St. James's, July 2.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Dublin, having been transmitted to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has been presented to His Majesty, in the Absence of his Lordship, by the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Dublin,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Dublin in your Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Supreme Wisdom and Humanity, in concluding an extensive and destructive though a glorious and successful War, by a reasonable and universal Peace.

The Security and Plenty, which your Subjects of this Kingdom enjoyed amidst the Ravages and Devastations of Foreign Countries, affect us with the strongest Sense of Esteem and Gratitude for your Majesty's Paternal Attention to the Prosperity of all your People.

For such Blessings, a zealous Attachment to your Sacred Person, a sincere Reverence of your high Dignity, and a watchful Care to promote Peace and Harmony amongst ourselves, are an easy Tribute, which we beg Leave to assure your Majesty we will most cheerfully pay.

May your Royal Piety, Virtue, and Love of your People, receive at all Times in Return (the best Reward to a great Mind) their cordial and affectionate Obedience to your mild and gracious Government; without which your Majesty's wisest Endeavours to increase their Importance Abroad, and their Happiness at Home, may be disappointed.

Signed at our County Court, this Tenth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Glasgow, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Frederick Campbell, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Glasgow.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of the City of Glasgow, animated with an affectionate Zeal and dutiful Attachment to your Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to congratulate your Majesty on the Establishment of a Peace, so honourable to your Crown, and so beneficial to your People.

Your paternal Care in preserving the internal Tranquility of your Kingdoms, and protecting their Commerce during the Course of a long but necessary War; your setting Bounds to your Conquests; and in the Midst of unparalleled Successes, restoring Peace to every Quarter of the World, must endear your Majesty, and render your Name and Memory sacred and respectable to your happy Subjects, and their Descendants to the latest Ages.

The Extending and Enlarging your Dominions by the immense Countries added to the British Empire, the Securing to your People the undisturbed Possession of their Properties in the American Colonies, the Opening new Sources for Trade, and raising the Glory and Honour of Britain to a higher Pitch than could reasonably have been expected from the most prosperous War, and the fixing all these solid National Advantages by an equitable, and, we hope, a lasting Peace, are Blessings which, under God, we owe to the Wisdom and Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils and Government.

May your Majesty's Subjects be always sensible of the Equity and Mildness of your Administration; and, directed by a Spirit of Concord, may they discourage and detest all factious and seditious Practices, and testify their inviolable Fidelity to the best of Princes, by an exemplary Obedience to the Laws, and a wise Improvement of the Arts of Peace: May your Majesty long reign over a free and contented People; and may the Crown of Britain descend to your Majesty's illustrious Posterity to the End of Time.

Merchants Hall, George Brown, Dean of Guild. Glasgow, June 14, 1763.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Fife, humbly beg Leave to present to your your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your having, by your prudent and vigorous Measures, happily put an End to a glorious and successful War, by a most advantageous and honourable Peace.

As our Hearts are thus warmed with the most perfect Gratitude to your Majesty, for your paternal Care and Regard for the Welfare and Interests of your People, and full of Zeal for your Sacred Person, we must also beg Leave to express the greatest Detestation and Abhorrence of every Practice that tends to throw Disrespect on your Majesty, so opposite to the Duty and Affection which is due to the best of Sovereigns.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a loyal and grateful People, is the earnest Wish and Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Freeholders of the County of Clackmannan, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of Clackmannan.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN we consider the bloody and dangerous, though just, and necessary War, in which your Majesty, at your Accession, found your Dominions involved; and when we review the unexampled, and uninterrupted Series of Victories and Success, with which it has pleased the Almighty to crown your Arms in all Quarters of the Globe; and when we coolly attend to the Definitive Treaty, lately concluded by your Majesty with the French King, and the King of Spain;

We can no longer refrain from laying at your Majesty's Feet, with all Humility, our grateful Acknowledgements of the singular Blessings we enjoy, as the Fruits of the Rectitude, Wisdom, and Moderation of your Majesty's Sentiments and Councils, whereby you have preferred the Paternal Care of your Subjects, and the Preservation of Mankind, to the unbounded Thirst of Glory and Conquest, so often fatal to young Princes; and that after having fully vindicated the Honour of your Crown, and by the intire Acquisition of those Countries from whence the Seeds of War arose, and a just Arrangement of your other valuable Conquests; having extended and secured the Commerce of your Subjects, the great Object of the War, your Majesty has concluded a Peace on such a Basis, as we have Reason to hope will be as lasting, as it is Just and Honourable, being fully convinced that the System of Europe will neither admit of universal Conquest, nor universal Commerce.

Permit us therefore to testify to your Majesty on this happy Event, our loyal, dutiful, and most sincere Resolutions to contribute every thing in our Power which may render your Majesty's Reign Happy and Glorious; and to discountenance whatever has a Tendency to disturb the Publick Tranquility.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Ayr, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Colonel Montgomery, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-

Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Ayr.

WE your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late honourable and advantageous Peace, which your Majesty has been pleased to conclude, after a most glorious and successful War. A Peace which the Lords and Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, have justly approved of; and, while it secures Happiness to your Majesty's Subjects, diffuses its benign Influence through every Quarter of the Globe.

At the same Time permit us to testify our Abhorrence and Detestation of the late seditious and licentious Practices against the best of Kings; which we can only attribute to the Malice and Envy of disappointed Faction, who would give Laws to their Sovereign, and over-rule the Legislature.

We adore Liberty, and your Majesty as the Great Protector and Defender of it; and we hope, all the Authors and Abettors of Sedition and Licentiousness, who are the greatest Enemies to Liberty, Laws, and all good Government, shall be crushed by your Majesty's steady Resolutions, and the just Retribution of the British Nation.

Animated with the highest Gratitude for your Majesty's great Goodness to all your People, and unparalleled Attention to the Publick Welfare, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that on every Occasion we shall testify our Zeal and Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government, and be ready to support the same with our Lives and Fortunes.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Aberdeen, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. James Stewart Mackenzie, Esq: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, met at Aberdeen the Ninth Day of June 1763.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Aberdeen, presume to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Event of a glorious and advantageous Peace; and humbly account ourselves Sharers in the singular Felicity of our beloved Sovereign.

Upon your Majesty's Accession, national Honour had been carried so high, that with all the Expence of Blood and Treasure, human Prudence naturally feared a Reverse of Fortune; and these Fears were augmented by a powerful Monarch's joining a most formidable Enemy. Yet Victory still attended the Magnanimity of our Sovereign, and the Fortitude of his Council, and, as if Publick Wisdom had been grafted on Private Rectitude, the last Year of the War not only exceeds the former in Military Glory, but will shine in History, as giving to Britain the most honourable and advantageous Peace the Nation ever obtained.

May your Majesty's Self-Approbation enjoy the Fruits of your Royal Virtues in a Virtuous Administration.

It shall be our earnest and constant Endeavour, to approve approve ourselves dutiful and grateful Subjects, worthy of the Continuance of your paternal Care; and to exert ourselves in the Support of your Government, with Abhorrence and Detestation of whatever may be disrespectful to it.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burrough of Perth, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burrough of Perth.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your ancient Burrough of Perth, beg Leave, in approaching your Sacred Person, on this Occasion, to express our Thankfulness to God, and our hearty Approbation of your Majesty's Councils, in preventing the further Effusion of human Blood, by your concluding the late War with an honourable and advantageous Peace; by which a very great Acquisition of Territory is obtained, and new Sources of Commerce opened.

We have the greatest Confidence, that by your Majesty's wise Administration, the Blessings of this Peace will be long continued, and diffuse themselves over your Majesty's Dominions in every Quarter of the Globe. While we cheerfully express the Loyalty and Attachment of this Corporation to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, we cannot but shew our Detestation of every Thing that looks like Disrespect to your Sacred Person, or has a Tendency to weaken the Hands of Government. Signed in our Name, and in our Presence, by John Stewart, Esquire, present Provost of this Burrough, at Perth, the 8th Day of June, 1763 Years.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Forres, has been presented to His Majesty by James Grant, Esq; the Representative in Parliament for the County of Elgin and Forres, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Forres.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of Forres, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and humbly to offer your Majesty our Congratulations on Occasion of the great Goodness and Humanity you have lately condescended to display to these your Realms, and to all Europe, in putting an End to the many Miseries and Distresses of a desolating War, by a Just and Honourable Treaty of Peace; by which your Majesty has not only asserted the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, but also extended the Bounds of the British Empire in every Part of the Globe, and thereby increased the Numbers of your People, and provided for the Security and Protection of your former Subjects.

Your Majesty will permit us to return you our most sincere and warmest Acknowledgments for this great Blessing, and humbly to offer to you our strongest Assurances, that as we cheerfully exerted all our Power and Influence towards supplying the necessary Exigences of the War, so nothing shall be wanting in our most zealous and hearty Endeavours for rendering the Peace useful, lasting and beneficial, by encouraging in those over whom we have any Authority, a Spirit of Religion, Loyalty and Industry, and putting a Stop to every Thing that can disturb our present happy Tranquillity: Our greatest Ambition being to render ourselves worthy of the Protection of the best of Kings.

Our most fervent Prayers are for the Preservation of your Majesty's Sacred Person, of your illustrious Consort our most Gracious Queen, and the Prince of Wales, all dearer to us than Peace itself: May you be preserved for your own private and domestic Happiness, and for granting Stability of Peace to all your People; and under your Majesty's Auspicious Government may there be established such a Form of Religious and Civil Policy among your new-acquired Subjects, that they may soon partake of the great Blessings of a rational Religion, and of the many and substantial Advantages which we enjoy from your Majesty's mild Administration.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Counsellors of the Burgh of Linlithgow, has been presented to His Majesty by Capt. John Ross, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Counsellors of your Majesty's ancient Burgh of Linlithgow, in Council assembled, beg Leave, with the most unfeigned Gratitude and Affection, to approach your Royal Presence, and congratulate your Majesty on the happy Event of Peace restored to these Lands, and to Europe in general, by your Majesty's gracious Care.

The uninterrupted and unparalleled Success, with which your Majesty carried on a just and necessary War against the most numerous and formidable Enemies Britain ever contended with; the Triumphs of your Majesty's Arms, and the Glory of the Nation, extended to every Quarter of the Globe, reflect distinguished Honour on the Wisdom that planned such a Measure, and chose the proper Persons entrusted with the Execution of it.

The growing Burthens of an expensive, though glorious and successful War, made Peace the most desirable of all Objects; and happy we are in the gracious Care of a Sovereign, who, always attentive to the real Interest of his People, fearlessly concluded one on the most honourable Terms: This Peace now established by your Majesty's auspicious Care, more humbling to the Power and Pride of our Enemies, more glorious for our Sovereign, and more advantageous to these Nations, than any recorded in the British Annals, will, we trust, secure from all your Subjects the just Tribute of inviolable Duty and Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and totally silence every malicious and insolent Clamour of Faction.

Highly sensible of the unequalled Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's gracious Rule, the best Wish we can form for ourselves, is, that your Majesty may be long spared to sway the Scepter over us; and the best Wish we can form for Posterity is, that some of your Majesty's Illustrious Race, inheriting your Royal Virtues as well as your Throne, may perpetuate the Blessings

Blessings of your gracious Reign: These therefore are,
and ever shall be, the sincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most most faithful, most obedient,
and most loyal Subjects,

The Magistrates and Council of Linlithgow.

Dr. ANDERSON's, or The Famous SCOTS PILLS;

ARE faithfully prepared only by JAMES INGLISH, Son of DAVID INGLISH, deceased, at the Unicorn, over-against the New Church in the Strand, London; and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland, as well as in and about London, you are desired to take Notice, That the true Pills have their Boxes sealed on the Top (in Black Wax) with a Lyon Rampant, and Three Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. I. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inghish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of excellent Use in all Cases where Purging is necessary, and may be taken with Epfom, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS,

the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurifies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysterie, Price 2s. 6d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Papers, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2s. 6d.
