

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 28, to Tuesday May 31, 1763.

St. James's, May 31.

THE following Address of the Bailiffs and Magistrates of the City of Lichfield, having been transmitted by Fettilplace Nott, Esq; their High Steward, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Magistrates of the City of Lichfield, beg Leave to express the just Sense which we have of your affectionate Regard for the Happiness of these Kingdoms, in delivering them from the heavy Burthen of a consuming War, by an Honourable and Advantageous Peace; and we humbly hope your Majesty will condescend to accept our dutiful Congratulations on so interesting an Occasion.

The many signal and uninterrupted Successes, which, by the Favour of Divine Providence, have attended your Majesty's Arms, had left nothing to be wished but a Peace; which, by your Majesty's wise and vigorous Councils, we have now the Happiness to see accomplished. And as we are truly sensible of your Majesty's gracious Intentions, in undertaking that great Work, so we have all possible Reason to admire your Firmness in carrying it on, and overcoming the many Difficulties contrived to obstruct it.

Convinced, by Experience, of your Majesty's tender Concern for your People, we are, with an entire Confidence, assured, that under your just and excellent Government, we shall enjoy the happy Effects of publick Tranquillity: In dutiful Return for which great Blessings, it shall be our constant Study, in our humble Sphere, to make your Imperial Crown, with all its Weight of Cares, as easy as it is glorious.

Long may your Majesty live the Defender and Ornament of our Church; may the rest of your Reign be crowned, if possible, with greater Blessings and Honours, than those which have hitherto attended it; may you ever be the Refuge of the Distressed, the successful Defender of the just Rights of Mankind, and the Arbiter of Europe; and may all your Subjects prove loyal and obedient to your Majesty's Government, as they are most happy and secure under your Royal Protection.

Given under the Common Seal of the City, at a Common Hall there held the Twenty-fifth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, having been transmitted by Charles Pool, Esq; their Mayor, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal

[Price Three Pence.]

Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late happy Re-establishment of Peace.

We cannot but admire the great Moderation and Goodness, which, after the Glorious Successes, obtained by the Arms of your Royal Grandfather, and your Majesty, for several successive Years, induced your Majesty to agree to put an End to the Calamities of War, and give your Subjects the Blessings of Peace, at an Age when Sovereigns are apt to be too much swayed by Military Glory.

So much Consideration for the Ease and Happiness of your People, attended with invincible Steadiness and Resolution to oblige your Enemies to yield up to your Majesty, in absolute Sovereignty and Dominion, such Parts of your late Glorious Conquests, and other extensive Countries belonging to them, as your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, thought necessary to secure the Continuance of the Peace and Safety of the Trade and Commerce of your Subjects, must ever inspire your grateful People with the most ardent Wishes for your Majesty's long Life and Reign over them, in the greatest Prosperity and Glory.

The very early Proofs, as well as Assurances, which your Majesty was graciously pleased to give, of your Intention to maintain the Rights and Liberties of your People, have excited in us so great Confidence in your Majesty's Goodness and firm Adherence to such Principles, that we cannot but look with Abhorrence and Detestation upon any Artifices or Attempts to alienate the Minds of your Subjects from the Affection, Duty, and Loyalty, which they justly owe to your Majesty, and which we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we will, to the utmost of our Power, ever continue to cherish and promote.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty three.

Vienna, May 11. The Court, which is at Laxenbourg, set out To-day for Schonbrun to celebrate the Ascension, and the Empress Queen's Birth-Day; after which the Court will return to Laxenbourg, where they will continue during the Season of Heron Hunting.

Her Imperial Majesty has named General Gemmingen Vice-Commandant of this City, in the room of Marshal Hulsen, deceased.

Warsaw,