was pleafed to receive very gracioully. To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Conful and Merchants of the British Factory at Oporto:

Most Gracious Sovereign, W E your Majetty's most dutiful and loyal Sub-jects, the Conful and Merchants of the Britifh Factory at Oporto, humbly beg Leave to offer our fincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace.

This Bleffing fo glorioufly obtained by the con-tinued Succeffes of your Majefty's Arms, fills us with Joy, in common with our fellow Subjects; but more particularly from the Remembrance of our late alarming Situation in this Country. We have the higheft Senfe of Gratitude, for the diffinguished M rk of Paternal Regard, which your Majesty was graciously pleased to thew us, in fending fo fealonable an Afliftance of Shipping, at the Time of our greateft Danger, as we'l as for the continual and effrectual Protection of our Trade, in Convoys and Cruizers, during the Courfe of the War. And we most humbly intreat your Majesty to continue to us vou: Royal Favour, fo neceffar, in the prefent oppi fied State of our Trade, in this Kingdom, The Sentiments of Duty and Affection to your Majefty's Sacred Perfon and Government, are most firmly rooted in our Hearts; and it shall be our constant and earnest Prayer to the Almighty, to blefs your Majesty with a long Continuance of every public Majefty With a long and private Felicity. Given at our general Meeting. Oporto, August 8, 1763. John Whitehead, Conful.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Free-holders of the County of Pembroke, having been transmitted by Sir John Philipps, Bart their Reprefentative in Parliament, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majefly's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majelty : Which Addrefs His Majefty was pleafed to receive very gracioully.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addrefs of the High Sheriff, Jüllices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freehol-ders of the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign, WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, beg Leave to take the earlieft Opportunity of expressing our unfeigned Joy, on the Increase of your Majefty's Royal Family, by the happy Birth of another Prince, and our most fincere Wishes for the Health and long Life of His Highness's Royal Mother our gracious Queen, and every Branch of your Majesty's Royal Family.

Animated with a lively Senfe of the Bleffings we enjøy under your Majefty's aufpicibus Governments we cannot omit taking this Occafion to congratulate your Majefty on the Succefs of your Endeavours in reftoring to these Kingdoms an Honourable and Advantageous Peace, after all the Diffreffes they felt in the Profecution of a long and bloody, though a fuccefsful War.

That such a Peace has been obtained with so large a Ceffion of Territory and Commercial Ad antages to your Majefty's Subjects; that your Majefty's Allies Abroad have likewife fhared in the Benefits of it, having had their Dominions reffored whole and entire to them; are fuch memorable and flriking Idftances of the great and good Providence of God; that we cannot look upon them but as the Rewards of Heaven for your Majefty's great Piety and exemplary Virtues.

As your Majesty has thus distinguished yourself a true Father of your People, we should be greatly wanting in Duty to your Majefty, as well as to ourfelves, if we fecond not your Royal Endeavours for the public Welfare, and discourage all future Attempts of our Enemies Abroad, by cementing well the Bands of Union among ourfelves at Home; We therefore beg Leave publickly to declare our utmolt Abhorrence and Deteflation of the Growth of Licentioushels, Party Factions and Divisions among Us, raifed, fomented, and encouraged by the Writings of im-pious and feditious Men, under the fpecious Pretext of Liberty, but truly and indeed using it only as a Cloak for their malicious Wickedness, which tend to sub-vert every Measure that your Majesty's well known Wildom shall distate for the future Good of your People; we shall always think it our Duty to submit to the Determinations of the legislative Powers; and to pay a ready Obedience to established Laws ; we have found the Benefit of fuch a national Temper, under the Conduct of your Majefly, in a very dangerous War, and fhall be very careful, on our Parts, to preferve it in order to perpetuate to ourfelves the En-joyment of the Bleflings of Peace.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been prefented to His Majesty by Henry Crabb Boulton and John Walth, Efgrs. their Representatives in Par-liament, being introduced by the Lord of His Maz jefty's Bed-Chamber in Walting: Which Address His Majefty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester,

Most gracious Soviereign,

VE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worceffer, in Common Council affembled, do, with Hearts infpired with Gratifude for the many Bleffings we have enjoyed under your Mijefty's wile and profperous Reign over us, most humbly intreat your Majefty to acception Congratu-lations on the fair Delivery of the Opten, and the Birth of mother Prince. Which happy Events af-ford us a fair Profpett of a long Continuance and Evidence and the Birthere under the Pertoching of Enjoyment of those Bleffings under the Protection of your illustrious Family, which has, upon all Occafions, fhewed an uncommon Zeal for the Prefer-vation of our Civil and Religious Rights.

That your Majefty's Reign over us may be long, happy, and glorious; that your Subjects may make a grateful Return for the manifold Bleffings they enjoy under your aufpicious Government; and strive who shall be foremost in Duty and Allegiance to fo good a King; and that there may never be wanting a Succession of Princes in your Royal House, to fill the Thione of your British Dominions to latest Posterity, is, and always will be, the ardent and fin-cere Wish of every good and faithful Subject, who has any Regard to his own Happines.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fifth Day of September, One thousand feven hundred and fixty-three, and in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Perch, having been transmitted by John Murray, Efq; their Representative in Parliament, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majefly's Principal Se cretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majefiy : Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very gracioully.

To the King's molt Excellent Majefty.

E the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Perth, happy in every Acceffion of Felicity, publick or private, attending our Sovereign, beg Leave, with all Humility, to felicitate your Majesty, on the late Addition to your Royal Line, by the Birth of another Prince. We alfo moft humbly beg Leave to join with the Reft of your Majefty's faithful and loyal Subjects, in Congratulating your Majesty, on the Return of Tranquility to your Kingdoms, after the great Ends of War have been fo fully accomplished; and when nothing remained to crown our ardent Wishes, but that fate, honourable and advantageous Peace, which the Wildom of your Councils has at length brought to a happy Conclusion.

The fignal Successes of your Majefty's Arms during the War, the many valuable Acquisitions secured to your Kingdoms by the Peace, are manifest Proofs of the Abilities and Vigour of Government, which must fecure to your Majefty a lafting Respect in the Eyes of all Europe; and point out your Reign as an Æra equally happy and glorious to Great Britain.

Deeply, fenfible, Sir, of your paternal Care, which has improved every fortunate Event to the Advantage of the Publick, and of that Private Virtue, which to eminently diffinguither your Royal Character, who can, without Abhorrence, behold a Spirit of Licentiousness and Faction, veil'd under the Sacred Names of Liberty and Patriotifm, daring to infult the Dignity even of the Throne itfelf, and wickedly endeavouring to divide the Sentiments of an united People.

So wild, fo vain an Effort, we feel with Indignation, because of its baleful Tendency to undermine that Liberty, which it speciously affects to allert; but we view it with Contempt, when we reflect on its Inability to alienate our Affections from the beft of Sovereigns.

Fully fatisfied, that Liberty is in no Danger, except from the poilonous Steds of Sedition, Which we learn from Hiltory, and Experience have blatted the Happinels of the most flourishing Kingdoms; we affure outlelves, that the fame Wisdom and Steadinels of your Majesty's Councils, which have tri-effectually check the Arrogance of difappointed Ambition at Home, that it can never difficient real National Concord, on which the Felicity of coardaba jects fo effentially depends.

May we and all your Majefty's Subjects, confeious' of our Happinels under fo mild and io jak a Geven-ment, be infpired with Loyalty, Harmony, and true Publick Spirit; and fee, with giacoff Elearts, every Acceffion of Felicity to your Royal Houle, which are informed and the Parameters. which may infure to us and our Pofterity the Bleffings we now enjoy under your Majefty's most auspicious Reign.

Signed at Perth, the 13th of September, 1763, by Order of the Meeting.
