St. James's, September 24.

THE following Address of the British Merchants and Traders in the City and Government of Quebec, having been transmitted by General Murray to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the British Merchants and Traders in the City and Government of Quebec.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the British Merchants and Traders in the City and Government of Quebec, with Hearts full of joy and Gratitude, do most sincerely congratulate your Majesty, on the late glorious and honourable Peace; which hath put a Stop to the Effusion of human Blood, added a great Extent of Territory to your Majesty's Dominions, and restored Tranquility not only to your Majesty's natural Subjects, but also to the World in general.

Of the great Acquisitions which this happy Event hath annexed to your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms, this Country is not the least important; which though valuable in itself, is far more so, from the Security it affords your Majesty's Subjects in the other Provinces in North America; whose Lives and Properties will no longer be endangered from the ambitious Views and insidious Designs of their Neighbours the Inhabitants of this Country, whilst under the Dominion of France,

On this Occasion it were ungrateful in us, not to acknowledge the Advantages we enjoy under General Murray's prudent and mild Administration, which hath been such that we have hitherto scarcely felt the Want of a Civil Institution.

And we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall still devoutly endeavour to cultivate a good Understanding with your Majesty's new acquired Subjects; and to make them sensible of the happy Change, which Providence hath brought about in their Favour; and of the Blessings secured to them by your Majesty's gracious Protection; a signal Instance of which they have already experienced, in the solemn Declaration obtained by your Majesty, from the French King, concerning the Paper Money issued by his Authority.

Done at Quebec, this first Day of August 1763.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Roxburgh, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Roxburgh.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Roxburgh, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Endeavours to increase the Happiness of your People, by the Conclusion of a safe and honourable Peace, the Benefits of which, the longer they experience, the more they must be sensible of your Majesty's Paternal Care and Wisdom; and they can never cease praying for the Continuance of a Reign, in which they must rest assured, that every Circumstance, which can render the Conditions of the Peace more beneficial to them, will be attended to, and improved, by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils.

Permit us, Sire, to assure your Majesty, that it is with the utmost Concern we have observed the late Attempts to alienate the Minds of your Majesty's Subjects, and to create Jealousies among a People, so happily united under your Majesty's Government.

It is our sincere Wish, that Providence may long preserve your Majesty, to be, what you so deservedly are, the beloved Sovereign of a grateful People, convinced as we are, that it is a greater Pleasure to such a Mind as your Majesty is blessed with, to see your Subjects happy and flourishing by the Arts of Peace, than to enjoy all the Glory and Triumph that can attend a successful War.

This Address, by Order of the Meeting of Freeholders, is subscribed by Sir William Scott, of Ancrum, Baronet, their Preses, and in their Name, at Jedburgh, this 2d of August, 1763.
