

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 3, to Tuesday December 6, 1763.

Naples, November 8.

ON Thursday his Sicilian Majesty came to Naples, to celebrate the next Day the Feast of St. Charles. This being the Name-Day of the King of Spain, was kept as a great Holiday at Court; and, in the Evening, his Sicilian Majesty assisted at the Representation of a new Opera. The following Day his said Majesty returned to Portici, when a Mourning of Six Months was immediately declared at Court for the Death of the late King of Poland.

The Two Neapolitan Frigates of War are to sail, in a few Days, on a Four Months Cruize.

Genoa, November 12. This Republick having received Notice that the Corsican Malecontents had marched a Body of their Men to a small Distance from San Fiorenzo, and that a Half Galley and a Galliot kept cruising near the Entrance of the Harbour, insomuch that the Town is in a Manner blockaded by Sea and Land; the Republick has ordered a large Bark and a Galliot to be fitted out with all possible Expedition, and they are to sail in Two or Three Days, to drive the Corsican Cruizers from their Station, and to open the Communication by Sea with the Town above-mentioned.

Early this Morning arrived His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Valeur, in Fourteen Days from Lisbon, and brought Orders to the English Consul from Commodore Harrison, to prepare a House for him proper for the Reception of his Royal Highness the Duke of York, who is shortly expected.

Turin, November 19. Some French Merchant Ships are arrived at Marseilles, being released from Algiers; by which it is understood, that the Differences between the French and the Algerines are accommodated.

St. James's, December 6.

The Most Christian King having upon His Ambassador Count de Guerchy's Arrival here, sent to the Chevalier d'Eon de Beaumont, who had the Character of Minister Plenipotentiary at this Court, His Revocation from hence, with a Letter addressed to His Britannick Majesty; and having been informed, that M. d'Eon persisted in refusing to pay Obedience to His Orders, and to present the King His Master's Letter; His said most Christian Majesty thereupon wrote a Second Letter to the King, and commanded His Ambassador to present the same immediately; which having been accordingly done, His Majesty has been pleased to declare, That the said M. d'Eon has no longer any Character here, and has forbid him the Court.

[ Price Three-pence. ]

Whitehall, December 3, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, between Eight o'Clock on Sunday Night, and Monday Morning last, a large Elm Tree, growing in the Grove, in the Green Park, near the Wall, accidentally, was maliciously cut down, by some Person or Persons unknown; in order for bringing such Person or Persons to Justice, His Majesty is pleased to give His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, and so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SANDWICH.

And, as a farther Encouragement for such Discovery, the Earl of Orford, Ranger of St. James's and Hyde Park, does promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas, to be paid at the Lodge in the Green Park, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

ORFORD.

Victualling Office, November 28, 1763.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 15th of December next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as shall be inclinable to undertake to supply the provisions required of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels on their Coast to Bristol, and be in want thereof; and also to supply any other separate Contract.

The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office, or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Bristol.

Royal Exchange Assurance Office, London,
November 30, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company do hereby give Notice, that their Transfer Books will be shut from Thursday the 15th of December to Tuesday the 17th of January next; and that the Annual General Court, appointed by their Charter, will be held at their Office in the Royal Exchange, on Wednesday the 21st of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; and that a Dividend will be considered of at the said Court.

Whitehall, November 21, 1763.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cochineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted; Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making