St. James's, September 2, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, within these Twelve Months last past, there have been several Tumults and Riots in, and about, the Parish of Christ Church in the County of Middlesex; That, in particular, on Wednesday the 24th of August past, a great Number of Persons assembled about the House of one Joseph White, in Lamb Street in the said Parish, and, in a most outrageous and riotous Manner, broke all the Windows of the said House; and, about Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, brought the Body of one Cornelius Saunders (who had been executed, that Day, at Tyburn, for Stealing out of the Dwelling-House of the said White upwards of Fifty Pounds,) and laid it before the Door, and, in the Evening of the same Day, broke open the said House, and took out all the Forms, Tables, Benches and other Things which were in the lower Part of the said House, and made a Bonfire before the Door, and burnt a Quantity of Linnen; and, also, pulled down and destroyed the Wainscot, Flooring and Stairs of the said House; and, on the next Day, assembled again, and could not be dispersed till near Midnight: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said outrageous and dangerous Riot, and in the Taking out of the said Goods, and burning them in the Manner aforesaid, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
