

St. James's, December 10, 1763.

Whereas the House of the Earl of Harrington, in the Stable Yard St. James's, was, on Saturday Night or early on Sunday Morning last, robbed of a considerable Sum of Money, and other Things of Value; His Majesty is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in the said Robbery, who will surrender himself, and discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, or they, may be brought to Justice.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And as a farther Encouragement for the Discovery of this daring Robbery, the Earl of Harrington promises a Reward of One Hundred Guineas to any Person who shall be the Means of bringing any of the Offenders to Justice.

HARRINGTON.

Whitehall, November 21, 1763.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cocchineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted; Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making of such Settlements, do, by His Majesty's Command, give public Notice, that His Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Lands in His Majesty's said Provinces of East Florida and West Florida shall be surveyed and laid out into Townships, not exceeding Twenty Thousand Acres each, for the Convenience and Accommodation of Settlers; and that these Townships, or any Proportions thereof, will be granted, upon the same moderate Conditions of Quit-Rent and Cultivation as are required in other Colonies, to such Persons as shall be willing to enter into reasonable Engagements to settle the Lands, within a limited Time, and at their own Expence, with a proper Number of useful and industrious Protestant Inhabitants, either from His Majesty's other Colonies, or from Foreign Parts; and all Persons, who may be willing to obtain such Grants, are desired to send their Proposals in Writing to John Pownall, Esq; Secretary to the said Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By Order of their Lordships,

J. Pownall, Secretary.

Grosvenor Square, December 9, 1763.

Navy Office, November 21, 1753.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Monday Morning the 19th of December next, Commissioner Rogers will be ready to treat at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth, with such Persons as are willing to perform the Paviours Work of that Yard, and for serving it with Tallow Candles, on standing Contrasts, the former to commence on the 6th of January 1764, and the latter on the 3d of February following.

And on the following Day the said Commissioner will expose to Sale the Hull, Masts, and Tards of His Majesty's Ship Blandford, Burthen 459 Tons, lying at Plymouth, where any Persons willing to be Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing them at any Time in the common working Hours of the Yard, till the Day of Sale: And as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by those who shall purchase the said Ship and her Stores, all Persons that shall attend the said Sale are to take Notice thereof, and go prepared for that Purpose; and unless the said Ship and her Stores shall be paid for, and taken away at the End of Forty Days after the Day of Sale, the Deposit shall be forfeited, and become the Property of the Crown. Printed Inventories of the said Ship and her Stores may be seen in the Clerk of the Act's Office, and at the Commissioner's Office at Plymouth.

General Post-Office.

Monday, November 7, 1763.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail of Letters from Maidstone to Rochester, between the Hours of Nine and Ten o'Clock on Friday Night last, was attacked near the Hospital, within a Quarter of a Mile of Rochester, by three Footpads, one of whom fired a Gun or Pistol, loaded with large Shot, which wounded the Post-Boy very dangerously in his Body, Face and Arms:

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, any one or more of the Persons who made this Assault, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice, or knowing thereof, (except the Person who actually fired the Gun or Pistol) shall make Discovery, whereby one or more of the Persons may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon the Conviction of any one of the Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of Fifty Pounds, and will also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,

Anth. Todd, Secretary.
