AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of June, 1763.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Francis Earl of Hertford was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to appoint John Garland, of Wisbich, Esq; to be Sheriff of the Counties of Cambridge and Huntingdon, in the room of Isaac Young, Esq; deceased.

St. James's, June 4.

This Day the following Address was presented to His Majesty, and read by Dr. Fothergill, accompanied by a Deputation from the People called Quakers, introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting.

To George the Third, King of Great Britain, and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Address of His Protestant Subjects, the People called Quakers.

May it please the King,

BEING met in this our Annual Assembly from various Parts of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Worship of Almighty God, and the Promotion of Piety and Virtue, we embrace the Opportunity which the Restoration of Peace affords us, to testify our Affection to thy Royal Person, and Family; and our dutiful Submission to thy Government.

To a People professing that the Use of Arms is to them unlawful; a People who reverence the Glorious Gospel Declaration of good Will to Men, and fervently wish for the universal Establishment of Peace, its Return must be highly acceptable.

To stop the Effusion of Blood, to ease the Burthens of thy People, and terminate the Calamities that affected so large a Part of the Globe, we are persuaded were thy Motives to effect the present Pacification: Motives to just in themselves, so full of Benevolence and Humanity, demand our united and cordial Approbation.

May the Sovereign of the Universe, who created all Nations of one Blood, dispose the Minds of Princes by such Examples, to learn other Means of reconciling their jarring Interests and Contentions, than by the Ruin of Countries, and the Destruction of Mankind.

The Proofs we have received of thy Royal Condescension and Indulgence, the lasting Impressions of Gratitude to the Memory of the Kings of thy Illustrious House, fill our Hearts at this Time with the warmest Sentiments of Affection and Duty. Strongly impressed by such Sentiments, we retire to our respective Habitations, with full Purpose, to cultivate, as much as in us lies, a Spirit of Harmony and Concord, so essentially necessary to the Dignity of the Crown, and Happiness of the Subject.

May God! the Source of every Blessing, the Fountain of every Excellence, ever graciously direct thy Steps, and preserve Thee long to rule over thy extensive Dominions, with that Wisdom, Moderation, and Equity, which effectually secure to Princes, the cheerful Obedience of their People, and transmit their Names with deserved Honour to Posterity.

Signed in and on Behalf of our Yearly Meeting, held in London, the 28th of the Fifth Month, 1763.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

These repeated Assurances of your Affection to My Person, and My Family, and of your Duty to My Government, are very agreeable to Me, and cannot fail to insure to you the Continuance of My Protection.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, and City and Liberty of Westminster in the said County, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Northumberland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, the Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, and City and Liberty of Westminster in the said County.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne; and to express the fervent, unfeigned and grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's true Patriotism, and signal Benevolence, in so seasonably concluding a Peace with your Enemies, upon Terms of Moderation, Stability and Advantage to your Kingdoms; not doubting but this great Blessing (which, under God, we owe to your Humanity) will, by your Wisdom, be improved, to the Benefit of the remotest Parts of your Dominions.

As Magistrates, bound in Duty and Conscience to preserve the Peace, and as loyal Subjects, urged by every Tie of Affection and Respect to the best of Sovereigns (who, in Publick Life, is the Great Patron of Liberty and Religion, and, in Private Life, the bright Example of every true Virtue) we cannot omit this Occasion, of expressing our Abhorrence of all Attempts to lessen the Dignity of your Person, and shade the Lustre of your Throne; assuring your Majesty of our zealous Endeavours in our several Stations, to support your Majesty's Authority, upon true Principles of Liberty, and to suppress all Designs signs to disturb that Union, which we trust will be one great Characteristic of your Majesty's Reign.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a People gratefully loyal, flourishing, and free; honoured and beloved by your Subjects, esteemed and feared by your Enemies, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Answer of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland to His Majesty's most gracious Letter, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

May it please your Majesty,

WE received your Majesty's most gracious Letter, with the Respect and Gratitude which are due to such a distinguishing Proof of your Royal Favour.

Your Majesty's Approbation of our past Conduct, we consider as the most agreeable Recompence we could have received for having done our Duty. Your Royal Declaration of your Resolution to support our Church in all Her Rights and Privileges, affords us the greatest Satisfaction; and we rely upon it as the most perfect Security.

It shall be our Care, in Obedience to your Majesty's Command, to exert ourselves so zealously in discouraging Vice and Infidelity, as will shew how desirous we are to merit the Confidence your Majesty reposes in us; and we deem it our peculiar Felicity, that we are subject to a Sovereign, who, by exciting us to our proper Work, shews us, that the faithful and conscientious Discharge of our Duty is the most certain Recommendation to His Favour.

We thankfully ascribe the Return of the inestimable Benefits of Peace to the Blessing of Divine Providence upon the Wisdom and Steadiness with which your Majesty hath carried on the Negotiations for that Salutary Purpose; and, as by the Definitive Treaty with your Enemies, your Majesty hath gained Acquisitions of vast Extent, and of great Importance to your Crown, which far exceed the most sanguine Expectations of your Subjects at the Commencement of the War, and are fully adequate to the great Successes of the British Arms, it hath been, and shall be our Care, at this Juncture, to instil into the Minds of our People, proper Sentiments of Gratitude towards your Majesty, and of Thankfulness to Almighty God, whose Hand they discern and bless in the Conduct of this great Event.

We beg Leave to offer our humble Thanks to your Majesty, for your Attention to the Propagation of Christian Knowledge, and of the Reformed Religion in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. It shall be our Endeavour to apply the Sum appropriated by your Royal Bounty for that Purpose, in such a Manner as may best answer the generous and pious Intention with which it is bestowed, and to exert the greatest Zeal on our Part, to communicate the Blessings of Knowledge, and the Arts of Peace, to those of our Countrymen, who have displayed their Valour during the War, with no less Benefit to Great Britain, than Glory to themselves.

We have had Experience on so many former Occasions, of the Loyalty, Integrity, and Prudence of the noble Lord, whom your Majesty has appointed to represent your Royal Person in this General Assembly: We are so sensible of his Abilities to discharge this important Trust, of his Zeal for Religion, and of his Attention to the true Interests of this Church, that we consider your Majesty's repeated Choice of him as an additional Mark of your Favour and Regard to us.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall conduct our Deliberations and Proceedings with such Temper and Moderation, with such Brotherly Love and Unanimity, as, we trust, shall secure to us the Continuance of your Royal Protection and Favour, which, next to the Approbation of that God, whom we serve, we esteem our greatest Honour and Hap-

That Almighty God may protect your Person, prolong your Days, and bless your Administration; that He may render the Peace, which you have concluded, as permanent as it is honourable; that you may behold the increasing Felicity of your People; that you may be honoured as the Instrument of Divine Providence for their Good; and that, after reigning long in Righteousness, and ruling in Judgment, you may receive the Recompence of an Heavenly Crown, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland has been presented to the King by the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in a National Assembly, embrace with Pleasure this first Opportunity of presenting our humble Congratulations upon the Birth of the Prince of Wales. As we are attached to your Majesty from Love no less than from Duty; an Event, which contributes so much to your domestick Felicity, affords us the most sincere Joy. As we are deeply sensible of our own Happiness under your righteous and mild Administration, we could frame no better Wish for After-Ages, than that the same Blessings, which we enjoy, might be transmitted to them. We adore the Goodness of God, who hath heard our Prayers, and who now giveth us the Prospect, that our Posterity shall be governed by a Prince formed by your Majesty's Precepts, and taught by your Example to be the Guardian of a free Constitution, and the Father of His People.

To our Expressions of Joy, on Account of this important Event, we beg your Majesty's Permission to add our warmest Congratulations on the Re-establishment of Peace. After a long War, the most extensive, and the most successful, but at the same Time the most burthensome ever carried on by Great Britain, Peace became a desirable Object to a Nation, whose Wealth and Power are derived from its Commerce. Your Majesty, undazzled by the Splendour of continual Victories, and always attentive to the true Interests of your People, took early Measures for procuring them this necessary Blessing: And your Magnanimity and Steadiness have accomplished the Salutary Work, which your Wisdom and Humanity prompted you to undertake.

By a Definitive Treaty with your Enemies, the great Objects, for which the War was undertaken, are attained; the Possessions of chief Consequence to Britain are secured; new Sources of Commerce are opened; and Territories are added to your Crown, more extensive and of greater Value than have been acquired by any Nation since the Division of Europe into great Kingdoms, and the Establishment of a Balance of Power, have put a Stop to the Rapidity of Conquest. And as your Majesty can now turn your whole Attention towards the Cultivation and the Encouragement of the Arts of Peace, which even under the Pressure, and amidst the Avocations of War, you did not neglect, these under your Royal Patronage must revive and flourish, and Britain, as it is the greatest, will become the most polished and illustrious Nation in Europe.

Nor are our Hopes of beneficial Consequences, from the Return of Peace, confined to ourselves alone. As the chief Obstacles, which have hitherto prevented the Instruction of the American Nations are now removed, we trust to your Majesty's known Zeal for promoting true Religion; and to the Blessing of the Almighty upon your Endeavours, that the People, now under your Dominion, which know not God, shall at Length receive the Knowledge of that Holy Faith, which civilizes and refines the Manners of such, at the same Time that it improves and sanctifies their Hearts.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment towards their Gracious Sovereign, the Blessings of whose mild and paternal Government they have experienced, prevail universally among the People under our Care; and as, during the Continuance of War, their Courage in Defence of the Rights and Possessions of their Country, has not been inferior to that of their Fellow Subjects; so they will be no less zealous, on the Return of Peace, to express their Love and Fidelity to your Majesty's Person, and to contribute towards the internal Vigour and constitutional security of the Kingdom.

That Almighty God may bless your Administration, and prolong your Days; that He may preserve the Prince of Wales to be your Comfort and our Hope; that He may render the Peace, which in His great Mercy He hath restored, as permanent as it is honourable and advantageous, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful,
and most loyal Subjects,

That Almighty God may prolong your Days, as a Blessing to the King, and the Joy of His People; that He may preserve the Prince of Wales for your Comfort, and our Hope; that He may perpetuate and increase your domestick Happiness, and add to it all Spiritual and Divine Blessings, are the earnest Prayers of,

May your Majesty long continue to reign over us; and enjoy the Fruits of that Peace which you have concluded with so much Compassion for the Good of Mankind; and may Religion and Liberty be ever sacred and inviolable under the Auspices of your Majesty's Protection.

Given under our Common Seal this First Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the Borough of Lymington, with Hearts full of Joy, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, on the happy Return of Peace to these Kingdoms. Your Majesty has manifested a great Tenderness of Heart, not only to your own Subjects, but to all the World, by your putting an End to so expensive and bloody a War, in which your Majesty's Arms were so victorious, and at a Time when your Fleet and Armies were a Terror to your Enemies: By these happy Successes, your Majesty's Dominions are greatly extended, in many Parts of the Globe, which opens to your Subjects Room for the Extension of Trade and Commerce, which by increasing our Manufactories, may in due Time lessen the Burthens the People have borne in so just and Necessary a War: These (may it please your Majesty) are our ardent Prayers; and that the Almighty may grant your Majesty Health and long Life, to reign over a Free and a Happy People; and that all your Subjects may have a Grateful Sense of the many Blessings they have enjoyed, under your Majesty's most mild and gracious Government, are our greatest Wishes and Desires.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Town-hall, this Twenty-fifth Day of May, 1763.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, having been transmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, and with Hearts full of the warmest Affection and Gratitude to your Majesty, to testify and declare our great Joy and Satisfaction on the Happy Conclusion of the late bloody and expensive War, by a Safe, Honourable, and Glorious Peace; a Peace which puts us in Possession of an immense Territory, and lays a solid Foundation for the Extension of the British Commerce.

We owe this great Blessing, under God, to your Majesty, who by the Wisdom of your Councils, and the good Conduct and Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, brought our late Enemies to Reason; and from this great and salutary Work of our own Peace, your Majesty has the further Glory of diffusing the Blessings of Peace over all Europe.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over a loyal and united People, cultivating the Arts of Peace, and the real Interests of their Country; and that all Factions in Opposition to a Prince, who glories in the Good of His People, and makes the Laws of the Land the Rule of His Government, may for ever cease and be annihilated, is our most sincere Wish and hearty Prayer.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Elgin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Elgin, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, and to congratulate you on Occasion of the late Treaty of Peace, by which you have put an honourable Period to a War; which though just and necessary, and conducted with the greatest Wisdom and Resolution, was attended with many distressful and depopulating Circumstances to your Majesty's Subjects, and particularly to these Northern Parts of your Dominions.

Your Majesty's undertaking to reconcile the Differences amongst the several Empires and States of Europe; your overcoming the many Difficulties artfully contrived to obstruct this desirable Return of public Tranquility, and your obtaining many substantial Advantages to your Subjects, are new Proofs of your distinguished Greatness of Mind, and of the Wisdom, Generosity, and Steadiness of your Councils.

Our Minds are impressed with the deepest Sense of Gratitude to your Majesty on this Account, and we have the utmost Confidence in your Wisdom and Goodness, that this happy Event shall be improved in all the useful Branches of Civil Policy, to the real Benefit and Advantage of your Subjects, and towards completing the Glories of your Majesty's Reign.

We are truly sensible of the many Blessings, both of a Religious and Civil Nature, which we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, and most sincerely pray that you Reign over us may be very long, and as prosperous, glorious, and easy to yourself, as it is beneficial and happy to your People. And we beg Leave to assure you Majesty, that we will do every Thing in our Power to promote Religion, Virtue and Industry, and to put all Restraints on Licentiousness, which we esteem the surest Marks of an unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, and the most firm Supports of a free, a great, and independent Kingdom.

Your Majesty's Wisdom and Vigour in conducting the vast Operations of the late War, demand our utmost Admiration and Esteem.—To this Cause, under God, and the Valour and Prudence of your Fleets and Armies, we impute all our Glorious Successes Abroad, and our Peace and Security at Home.

Your Majesty's Magnanimous and Generous Interposition for Peace, in the Midst of Victory and Conquest, became the Humanity of a Conqueror, and the Dignity of a British King.—We cannot enough admire your Fortitude and paternal Goodness, in the Conclusion of this Peace, in Terms so equitable and explicit, by which a vast Extent of Territory is added to your Crown.—New Sources of Trade and Commerce are thereby opened to your Subjects; and from these we may not only hope to settle our Happiness on a solid and lasting Foundation, but by a proper Improvement of the Advantages thus gloriously obtained, we may add to our Felicity all the Riches Trade can furnish, and all the Honour Power can bestow.—With these Enjoyments we do expect, under your Majesty's auspicious Patronage, to see these Nations become as eminent in the Arts of Peace, as they are now in Military Renown.

May your Majesty long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of this Peace, and receive the grateful Returns of a Free and Happy People.—As your Majesty has declared your Resolution to found your own Happiness on that of your People, may your Tranquility never be interrupted by that scandalous Abuse of true Liberty, which too often results from factious Animosity and disappointed Ambition:—And may your Majesty and your amiable Consort, be the happy Instruments to bless these Nations with a Race of Princes, formed in their Minds and Manners like their Royal Parents, to reign over us to latest Posterity.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of the Council,

Ebenezer Hepburn, Provost.

In this Situation, under your Majesty's mild and just Government, we have nothing more to wish and pray for, than that your Reign may be long, happy, and undisturbed; and that the Great Disposer of Events would prosper all your Majesty's Councils with Success, equal to the Uprightness of your Royal Intentions.
