

long, peaceful, and glorious, over a free, happy, and united People; and that the British Crown may continue to flourish, with increasing Lustre, on the Heads of Princes of your Majesty's amiable Character, and illustrious Family, to the latest Ages.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by Sam. Lowthion, Moderator.

At our General Meeting at Alnwick, this 14th of June 1763.

Ratibon, June 26. Philip Stanhope Esq; His Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Diet, arrived here Yesterday.

Copenhagen, July 2. A Danish Frigate, under the Command of Capt. Kaas, sailed the 24th past for the Coast of Barbary, having on Board the usual Presents for the Emperor of Morocco, and likewise a new Consul, Mr. Areboe, for Algiers.

On the 28th past a publick Thanksgiving was devoutly celebrated here, as well for the Restoration of Peace to Europe in general, as for the particular Preservation of It in these Dominions.

Mentz, July 5. This being the Day fixed for the Election of an Archbishop, the Chapter assembled in the Morning with the usual Solemnities, and unanimously chose Baron Breidbach of Burreisheim, Great Dean of the Chapter, Elector of Mentz.

Hague, July 8. The Prince of Orange goes Tomorrow to the House in the Wood, near this Town, for the Remainder of the Summer.

St. James's, July 12, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That some Person or Persons, unknown, did, in the Night-time, between the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Days of June last, at the Parish of the Holy Trinity in the County of the City of Exeter, in a Rack-Field there, called Fryershayes, wilfully and maliciously cut Five Serges called Half Quarters, of the Value of Eight Pounds, the Property of Ann Moor, of the Parish of the Holy Trinity in the said County of the City of Exeter, Fuller, then and there being on the Racks; and that some Person or Persons, unknown, did, also, in the Night-time, between the Second and Third Days of this Instant July, at the Parish aforesaid, and in the Rack-Field aforesaid, wilfully and maliciously cut Eight other Serges called Pieces and Half, of the Value of Twelve Pounds, the Property also of the said Ann Moor, then, and there, being on the said Racks; and also Four other Serges, likewise called Pieces and Half, of the Value of Six Pounds, then, and there, being on the Racks, the Property of Abraham Kennaway of the same Parish, Fuller; and that all the Serges so cut as aforesaid were thereby greatly injured, and so as not to be worth One Third Part of the Original Value: His Majesty, for the better Discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Committing the said Crimes, or either of them, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually cut the said Serges) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Ann Moor and Abraham Kennaway, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as above-accepted) to be paid by them, upon the Conviction of any One, or more, of the Offenders.

Ann Moor.

Abm. Kennaway.
