St. James's, July 16.

THE following Address of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leicester, having been transmitted by the Earl of Denbigh to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Leicester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our Congratulations upon the Conclusion of a Safe and Honourable Peace, after having so long felt the Burthens and Miseries of an expensive and bloody, though necessary War.

As a Commercial Nation, we must be particularly sensible of the good Effects of Peace and Tranquility; but how much more interesting are those Effects, when Peace produces an Enlargement of Trade by the Increase of your Majesty's Dominions.

It is with Concern we observe the Malevolence of some, who (notwithstanding your Majesty's universal Care for the Peace and Happiness of your Subjects) attempt the Division of a united People; and in Abhorrence of such Measures, it will ever be our greatest Ambition to discourage and discountenance whatever tends to offer Insult to your Person, or Indignity to your Government.

We heartily join with those who put a candid and equitable Construction upon your Majesty's unwearied Labours in the Service of these Kingdoms, which, having met with a Parliamentary Sanction, it is unquestionably the Duty of every loyal and good Subject to approve.

The following Address of the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Bridport, having been transmitted by the Earl of Coventry to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorset, with Hearts full of the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's constant Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Return of the long wished for Blessings of Peace, by the Restoration of which (in the midst of Victory and Conquest) will be equally signalized the Humanity, as well as the Glory of your Majesty's Reign.

May a due Sense of the many distinguished Blessings your Majesty's Subjects now enjoy, inspire them all with loyalty, Love of domestick Tranquility, and of Obedience to the Laws of God, and of their Country. These Principles so essential to their Happiness, as we feel them strong in ourselves, we shall with our utmost Care endeavour to implant in others, and with unwearied Diligence to enforce the Practice of, within the Limits of our own Magisterial Authority.

With the most unfeigned Sincerity we shall always pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and happy, and over a grateful and an affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the Second Day of July, in the Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and other Members of the Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew, has been presented to His Majesty by Archibald Edmonstone, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Dumbarton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and other Members of the Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to bear a Part in the cheerful Congratulations, paid to your Majesty by all your dutiful Subjects, upon the Re-establishment of a Peace more Honourable and Advantageous, than had ever been concluded by any British Monarch.

Though we bear but an inferior Rank among the opulent Cities of your Majesty's Dominions, yet as we have the distinguished Honour to have been a Part of the ancient Domains of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, we could not be silent upon such a joyful and inviting Occasion, wherein we may take the Liberty to express the like loyal Affection to our present gracious Master, which has ever glowed in the Hearts of our Predecessors to these of your Royal Line, through many past Generations.

Unequal to the Subject, we leave it to others who are better acquainted with the Administration of Publick Affairs, more worthily, as well as justly, to celebrate the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils amidst jarring Interests, and the tender Regard which your Majesty has expressed to the real Interests of your Subjects, in directing these Terms of Peace, to which your Enemies have acquiesced; and which have derived Blessings even to the Unthankful in your Dominions, if it could be supposed that there were any Subjects of such an odious and ungrateful Temper living under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government: In our more humble and distant Sphere, we beg Leave only to add our most ardent Prayers and Wishes,

That your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy, and prosperous, over a loyal, affectionate, and thankful People. In this Rank presuming to vye with the wisest, most powerful, and most opulent Societies in your Majesty's now more widely extended Dominions.

Signed at Renfrew, on the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three Years, in Name and by Appointment of Magistrates and Town-Council, by

James Campbell, Provost.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors and Freeholders of the County of Stirling, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors and Freeholders of the County of Stirling.

ling, met at Stirling this Sixteenth Day of June,
One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three Years.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of Stirling-Shyre, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to join with our Fellow Britons in their Congratulations on that Peace, which, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, has given us the surest Presage of a happy and lasting Tranquillity.

The Allwise Disposer of Events seems to have called your Majesty to the glorious Task of restoring Peace to Europe, humbling the natural Foes of our envied Liberty, and extending the British Rule over Nations hitherto unknown, as a temporary Reward of those eminent Virtues, so conspicuous in every Part of our beloved Sovereign's Deportment, whether in private or publick Life.

Though we have found Words to express some small Part of the Joy we feel in the many signal Blessings we taste of under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, yet we are truly at a Loss to express our Horror of, and Indignation against, those Sons of Faction and Sedition, who take Pleasure in endeavouring to blast the opening Fruits of your Majesty's wise and gracious Administration; and have even dared to insult our our beloved Sovereign, whose Person, Crown and Dignity, as he continues to act as the true Father of his Country, we are bound and most willing to defend, at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and every Thing that is dear to us, as Men, as Christians, and as Subjects of a King, who deservedly reigns in the Hearts of His People.

Secure of the Affections of a loyal and dutiful Nation, we trust, that the Splendor of your Majesty's Regal Virtues will quickly dissipate those baleful Clouds, raised by wicked and profligate Men; while we, though far remote from the Seat of Government, shall never cease to pray, that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over a happy, united, and flourishing Kingdom.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Dunmore.

The following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ancient and ever faithful Subjects, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Conclusion of a Seasonable, Safe, and Honourable Peace, accomplished with such Moderation and Humanity, as bespeaks your Majesty's Paternal Regard to your People, and gives the strongest Hopes, that the Blessings will be fully manifested by its happy Effects, and long Duration.

Permit us (who from our Situation have been more particularly exposed) to express our warmest Gratitude to your Majesty for the gracious Attention shewn to our Security, during the Course of the late bloody and expensive, but Glorious and Successful War.

Your dutiful Subjects of this Island truly rejoice to see your Majesty's Steadiness, and Magnanimity, in Support of the just Rights of your People, crowned with the desired Success.

That your Majesty may continue long to reign the Guardian of the Happiness of a free, brave, and obedient People, and be blessed in every publick and private Relation, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and ever loyal Subjects.
