St. James's, September 17.

THE following Address of the Consul and Merchants of the British Factory at Oporto, having been transmitted from thence to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Consul and Merchants of the British Factory at Oporto:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Consul and Merchants of the British Factory at Oporto, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace.

This Blessing so gloriously obtained by the continued Successes of your Majesty's Arms, fills us with Joy, in common with our fellow Subjects; but more particularly from the Remembrance of our late alarming Situation in this Country.

We have the highest Sense of Gratitude, for the distinguished Mark of Paternal Regard, which your Majesty was graciously pleased to shew us, in sending so seasonable an Assistance of Shipping, at the Time of our greatest Danger, as we'll as for the continual and effectual Protection of our Trade, in Convoys and Cruizers, during the Course of the War. And we most humbly intreat your Majesty to continue to us your Royal Favour, so necessary in the present oppressed State of our Trade, in this Kingdom.

The Sentiments of Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, are most firmly rooted in our Hearts; and it shall be our constant and earnest Prayer to the Almighty, to bless your Majesty with a long Continuance of every public and private Felicity.

Given at our general Meeting:
Oporto, August 8, 1763.

John Whitehead, Consul.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, having been transmitted by Sir John Philipps, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Pembroke, beg Leave to take the earliest Opportunity of expressing our unfeigned Joy, on the Increase of your Majesty's Royal Family, by the happy Birth of another Prince, and our most sincere Wishes for the Health and long Life of His Highness's Royal Mother our gracious Queen, and every Branch of your Majesty's Royal Family.

Animated with a lively Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government; we cannot omit taking this Occasion to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Endeavours in restoring to these Kingdoms an Honourable and Advantageous Peace, after all the Distresses they felt in the Prosecution of a long and bloody, though a successful War.

That such a Peace has been obtained with so large a Cession of Territory and Commercial Advantages to your Majesty's Subjects; that your Majesty's Allies Abroad have likewise shared in the Benefits of it, having had their Dominions restored whole and entire to them; are such memorable and striking Instances of the great and good Providence of God; that we cannot look upon them but as the Rewards of Heaven for your Majesty's great Piety and exemplary Virtues.

As your Majesty has thus distinguished yourself a true Father of your People, we should be greatly wanting in Duty to your Majesty, as well as to ourselves, if we second not your Royal Endeavours for the public Welfare, and discourage all future Attempts of our Enemies Abroad, by cementing well the Bands of Union among ourselves at Home; We therefore beg Leave publickly to declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the Growth of Licentiousness, Party Factions and Divisions among Us, raised, fomented, and encouraged by the Writings of impious and seditious Men, under the specious Pretext of Liberty, but truly and indeed using it only as a Cloak for their malicious Wickedness, which tend to subvert every Measure that your Majesty's well known Wisdom shall dictate for the future Good of your People; we shall always think it our Duty to submit to the Determinations of the legislative Powers; and to pay a ready Obedience to established Laws; we have found the Benefit of such a national Temper, under the Conduct of your Majesty, in a very dangerous War, and shall be very careful, on our Parts, to preserve it in order to perpetuate to ourselves the Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Crabb Boulton and John Walsh, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester, in Common Council assembled, do, with Hearts inspired with Gratitude
