St. James's, August 6.

THE following Address of the Trustees of the College of Philadelphia, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Dr. Smith, Provost of that College, accompanied by Mr. Inglis, one of the Trustees, and Mr. Powell, one of the Graduates, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Trustees of the College, Academy and Charitable School in the City of Philadelphia in Pennsylvania.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AND the joyous Acclamations of a grateful People, exulting in a Happiness derived from your Majesty's most wise, just, and gentle Administration, see your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Trustees of the College, Academy and Charitable School in the City of Philadelphia, beg Leave to lay our sincere and humble Acknowledgments at your Majesty's Feet, and to express the deep Sense we entertain of your Royal condescending Regard to the Institution under our Government and Direction.

Rendered incapable, by the Ravages of War, of prosecuting our charitable Design, which was begun, and has hitherto been carried on, by private Benevolence, we found ourselves under a Necessity of applying to the Mother Country for such Assistance as we failed of obtaining here. And to give due Weight and Authority to our Application, we humbly put ourselves under your Majesty's most gracious Protection, by soliciting your Letters Patent for a general Collection throughout the Kingdom. 'Tis with the warmest Glow of Gratitude that we reflect upon the Princely Condescension with which your Majesty vouchsafed us this Royal Grant, and recommended it to the Encouragement of all your loving Subjects by an Instance of your own Royal Munificence.

But whilst we are thus imperfectly expressing our unfeigned Acknowledgments of your Majesty's Royal Goodness, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity of presenting our hearty Congratulations to your Majesty and your Royal Consort, our gracious Queen, upon the Increase of your Royal Line, by the auspicious Birth of a Prince of Wales. Long may your Majesty be preferred to bless your affectionate People by your mild and prudent Government, and to instruct and animate your Royal Heir, by the Wisdom of your Counsels, and the Lustre of your Example.

And as the Eyes of the whole World are fixed in Admiration upon your Majesty, and Acknowledgments and Applauses are poured forth before your Throne from every Part of your extensive Dominions, for restoring Peace to contending Nations, for putting a Stop to the Effusion of Christian Blood, and relieving your Subjects from the Burden of a long and expensive War, we humbly crave your Majesty's favourable Acceptance of our unfeigned Congratulations upon this glorious Occasion. Situated as we are in the Center of a Territory, which has long been the Theatre of Desolation and Bloodshed, we cannot but feel a large Share of that General Joy, which is now diffused throughout your Majesty's American Dominions, upon the Conclusion of a Peace so honourable to our Nation, so peculiarly beneficial to us. By this auspicious Event, we are prompted not only to look upon your Majesty, as a Conqueror, triumphing over your Enemies, and giving Strength and Increase to your Subjects and Dominions, but to revere you as a blessed Instrument, in the Hands of Providence, of planting at once the Christian and the British Banners, the Banners of Liberty and true Religion, in the remotest Corners of this Western World, among Nations, wandering beneath the Night of Pagan Error, or deluded by false Principles into Popish Slavery and Superstition. To conquer and to civilize has hitherto been deemed the highest Effort of human Heroism. But to complete the Glory of your Majesty's Reign, Heaven seems to have reserved it for your Majesty, not to conquer and civilize only, but, by spreading throughout your wide extended Conquests the Knowledge of Christ's Kingdom, even to bless Millions of Mankind, with the Comforts of true Religion, and the Gospel Means of Salvation.

Encouraged and animated by these Prospects and Considerations, and bound by all the Ties of Duty and Gratitude, we trust that nothing will be wanting, on our Part, to render our Institution eminently serviceable for these exalted Purposes; and it shall be our earnest Endeavour, as far as our Influence extends, carefully to provide that the Principles of true Religion, good Government, and useful Learning, together with a Love and Veneration for the British Constitution, and an unshaken Loyalty and Affection

[Price Three-pence.]

Affection to your Majesty's Person and your illustrious House, be constantly inculcated in the Minds of the Youth placed under our Inspection.

Signed by Order and in Behalf of the Trustees, at a Meeting held in the College Hall, at Philadelphia, the 27th of May, 1763, and sealed with their Public Seal.

Richard Peters, President of the Board.

They were most graciously received; and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the Governor, Council, and House of Representatives, of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Council, and House of Representatives, of your Majesty's Province of Massachusetts Bay, in General Court assembled.

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governor, Council, and House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, sensible of the great Blessing of Peace, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Restoration thereof, to the several Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, after a long and bloody War.

The Wealth and Power accruing to Great Britain from the growth and flourishing State of her Colonies, raised the Envy of France, and caused her to make Encroachments upon your Majesty's Territories in America, to form, and to begin the Execution of Schemes for reducing or extirpating your faithful Subjects. Repeated adverse Events, at the Opening of the War, threatened us either with the Loss of our Possessions, acquired with great Labour and Expence, or with a greater Evil, the Loss of those invaluable Liberties which your Majesty's Subjects enjoy in every Part of the British Empire.

But God in His Providence mercifully interposed; the Scene was changed; our Enemies have been removed from their Encroachments; their Designs have been frustrated and rendered desperate; and great Acquisitions have been made of their Possessions upon this Continent, which they have been compelled to cede to your Majesty. The Arms of Britain have often prevailed over the Arms of France; but no former War has terminated with so honourable and advantageous a Peace.

Permit us then, most gracious Sovereign, to tender our humble and hearty Thanks for your Paternal Care of us your American Subjects, in protecting us from the Ravages of the Enemy during the War, and in procuring, by the late Treaty of Peace, Concessions equal to our greatest Hopes.

We are bound to contribute to the Happiness of your Majesty's Reign as far as the Remoteness of our Situation and Limits of our Sphere will admit; and it shall be our constant Endeavour to evidence our Gratitude by every Expression of Duty and Loyalty in our Power.

Fra. Bernard, Governor.

By Order of the Council, Andrew Oliver, Secretary.
By Order of the House } Timothy Ruggles, Speaker. of Representatives, }

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Juries, Gentlemen and Clergy, of the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Charles Bunbury, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Juries, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Suffolk, assembled at the Assizes at Bury St. Edmund's, the 28th of July, 1763.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects of your County of Suffolk, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our sincerest Congratulations on the Restoration of Peace to these your Native Kingdoms.

We cannot but acknowledge, with Hearts full of Gratitude, your Majesty's gracious Intentions towards your People, in this as well as the many other Instances of your Goodness since your happy Accession: Peace, more especially an Honourable and Advantageous Peace, must needs be welcome to your Subjects in general; the Land Owners in particular have Reason to rejoice in an Event, which under proper Management must relieve them from Pressures becoming every Day during the War more and more grievous: The Glory of a successful War belongs properly to your Majesty, the Burden is principally our own, yet cheerfully acquiesced in so long as it was found necessary, and much lightened we confess by our uninterrupted Triumphs over an encroaching Enemy.

We doubt not but the same Zeal which has inspired your Majesty to introduce the Blessings of Peace, will also prompt you to encourage and promote the salutary Consequences which should naturally flow from it; and we trust that neither the Efforts of restless and disappointed Ambition, nor the fouler designs of faction: Malice, will so far prevail over the Minds of your faithful Subjects as to give any real Discomposure to your Royal Breast, or ever shake that Firmness and Rectitude which has so remarkably distinguished the Commencement, and we have full Confidence, under the Blessing of God, will add Lustre to the Close of a Glorious Reign many many Years to come.

As far as depends upon ourselves, and we hope too upon our Posterity, nothing shall be wanting that may contribute to so important a Purpose, to protect your Sacred Person, against the Violence of artful and daring Men, to enable you to govern upon the Principles you have ever approved, of publick Spirit and disinterested Policy: In short, to confirm you honoured and esteemed abroad, beloved and happy at Home, shall be the End and Aim of our constant Endeavours, being well assured we can no other way more effectually consult our own Happiness and that of our Fellow Subjects.

Equivalent House, Aug. 3, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Warrford Court Throgmorton Street, London, on Wednesday the 14th of September next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, being the Annual General Court appointed by the Charter.

James Mathias, Secretary.

East India House, June 22, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice, That pursuant to a Resolution of the General Court of the said Company held this Day, the present Interest of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the said Company's Bonds shall cease, and determine on the 31st of December next; and that from and after that Day, the said Company's Bonds are to carry an Interest after the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and the Proprietors thereof are hereby allowed to the 21st Day of November next inclusive, to bring the same to the Accountant of the said Company, at their House in Leadenhall Street (if they think fit) to be marked in order to carry the said Interest of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum from the said 31st of December next accordingly; and that the Principal and Interest to the said 31st of December next, on all such Bonds as shall not be brought in to be marked on or before the said 21st Day of November as before-mentioned, shall be paid off; and that no further Reduction will be made in the Interest on the Company's Bonds without giving Six Months Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Armed Cutters the Grace and Fly, who were actually on Board at Taking the Trois Amis French Sloop, on the 28th of November, 1760, That they will be paid their respective Shares of the Hull and Salvage of the Loading on Monday the 15th of August next, at the Three Kings at Deal; and that the Shares not then demanded, will be paid the first Tuesday in every Month, at the same Place, for three Years to come.

Jonas Benjamin, of Deal, Agent.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's following Ships, who were actually on Board at the Taking the Revenge, a French Privateer, on the 25th of June, 1760, That they will be paid their respective Shares of the Bounty for said Privateer as under, The Bellicieux on Board at Portsmouth, on Wednesday the 10th of August, 1763, and the Montague the 17th ditto, at the French Horn in Cruched Fryers; and the Shares remaining unpaid, will be recalled, at said French Horn, the third Tuesday in every Month for three Years to come.

Edmund Mason, of London, Agent.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Sloop the Hornet, Capt. George Johnstone, Commander, who were actually on Board at the Taking the French Snow St. Sebastian, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the Ship and Goods at John Mayne's in New Broad-street, on Wednesday the 7th of September next; and the Shares remaining unpaid, will be recalled at the Place aforesaid, the first Wednesday in every Month for three Years to come, between the Hours of Ten and Twelve in the Forenoon.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurifies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysteric, Price 2s. 6d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* * Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small-Pox, Price 2s. 6d.

JACKSON'S TINCTURE,

By the KING'S Royal Patent.

THE universal Reputation my Tincture has so justly acquired, and the happy Success that has so many Years attended it, proves it, beyond Contradiction, to be a most efficacious and safe Family Medicine in the following Disorders, viz. Rheumatism, Gravel, Stone, Cholic, Wind, and griping of the Bowels, Consumption, Coughs, Asthmas, and all Disorders of the Lungs, Spitting Blood, and in the Piles; and is infallible in Disorders of the Fair Sex either young or old, (it is far superior to any Medicine extant;) Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises or Swellings of any Sort, especially White-swellings, it cures to Admiration, and affords present Relief in Bruises, Strains, Cramps, Numbness, and all Manner of paralytic Disorders; old Ulcers or Humours, though of ever so long standing, it presently overcomes by an inward Application. No sooner is the Reputation of a Medicine established, but numberless are its Imitators, to detect which, my genuine Tincture hath on the Top of the Bottles my Coat of Arms, and on the Directions the Names of JACKSON and SON, Price One Shilling the Bottle, sold only at my Elaboratory and Medicinal Warehouse in Fleet Market, London.
