the Father of his People, we may fairly promise to ourselves Success in both these glorious Undertakings, which have so strict a Dependence on one another, that neither can be well conducted separately and alone.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gendemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Northumberland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Permit us to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Acknowledgments for your watchful and paternal Care, in having put a Period to a War, which is the Admiration of the present Age, by a Peace, which as it confirms our valuable Acquisitions, and extricates us from so heavy a Burthen, will demand the Gratitude of Posterity.

We greatly admire your Majesty's Wisdom, which has been so eminently displayed by so many illustrious Successes, which have elevated these Kingdoms to the greatest Height of Glory; have opened inexhaustible Sources of Riches; and compelled an universal Acknowledgment of your glorious Superiority. Your Majesty has obtained the Object of the War, and compelled France to surrender their valuable and favourite Possessions on the Continent of America. Your Majesty has limited to narrow Bounds the Fishery of our Enemies, whilst ours is increased and uncircumscribed. Your Majesty has enlarged our Possessions in the West Indies, and greatly widened our Dominions in the East. Your Majesty has acquired for us the Gum Coast in Africa; and in Europe, among many other illustrious Acts, your Majesty has extended your irresistible Protection, to the Redemption of a Royal Ally, whose Noble Struggle in the Cause of Liberty, must have proved too feeble for his Support. Your Majesty has, by a rapid and vigorous Exertion of your Arms, compelled Spain to make a submissive Atonement for a haughty and unprovoked Attack. We are amazed when we reflect, that the Admiration, which your Majesty's Fame has excited throughout Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, can only be equalled, by the Envy which our Acquisitions have raised. We beg Leave to make our warmest Acknowledgment to your Majesty, for having been graciously pleased to recommend to us, Economy and Unanimity, which to the utmost of our Power we will practise and promote. May your Majesty be very long preserved to enjoy and communicate the Effects of your consummate Wisdom and Goodness; and to receive the dutiful Acknowledgments, which are so justly due, to the best of Kings, from the most grateful Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Twelvemen, and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Great Grimsby, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Cathelough, their Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting:

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Twelvemen, and Free Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Great Grimsby.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, High Steward, Aldermen, Twelvemen, and Free Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Great Grimsby, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Conclusion of a long and most expensive, though glorious and successful War.

The Re establishment of Peace is an Event interesting to all your Majesty's Subjects; and the important Acquisitions obtained by the irresistible Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, now ceded to Great Britain by the Definitive Treaty of Peace, will be a lasting Monument of your Majesty's glorious Reign, as thereby the Trade and Navigation of your Majesty's Commercial Subjects, will be greatly extended.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to unite in the Wish of all your loyal Subjects, that by a Peace so happily established, and the great Advantages stipulated thereby, Unanimity and Concord, so essential to our Happiness, may with equal Care and Anxiety be propagated throughout the Kingdom; and to assure your Majesty, the utmost Attention of this ancient and loyal Borough shall be given to promote and attain this necessary Royal Recommendation from the Throne.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, this Seventeenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable James Budenell, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings in the County of Sussex.

WE your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of your Town and Port of Hastings, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Conclusion of a War the most extensive that History affords Example of, yet glorious as extended; procuring Safety to your Allies, Weight and Lustre to your own Crown, and Happiness to your People.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of all the various Nations over whom Providence has placed you, rich in domestic Blessings, and reaping all the Fruits that may be justly expected from a Peace dictated by your Humanity; is the daily and earnest Prayer of,

Your Majesty's faithful and devoted Subjects,
The Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of Hastings.

Given under our Common Seal, at Hastings aforesaid, this 20th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, 1763.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Staunton, Esq; and the Right Hon.

Hon. the Lord Orwell; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of a Glorious and Successful War, by a Salutary and Honourable Peace, which has relieved your faithful People from the certain and distressful Burdens which must have been occasioned, and the uncertain bad Events which might have followed from too presumptuous a Continuance of so dangerous a Contention.

As the good Providence of Heaven has blessed your Majesty's Arms and Councils with such signal Success, our most devout Wishes are, that your Majesty and your Kingdoms may reap the happy Fruits of it throughout the British Empire, at this Time so greatly extended and so firmly secured: And as your Majesty's generous Care of the Constitution of this Country has, from your first Accession to the Crown, been most eminently conspicuous in the many essential Securities established for the Preservation of the Liberties of the Publick; we cannot omit this Opportunity of expressing our grateful Sense of these Blessings, and of testifying our Abhorrence of the factious Practices which have of late occasioned some Disturbance, and which, under the Mask of Liberty, would effectually destroy it, even at a Time when we have all imaginable Reason to expect and trust in its complete Establishment under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-fourth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Perceval, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of Bridgwater, humbly approach your Majesty with sincere Congratulations upon the Happy and Glorious Termination of the late most consuming, though Just and Successful War.

We are sensible that great and many Difficulties attended your Majesty's Councils in accomplishing this important Work. While on one Hand, the Fortune and Valour of your Forces led to unbounded Expectations; on the other, the Loss of Men in your Fleets and Armies, the Burthen of new Taxes, the vast Increase of National Debt, the decreasing Value of the Publick Funds, the Distress of private Credit, the Demands of some, and the Dangers impending over others of our Confederate Powers, loudly pleaded for the speedy Conclusion of an Honourable Peace.

Reflections, founded thus in Truth and Reason, induce us to admire the Wisdom, Firmness, and Temper of your Majesty, in this great Crisis of Affairs. By these Qualities and Virtues you have retained and secured an Addition of Empire, immense both in Extent and Value; with Precision as to Limits; with Extinction of all injurious Claims; with Attention, at the same Time, to publick Faith, and the just Interests of your Allies, unequalled in the Story of this or any other Nation.

In Circumstances such as these, which intitle your Majesty to the warmest Returns of Gratitude and general Joy, we have seen with Detestation, disingenuous and alarming Attempts to pervert the Sense and Duty of your People. The fatal Tendency of these Proceedings particularly calls for publick Testimony of Zeal and Resolution, in your faithful Subjects, at the present Conjuncture. We therefore presume to assure your Majesty, that no Arts of designing Men will ever prevail to impair our Affection for your Sacred Person and Government; or divert us from a firm Determination to maintain, as far as it may lie within our Power, the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, the true Principles, and the full Authority of our happy Constitution, so wisely established, and so long perfectly enjoyed, under the Princes of your Illustrious House.

The following Address of the Steward, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirencester, has been presented to His Majesty by James Whitshed, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Steward, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Cirencester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's very dutiful Subjects, the Steward, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Cirencester, full of Reverence for your Royal Dignity, of Respect for your Virtues, and of Gratitude for the Benefits of your Reign, humbly beg Leave to present you their Congratulations on the Re-establishment of Peace. The Termination of a glorious, but sanguinary and burdensome War, by a Treaty both equitable and advantageous, is the most likely to be lasting; does equal Honour to your Majesty's Moderation and Wisdom, and is highly pleasing to Benevolence, which always grieves at the Effusion of human Blood.

We exult at the Prospect, that Piety and good Morals, with the liberal and useful Arts, encouraged before by your auspicious Influence, will now, under the Shade of the Olive, be carried nearer to Perfection. In the mean while we cannot help lamenting those Efforts which are made, to revive and keep up political Factions, the Bane of public Good: We detest, from the Bottom of our Hearts, those daring Insults, which have been offered by seditious and profligate Writers to the best of Kings. Liberty we value more than, our Lives. Liberty will be ever maintained and cherished by a Sovereign, who hath approved himself the true Father of his Country. But Licentiousness, the vile and mischievous Ape of Liberty, deserves Reprehension from every Mouth that is able to pronounce it; and Correction, within the Boundaries of Law, from every Hand that is able to bestow it.

We, for our own Parts, far from imitating such execrable Outrage, shall always give your Majesty every Mark of Duty and Respect; making it our fervent Prayer, that you may find the Weight of a Crown as easy as possible; may long reign over a prosperous, united and loyal People; and be attended with every Blessing.

No sooner is the Reputation of a Medicine established, but numberless are its Imitators, to detect which, my genuine Tincture hath on the Top of the Bottles my Coat of Arms, and on the Directions the Names of JACKSON and SON, Price One Shilling the Bottle, sold only at my Elaboratory and Medicinal Warehouse in Fleet Market, London.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurisy, Quinsies, acute Rheumatism, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysteric, Price 2s. 6d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* * Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preferred for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2s. 6d.
