Pay Office in Broad-street, June 1, 1763.

Whereas it frequently happens, that the Widows and Representatives of Sailors belonging to His Majesty's Service who die at Sea or in Foreign Parts, ignorantly apply to the Ecclesiastical Court of the Jurisdiction nearest to the Place where such Widows and Representatives happen to live, in order to obtain Administration or Probats of the Wills of such Seamen.

And whereas no Wages, due to Seamen as aforesaid, can legally or safely be paid, as the Law now stands, on producing any Administrations not granted by, or Wills which have not been proved in, the Prerogative Court of the See of Canterbury, held at Doctors Commons, London: In order therefore to save unnecessary Trouble and Expence to such Widows or Representatives, notice is hereby given, that they should not apply for any Wages due to the Deceased, until they have taken out Letters of Administration in the said Prerogative Court, and in no other whatever.

And whereas the Widows and next of Kin of Seamen are sometimes deterred from proving their Wills and Administ'ring, by a Notion, that the Fees and Expences attending the same are so large, that it is not worth their While to entitle themselves to receive Wages which amount only to small Sums.

Notice is hereby given, that the Charge at Doctors Commons of taking Administrations or proving the Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majesty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Sisters of such Seamen where the Effects of the Deceased are under the several Rates of Five Pounds, Twenty Pounds, Forty Pounds, and Sixty Pounds, by Commissions or otherwise, amount to no more than the respective Sums particularly specified in the Table or Schedule hereunder mentioned, Stamps Office and Proctors Fees all included.

A Schedule or Table of the Charges at Doctors Commons, of taking Administrations, or proving Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majesty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Sisters of such Seamen, distinguished according to the Amount of the Deceased's Effects, and as taken without or by Commission, and wherein Stamps, and all Office and Proctors Fees are included.
