

for your unwearied and successful Endeavours to put an End to the Calamities of War, by establishing a Peace, which, we trust in God, will be productive of those happy and salutary Effects, which, we are fully persuaded, were the only Motives that influenced your Majesty's Conduct on this Occasion.

May God grant your Majesty a long Reign over a grateful and affectionate People, and a long Enjoyment of that Peace which your Wisdom has established; and may these Kingdoms, happy under your Majesty's most mild and Auspicious Government, have every Blessing, which they can promise themselves, most effectually secured to them, and their Posterity, by a numerous Race of Princes of your Majesty's most Illustrious House, who may inherit the humane Sentiments, the same Goodness of Heart, which so eminently distinguish your Majesty as the true Father of your People, the true Friend of Mankind!
