St James's, June 21.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of Beverley, having been transmitted by William Burrow, Esq; Chamber Clerk to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of Beverley in the County of York.

WE your Majesty's ever loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of Beverley in the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most sincere Congratulations upon the happy Return of Peace: An Event most desirable in its own Nature, and peculiarly interesting to a Commercial Nation.

Your Majesty's Wisdom, which the most flattering Series of good Fortune could not mislead, sensible that the Title of Military Glory is ever the most dangerous when it is the most rapid, stopped the devastating Hand of War, and restored to your Subjects, and in its Consequences to all Europe, the Blessings of Peace: Blessings, which to us are the more dear, because we have seen the great Ends of the War fully accomplished; the Injuries, which these Kingdoms have received from Foreign Powers, vindicated; their Ability to annoy us hereafter circumscribed; our Colonies protected; and a vast Territory added to the British Empire.

These are real Glories, which no Time can efface; no Fortune obscure. The Fame resulting from Military Achievement, however splendid and magnificent, is nevertheless accompanied with Calamity and Terror. But during this more happy Period, the liberal Attainments of Science, the copious Advantages of Commerce, and all the amiable Arts of Peace, will flourish under the Protection of a Prince of Virtues too exalted to derive His Fame from any other Source, than the true Happiness of His People.

Given under our Common Seal, the Seventeenth Day of June, 1763.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bishop's Castle in the County of Salop. has been presented to His Majesty by Peregrine Cust, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bishop's Castle in the County of Salop.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Recorder, Justice, Capital Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bishop's Castle, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with this our most humble and hearty Address of Congratulation on the general Peace, which your Majesty's Wisdom has so seasonably and honourably accomplished.

May Heaven long continue to your Majesty, the Happiness of seeing your united People securely enjoying and thankfully acknowledging your paternal Care in every other as well as in this particular Instance; and may your Royal Descendants inherit with your Majesty's Virtues, the Throne of these Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, the Seventh Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Edward Deering, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, with a deep Sense of Gratitude and Affection, beg Leave to Express our sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of a just and honourable Peace.

It was with infinite Satisfaction we saw almost the whole of your Majesty's Military Operations, (conceived with Wisdom, and executed with Valour,) crowned on all Sides with Success; and it is with additional Joy, we now behold them terminated with Glory.

We cannot too much admire and acknowledge your Majesty's condescending Goodness, your tender and compassionate Regard to the unhappy Sharers in the Calamities of War, when, in the full Career of Victory and Triumph, you were graciously pleased to listen to Terms of Accommodation, which might effectually confirm and secure those two great Objects of your Majesty's Concern, the Safety and Welfare of your faithful and affectionate People.

Long may the Nation continue to enjoy the Blessings of this salutary Event; and long may your Majesty reign, there especially, where Dominion is best established, in the Hearts of your loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Corporation of Monmouth, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Return and Blessing of Peace, after the Ravages of a long, though successful War, and accompanied with so large and extensive a Cession both of Territory and Commerce to your Majesty and your Dominions.

Our Liberties are as dear to us as to others; but we are in no Pain for them under the Protection of a Prince of your Majesty's Royal Virtues and Character.

ter. We are also Friends to Monarchy and the Dignity and just Rights and Privileges of the Crown. We think them all compatible and consistent with our Constitution, a Constitution so justly poised, and so wisely adapted to the true Ends of Government, as to render it at once the Envy and Admiration of our Neighbours.

But we conceive there is a wide Difference between Liberty and Licentiousness, between Patriotism and Faction; and when the latter puts on the Mask of the former, and under that specious Veil propagates and diffuses its baneful Influence, we cannot conceal our Fears for its Increase, nor our Wishes to see it confined, by every necessary Constitutional Method, to the Limits prescribed it by the Laws of our Country.

We have the greater Reason to express our Fears for the Growth of this Evil, as it has lately shewn itself here in a Manner we are ashamed to mention; but our Silence might pass for Guilt, and we have the Satisfaction to be no Parties to or Encouragers of an Outrage we could not then prevent: We shall, however, shew it our strongest Reluctance, and exert our utmost Endeavours to preserve the Order and Tranquility of our Town, already settled, and to prevent such Excesses for the Future.

Be pleased, Royal Sir, most graciously to accept these our Congratulations and Assurances, as the Dictate of that unfeigned Duty and Attachment we have for your Person and Government; and may your Majesty long reign in the Hearts and Affections of an united, happy and grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the fourteenth Day of June, 1763, and in the Third Year of your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, has been presented to His Majesty by Richard Vernon, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, in Common Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Corporation of Bedford, humbly presume to present to your Majesty this our Address upon the Return of Peace.

The Ravages of War had made sufficient Havock through the Globe, when your Majesty, ever attentive to promote the Happiness of Mankind, put an End to the further Effusion of human Blood, by concluding a Peace as honourable as we hope it will be lasting.

That your Majesty may uninterruptedly enjoy that Peace, which you have given to others; and that all your Subjects, from a Principle of Gratitude, may endeavour to increase its Blessings by their Unanimity; and that the Voice of Sedition may never be heard in our Streets, are our most earnest Wishes.
