St. James's, July 26.

THE following Address of the Presbyterian Ministers of the Northern Association in Ireland, having been transmitted to the Lord Lieutenant of the Kingdom of Ireland, has, by his Excellency, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Presbyterian Ministers of the Northern Association in Ireland, in Behalf of themselves, and all others of their Denomination throughout the Kingdom.

Most gracious Sovereign.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Presbyterian Ministers of the Northern Association in Ireland, with Sentiments full of Duty and Respect, beg Leave to embrace this first Opportunity of our Annual Meeting, to express our warmest Congratulations on the Birth of the Prince of Wales; which, by the new Accession of Strength it gives to your Royal Family and the Protestant Succession, must fill the Heart of every true Protestant and Lover of his Country with the sincerest Joy. May the Almighty continue to watch over and guard the Royal Infant, and preserve a Life in which these Kingdoms are so much interested, and from which we derive the pleasing Hopes, that the inestimable Blessings we enjoy will be perpetuated to the latest Posterity.

While with the sincerest Gratitude to Heaven we reflect on the unparalleled Series of Victory and Success, which attended your Majesty's Councils and Arms, during the late just and necessary War, permit us, Great Sir, at the same Time, to express the high Sense we have of that Moderation and Humanity, which in the full Tide of Glory and Prosperity, determined your Majesty to put a Stop to the Miseries of War, and to restore Peace to your Kingdoms; an Event which cannot but be agreeable to us as Men, as Christians, and Ministers of the Gospel of Peace.

When we consider the immense Accession of Territory to the British Empire in America, ceded and confirmed by Treaty; and look forward to the Extension of Commerce, Arts, Liberty, Laws, Religion, and Social Happiness, through those vast uncultivated Regions, a grand as well as pleasing Prospect opens to our View; and we are naturally led to adore the Wisdom of that Being, who makes the Rise and Fall of Empires, and all the Revolutions in human Affairs, subservient to the great and benevolent Designs of his Providence.

Thankful for the Protection we enjoy as Protestant Dissenters, and firmly persuaded, that the Security of our Liberties, Civil and Religious, depends, under God, on the Succession in your Illustrious House, we beg Leave to renew our former Assurances, of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and of the firm and steady Loyalty of that numerous Body of Protestants with which we are connected, who have been, at all Times, remarkable for their Zeal in Support of the Revolution, and the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover. This Spirit it hath ever been our Care to cherish and cultivate; and as it is our Duty, we trust it shall be our Endeavour, on all Occasions, to merit the Continuance of your Royal Favour and Protection, by approving ourselves zealous and grateful, faithful and loyal Subjects to the best of Kings.

That your Majesty and your Royal Consort, happy in the Endearments, and adorned with the Virtues of private and domestick Life, may be blessed with a numerous and hopeful Progeny, the Delight of their Country, and Pledges of its future Happiness; that, under your auspicious Reign, Great Britain, formidable Abroad, free and happy at Home, may long continue to be, what she is at present, the Praise and Admiration of the whole Earth; and that, with her widely extended Empire, the invaluable Blessings of British Freedom, and of pure uncorrupted Christianity, may spread and be diffused to the remotest Ends of the Earth, is, and ever shall be, the ardent Wish, and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects,
The Presbyterian Ministers of the Northern Association in Ireland.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgesses of the Corporation of Morpeth, having been transmitted by Sir William Musgrave, Bart. to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgesses of the Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgesses of the Corporation of Morpeth, beg Leave to address your Majesty, with the warmest Sense of your Majesty's Tenderness, and Affection for the Lives and Properties of your Subjects, and for

for your unwearied and successful Endeavours to put an End to the Calamities of War, by establishing a Peace, which, we trust in God, will be productive of those happy and salutary Effects, which, we are fully persuaded, were the only Motives that influenced your Majesty's Conduct on this Occasion.

May God grant your Majesty a long Reign over a grateful and affectionate People, and a long Enjoyment of that Peace which your Wisdom has established; and may these Kingdoms, happy under your Majesty's most mild and Auspicious Government, have every Blessing, which they can promise themselves, most effectually secured to them, and their Posterity, by a numerous Race of Princes of your Majesty's most Illustrious House, who may inherit the humane Sentiments, the same Goodness of Heart, which so eminently distinguish your Majesty as the true Father of your People, the true Friend of Mankind!
