Constantinople, September 1.

THE late News from Smyrna has alarmed us very much: About Ten Days ago the Ambassadors and Ministers here received from thence the Account of a very extensive and devouring Fire, which, by some fatal Accident, broke out on the 6th of last Month, at Midnight, and lasting 26 Hours, involved in its Progress the whole Quarter of the City, called the Frank Quarter, inhabited entirely by the different Factories of the several Foreign Nations trading there, particularly the English, French, Dutch, Venetian, Imperial, Swedish, Danish, and Ragusean. By the English Consul's Account, not a Merchant's, nor a Consul's House is left standing, except his own, and That not entire, nor without suffering great Damage. Even their Magazines, the Repositories of all their various Merchandise (which had hitherto been looked upon as Fire Proof) burst, through the intense Violence of the Flames: The Scene of Desolation is on all Sides terrible. The Loss of Goods is reckoned, by a gross Computation, at a Million and half of Turkish Dollars, or near 200,000 l. Sterling.

As by the Accounts received from thence, the Behaviour of the Turkish Officers, during the Fire, gave the greatest Cause of Complaint to the Sufferers by it, all the Christian Ministers residing here have presented Memorials to the Porte on that Occasion.
