 The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cochineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted; Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making of such Settlements, do, by His Majesty's Command, give public Notice, that His Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Lands in His Majesty's said Provinces of East Florida and West Florida shall be surveyed and laid out into Townships, not exceeding Twenty Thousand Acres each, for the Convenience and Accommodation of Settlers; and that these Townships, or any Proportions thereof, will be granted, upon the same moderate Conditions of Quit-Rent and Cultivation as are required in other Colonies, to such Persons as shall be willing to enter into reasonable Engagements to settle the Lands, within a limited Time, and at their own Expence, with a proper Number of usful and industrious Protestant Inhabitants, either from His Majesty's other Colonies, or from Foreign Parts; and all Persons, who may be willing to obtain such Grants, are desired to send their Proposals in Writing to John Pownall, Esq; Secretary to the said Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By Order of their Lordships,
 J. Pownall, Secretary.

Whitehall, November 19, 1763.
 Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That in the Nights of the 7th, 8th and 9th Instant,

[Price Three-pence.]

Some Villains attempted to break into the House of Lady Clifton, of Clifton Hall near Nottingham, and one of those Nights were drove off, and pursued by George Bentley, one of her Servants, and very nearly escaped being taken; but the next Night, as the said George Bentley was returning from Nottingham, he was attacked and pulled off his Horse by a Villain; but proving too strong, he cried out; upon which a Second came up, saying, hold him fast till I come, and we'll stop him from running after us again at Clifton Hall; but the young Man got clear of them both. That on Monday Night after, the following anonymous threatening Letter was laid at the Kitchen Door, (which seems to have been wrote by some one of the Villains,) directed, "For
 "yong feer nout."

"Yongue Feerought prepare thy Sen for to go
 "to the Devle thou Son of a Rich thee kild that
 "Man ith Woke and Dam thy Sou! Deah is thy
 "Po.tion by Nite or Day if ever whe lost of thee
 "and that Rich oud Clifton if she does not lay
 "Hunderd Pound under the Hens Steps whee Deah
 "in to her Houre and send her to the Devle whe
 "shall not trist won by his sen to most thee agane
 "thou Son of a Bich."

In order for bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Offences, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said anonymous threatening Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

S A N D W I C H.

And as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, the said Lady Clifton does promise a Reward of Forty Pounds, to be paid by Charles Mellish, Esq; in Abchurch-lane, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
 Charles Mellish.

Navy Office, November 11, 1763.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers from the 1st of January to the 30th of June 1763, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 5th of December, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning; and continued the following Day, beginning at the same Hour, (after which the Lists will be recalled once a Month) that all Persons may then and then attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any public Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the List, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty; and in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, let employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
