The last Letters from Italy bring an Account, that General Paoli had gained a very considerable Advantage over the Genoese Troops commanded by General Matra, having totally defeated a Body of 1200 Men, of whom upwards of 600 had been made Prisoners; a near Relation of M. Matra was mortally wounded, and the whole Party by this Means dispersed. The Corsicans have likewise made themselves Masters of a Tower on the Sea Coast of Cape Corso, where they seized a Genoese Vessel under French Colours, loaden with Provisions, Ammunition, and two large Brass Cannon. General Paoli was in March, with his whole Force, in Pursuit of M. Matra, and had caused Te Deum to be sung in all the Provinces under his Jurisdiction.

And whereas no Wages, due to Seamen as aforesaid, can legally or safely be paid, as the Law now stands, on producing any Administrations not granted by, or Wills which have not been proved in, the Prerogative Court of the See of Canterbury, held at Doctors Commons, London: In order therefore to save unnecessary Trouble and Expence to such Widows or Representatives, Notice is hereby given, that they should not apply for any Wages due to the Deceased, until they have taken out Letters of Administration in the said Prerogative Court, and in no other whatever.
