St. James's, June 28.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable John Ward, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and humble Thanks for your great Goodness and tender Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects, in relieving them from the Burdens of a War, most expensive in Men and Money, by a safe and honourable Peace; the Conditions of which assure us not only of its Stability and Permanency, but of great Advantages to the future Commerce of your Majesty's Subjects. However glorious may have been the Events of the late War to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and to the Conduct and Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, it must give Satisfaction to every humane Mind to see the Miseries of War exchanged for the Blessings of Peace; and those Men, who to their Honour and Success, and so successfully for their Country, fought your Majesty's Battles, returned to Manufacture, Agriculture, and Commerce. However inexhaustible may have been found the Resources of this Nation, yet every Nerve was straining; and we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, that the Peril exists no longer, that the Dangers as well as the Severities of War are over, and the pleasing Prospect now before us is Plenty and Security in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions; an extensive and improved Commerce, Admiration, Respect, Love, and Esteem among foreign Nations. These we owe to your Majesty, and for these we beg Leave to offer our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Portsmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Mathew Fetherstonhaugh, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth in the County of Southampton.

WHILE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of Portsmouth, beg Leave to express the just Sense we have of your Majesty's Goodness, by delivering us from a most burthensome and expensive War, by a Safe and Advantageous Peace.

We look upon this glorious Event as the happy Consequence of that Spirit and Resolution, with which your Majesty has vindicated your Rights as Sovereign of this Kingdom; tempered at the same Time with a noble Self-Denial of all the Success and Glory that must have constantly attended your Majesty's Arms in the Prosecution of so just and necessary a War. It is a Disposition of Mind truly great in a Prince, to choose rather to procure Peace for His Subjects, than to lead them to Victories; to adorn His Reign with the sincere and grateful Acclamations of a happy People, rather than the Splendor of Triumphs. To this Greatness and Goodness of Heart we thankfully ascribe the Return of this inestimable blessing; and as we are deeply sensible of the Happiness we derive from it, we will shew that we know how to put a just Value upon it, by admitting no other Contention among us, but who shall be most active in promoting the Publick Felicity, by rendering your Majesty's Reign as easy and glorious to your Majesty, as it is happy and advantageous to your People.

Dated at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Fourteenth Day of June, 1763.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Lanerk, has been presented to His Majesty by Capt. John Ross, Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Lanerk, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WHILE the Justices of the Peace, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Lanerk, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with that Loyalty, Love and Gratitude, which, as happy Subject, we owe to the best of Sovereigns, to offer our most Cordial Congratulations on the late Glorious Peace; by which Tranquility is restored to these Realms, and in Effect, to almost all Europe; together with its Dependencies and Connections, in the different Quarters of the Globe: A Peace so highly Advantageous to your People, that nothing equal to it appears in the British Annals; at the same Time, so fully adequate to the Success of your Majesty's Arms, and so perfectly compatible with the general Interest of Europe, that we may reasonably hope, that a long Cessation from the Horrors and Devastations of War will ensue, and prove even to latest Posterity, the superior Prudence with which it was conducted.

But to enter into Particulars, to say with what Prudence and Vigour so extensive a War has been carried on, at the same Time that our Commerce was fully protected, with what Fidelity our Allies have been supported and defended; how a new and formidable Enemy arose, and was quell'd in one Campaign; and what Acquisition of Territory has been made where alone Acquisitions can be useful; would greatly exceed the Bounds we must prescribe to ourselves in an Address, though we can prescribe none to our Affection and Gratitude; History, and the Experience of future Times alone, can and will do your Majesty that ample Justice, which so many illustrious Achievements have deserved.

Penetrated with these Sentiments, and sensible from Effects, that the interior Part of the Government is managed with Ability, Virtue and Oeconomy, it is, Sir, with equal Surprize and Concern, but mixed with much Indignation, that we have lately perceived some factious and feeble, though noisy and surely unsuccessful Attempts, to give us sinister Impressions of your Majesty's Virtues and Government, and of the Integrity of the Legislature.

But we see, we feel, that we are happy; that our Liberties and Properties are fully secured: And as we esteem your Majesty to be the greatest Friend to Liberty in your Dominions; so we beg Leave, on our Part, to say, that we are no less Foes to Licentiousness, than Friends to Liberty, and that we are sure it is our Interest to be so: That consequently we detest and abhor all such seditious Practices, and their Authors, for whom we shall always express that strong Disregard and Contempt, which they highly merit, who meanly preferring private Views to the publick Good, have, under the Cover of Liberty, dared to meditate her Destruction, by insolent and licentious Efforts, tending plainly to introduce Confusion and Anarchy, in the room of Order and good Government.

In Prosecution of the same evil Purpose, these Men have thought fit to throw Aspersions upon your Majesty's faithful Subjects in the Northern Part of this Island, vainly endeavouring to divide, whom a happy Union and mutual Interest have so long, and so firmly, connected: But we are far from attributing the Malice and Wickedness of a Few, to the Whole of a Nation, which we love and honour, and from which, among many other signal Advantages, we have derived that additional Establishment to our Liberty, and farther Security for our Property, which our Forefather long wished for, and which we have the Happiness to enjoy.

Such are the Sentiments we entertain in our Hearts, such only we shall take Care to propagate and confirm in the Minds of our Fellow-Subjects: And these Sentiments we will abide by with our Lives and Fortunes.

That God may long preserve your Majesty to reign over a free, happy and grateful People; and that He may continue the same Blessing to our latest Posterity, in your illustrious House, is the earnest Prayer of us all. At Hamilton, the Tenth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

Signed in the Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting, Ch. Hope Weir, Praeses.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, having been transmitted by Coningsby Sibthorp, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WHILE the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln (in Common Council Assembled) present our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty on the present happy Situation of this Country; freed by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils from the hazardous Uncertainties of War, and restored to all the Blessings of Peace; governed by a King who makes the Happiness of his People the first Object of his Care; and in the Possession of Laws admirably contrived to secure the Liberty of the Subject, at the same Time that they give Dignity to the Prince. Whilst we have these invaluable Treasures to boast of; there can be no Room for Murmurs or Discontent; no other Occasion but for Joy, for Gratitude to the Supreme Being, and Respect to your Majesty's Person and Government. Long may your Majesty live to behold your People happy and prosperous; meriting the high Advantages they are blessed with, and as eminently distinguished for their Affection to their King and Country, as for the Freedom and Bravery of their Spirit.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall, of the City of Lincoln, the Twenty-third Day of June, in the Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Wetzlar, June 1. The 28th of last Month, at Two in the Morning, we were greatly alarmed by the sudden Arrival of two Bodies of Troops, one coming from Darmstadt, the other from Giessen; consisting in two Regiments of Infantry, four Battalions of Militia, and 500 Horse and Hussars together, with a Train of 30 Pieces of Cannon. These Troops were no sooner arrived before the Town, than they forced open the Gates, took Possession of all the principal streets, and broke open the Houses of the Burger Masters, and of the Sixteen Senators, who were obliged to appear before a Deputation sent by his Serene Highness the Margrave of Hesse Darmstadt. Several Houses have actually from 70 to 80 Soldiers quartered on them, and nobody has Leave to go out of the Town, except the Post: Even the Members of the Imperial Chamber have not this Liberty.

The Margrave's Pretext for treating this Town in the above Manner is, That the Magistrates refused to give the Satisfaction which his Serene Highness required, relating to some Quarrels that arose soon after the Conclusion of the Peace, between his Troops and a Detachment of Those of the Allied Army, escorted by the Soldiers of this City, in which the Former were repulsed. Several Burghers are accused of having assisted the Allies; and his Serene Highness alleges, that the Magistrate, and several of the Senators, abused his Officer.

This Morning the Imperial Chamber was assembled; but it is not known yet what Resolution they have taken.

Mentz, June 8. It having pleased the Almighty to take out of this World, the Elector our late Sovereign, the 4th in the Afternoon, the Chapter took Possession of the Government of the State, and fixed the Election of an Archbishop to the 5th of July. Four of the Chapter are Candidates, viz. Baron d'Eltz, Great Dean; Baron Breidbach, Great Prevot; Baron Frankenstein, and Baron Smidberg, Stadholder of Erfurth. It is generally believed the Chapter are resolved to chuse ex gremio, and that they have fixed the Election to so early a Day, in order to prevent Foreign Recommendations.

Vienna, June 8. The Duke of Deux Ponts set out from hence last Week for Manheim, where he will pass the Summer; after which he will go to Prague to take on him the Government of the Kingdom of Bohemia. Prince Charles of Lorraine is expected here about the End of this Month.

Her Royal Highness the Infant Arch Dutchess being with Child, the Journeys to Parlsbad and Italy will not take Place. The Court continues at Laxembourg; and, after having passed another Month there, proposes to have several Parties of Pleasure at Hollitich and Schloisshoff.

All possible Means are used for repairing the Fortresses of Hungary, and putting them into a good State of Defence.

Vienna, June 11. Advice has been received, that a considerable Body of Turks have invaded the Imperial Croatia near Brot and Gradisca, that they have pillaged several Villages, carried off Numbers of Cattle, Forage and other Provisions; so that they were obliged to assemble all the Posts thereabouts to drive these Plunderers into their own Country. Hitherto it is believed, this Invasion proceeds from the great Scarcity that reigns amongst the Turks in that Neighbourhood; because as the Plague is broken out there, the Imperial Subjects are forbidden having any Communication with them. However, Colonel Lanus has received Orders to set out without Delay for that Kingdom, to order several Saques to be built, and to raise Men necessary for the manning of them.

Ratisbon, June 11. Baron Lynsker, Minister Plenipotentiary of the Elector of Mentz, and Director of the Electoral College, received the 8th in the Morning, by a Courier, the melancholy News of the Elector's Death, with full Powers from the Chapter for the Administration of the Suffrage of Mentz, and of the Directory of the Empire; but the Prince of Tour Taxis, Chief Commissary, not being here, he could not legitimate himself, according to the Convention made between the Court of Vienna and the Elector of Mentz; consequently he could not regularly act as Director of the Electoral College; however, as he was informed Ministers Plenipotentiary of Saxony intended to to convoke the Diet, he thought proper to send a Message, intimating his Design of doing it himself, by a Clerk of the Chancery to all the Ministers, which they refused to receive, the Right of making such a Notification not being yet settled. Notwithstanding this, the Ministers Plenipotentiary of Saxony and Cologne proceeded to convoke the Diet. The Elector of Treves also pretends to the Directory of the Empire on the Death of the Elector of Mentz; but as his Suffrage is administered by Baron Lyncker, the Secretary of Legation of Treves contented himself with making a verbal Protestation to the Ministers of Saxony and Cologne against the Convocation of the Diet made by them. The 10th at Noon, the Electoral College, as well as That of Princes, assembled in their own Right, and not by Virtue of the Convocation made by the Ministers Plenipotentiary of Mentz, Saxony, or Cologne, and agreed among themselves to adjourn till the 18th of July, as is usual on this Occasion.

Florence, June 11. The two first Divisions of the Tuscan Troops are arrived here from Germany, and the last is to follow in two Days; there are few Italians among them, the greatest Part of those being dead by Germany.

On the 4th instant, the Pope went to Castle Gandolfo. He has committed the Examination of the Affair of Liege to a Congregation of Cardinals; who are to make their Report to him, when he returns to Rome, the latter End of this Month.

Passau, June 16 Some Days ago our Bishop set out to make the Pastoral Visit of his Diocese. His Highness was taken ill the 10th of a Pleurisy, and was advised to return home; but his Desire to confirm some hundreds of his Flock the 11th, made him prefer his Duty to his Health, and so much augmented his Distemper, that he died the 15th at Matighouen in Bavaria, on the other Side the Inn.

This Prince was born Count of Thun; he had been Bishop only thirteen Months, during which Time he shewed great Zeal for establishing an exact Discipline among all the Ecclesiasticks of his Diocese, and did an Example of Piety and Resignation.

Copenhagen, June 18. Baron Bernstorff is ill of an Ague and Fever, which for the present has put a Stop to his Attendance in Council.

The unseasonable Coldness of the Weather seems still to keep this Place unhealthy, though the weekly Bills have begun to decrease of late in the Number of Burials, and are fallen a little below one hundred.

Yesterday the Guard of Citizens was wholly withdrawn from the Posts of this Garrison, which the Regular Troops have now resumed.

Walern, June 19. The Landgrave of Hesse proposes, as we hear, to set out from hence next Thursday for Franckfort, in his Way to the Baths of Schlungenbadt.

Hague, June 24. The Margrave and Margravine of Baden Dourlach sat out on their Return to Germany Yesterday Morning, taking Rotterdam and Amsterdam in their Way.

Nothing has hitherto been received directly from the Colony of Berbices, in relation to the Insurrection of the Negroes, and the Devastations committed by them. But the Letters from other Parts give a melancholy Account of that Affair. Preparations are making, for the Succour of that Colony, by Naval and Land Forces, to be sent as soon as possible from hence.

The Bishoprick of Liege continues still to be administered by the Chapter, the Court of Rome having charged them with the Care of it, till a Resolution shall be taken upon the Representations of the two Candidates.
