St. James's, July 9.

THE following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Peebles, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen,
and Freeholders of the County of Peebles.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Peebles, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your late Negotiations, which have happily diffused the Blessings of Peace through every Part of Europe, with the most comfortable Prospect of its Continuance, while your Majesty holds the Balance of Power, to which your Justice and Moderation, the Wisdom of your Councils, and Valour of your Arms, so eminently entitle you.

A great Prince, in the Prime of Life, possessed of the Hearts and Wealth of His Subjects, at the Head of victorious Fleets and Armies, generously and humanely preferring the Safety of the Lives and Fortunes of Mankind, to the ambitious Love of Conquest and Power, is an Instance of Virtue the World seldom sees, but must ever revere.

The late Treaty of Peace adds a Lustre to the Crown of Great Britain, no barbarous License can fully; and gives Advantages to your People. the Intrigues of ambitious Men will never be able to deprive them of; while with us they continue obedient to the Laws, and loyal to the King. Heaven has blessed them with Happy in all the Security, in all the Freedom a civilized People can wish for, we have only to pray, that your Majesty may be long, long preserved to your grateful Subjects; and when Britain shall mourn the Loss of her beloved Sovereign, that our Children's Children may, while the World lasts, enjoy these inestimable Blessings under the Government of his Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, and His Descendants, inheriting all their Father's Virtues.

Signed at Peebles, the 28th Day of June 1763,
in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting,

J. Vassmyth, Præses.

Vienna, June 18. Besides Twelve Saïques of three or four Cannons each, which are building here, and a Number of equal Force at Closter Neubourg, which are destined for Hungary, the Court have also sent to Italy for several Boat Builders, Shipwrights, &c. and Colonel Lanus is on the Point of setting out for that Kingdom, to raise a Battalion to serve on board the said Saïques.

Ratisbonne, June 23. The Magistrates of Wetzlar have sent their Deputy here an ample Memorial relating to a Military Execution made on that Town the latter End of last Month by the Troops of Hesse Darmstadt; with Orders to present it to the Minister of Mentz, to be carried to the Dictature, which cannot be done till the Election of an Arch-Bishop of Mentz has put an End to the Disputes concerning the Directory of the Empire. In the mean Time, a Letter from the Magistrates of Wetzlar to the College of Citys, dated the 7th Instant, is handed about; it contains nothing more than what has already been inserted in the Publick Papers, except, that after the Imperial Chamber had issued several Decrees against the Court of Darmstadt with regard to those Proceedings, the said Troops, after having reinforced that Part of the Garrison, which the Court of Darmstadt has a Right to keep there, had quitted the City the 31st of last Month, carrying with them to Giessen all the Persons they had taken up; where they were not only detained, but, in Disdain of the Imperial Decrees, condemned to work at the Fortifications. The Magistrates add, they were busy in Drawing up the Verbal Process relating to those Outrages, and in specifying their Grievances; after which they promise to give further Informations to the College of Citys.
