St. James's, August 25.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by the Earl of Denbigh, James Eyre, Esq; Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, most gladly embrace this joyful Occasion of approaching your Sacred Person, with our sincerest and warmest Congratulations on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the auspicious Birth of another Prince; firmly trusting, that every Increase of your Royal Family will prove an additional Security, to our Religion, and that Great Charter of Liberty, which, in consequence of the Glorious Revolution, your Illustrious House was chosen to defend.

Your Majesty's ever loyal and faithful Citizens of London, exceeded by none of your Subjects in honest and anxious Zeal for your Majesty's Happiness, and the Glory and Prosperity of your Reign, rejoice in every Event which augments your Majesty's domestic Felicity.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to intreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our faithful Assurances, that we will, at all Times, be ready, cheerfully to render to your Majesty every Instance of Allegiance and Duty, which affectionate and loyal Subjects can pay to the best of Princes.

Signed by Order of Court,
James Hodges.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this Loyal Address; and for the Satisfaction you express on the Increase of My Family. The Religion and Liberties of My People always have been, and ever shall be, the constant Objects of My Care, and Attention. I shall at all Times depend upon the Assurances, which you give Me, of your Allegiance and Duty.

They were most graciously received; and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

[ Price Three-pence. ]

By the Lords Justices General and General Governors of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.
