Westminster, December 19.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinson, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for continuing, and granting to His Majesty, certain Duties upon Mal, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-four.

An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-four.

An Act for repairing and widening the Road from Shillingford in the County of Oxford, through Wallingford and Pangborne, to Reading in the County of Berks; and for building a Bridge over the River Thames at or near Shillingford Ferry.

And to four private Bills.

Madrid, December 1. On the 10th of this Month is to be drawn the first Lottery, which, as is said, has ever been known in Spain, and it is to be repeated every Forty Days. His Excellency the Earl of Rochford left Barcelona the 19th past, and is expected here the 4th Instant.

Copenhagen, December 3. Prince Charles, Brother to the Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel, who was left at Hanau, upon account of some Indisposition, is expected here very soon.

Berlin, December 10. Achmet Effendi, the Turkish Intenonce, returned last Saturday from Potsdam, highly pleased with the gracious Reception he met with from the King of Prussia during his Stay there.

Prince Henry of Prussia is expected here next Monday; and his Prussian Majesty comes hither on the 15th, to make some Stay.

St. James's, December 11.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Charles Tarrant, Doctor in Divinity, the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Carlisle, void by the Death of Doctor Robert Bolton.

St. James's, December 20, 1763.

WHEREAS by the 8th and 19th Articles of the Definitive Treaty of Paris, the Ratifications whereof were exchanged the 10th Day of March last, Eighteen Months from the Day of the said Exchange are allowed to such of His Majesty's Subjects, who shall have settled in the Islands of Guadeloupe, of Marie Galante, of Desirade, of Martinico, and of Bellisle, or in the other Places restored to France by the said Treaty, or who shall have any Commercial Affairs to settle there, to sell their Lands, and Estates, to settle their Affairs, to recover their Debts, and to bring away their Effects, as well as their Persons;—And whereas, in order to their availing themselves, in the most secure, and effectual Manner, of the Liberty so stipulated, in Behalf of His Majesty's Subjects, it is also provided by the said Article, that they shall be permitted to send Vessels to the said Islands, and other Places restored as above; which Vessels are to serve to no other Use than That of bringing away their said Persons, and Effects;—To go in Ballast;—Their whole Number, and the Tonnage of each, to be limited;—To set Sail within a fixed Term;—To make one Voyage only;—And all the Effects belonging to the English to be embarked at the same Time—And it being further agreed, that his Most Christian Majesty shall cause the necessary Passports to be given to the said Vessels, &c. Which Liberty of bringing away their Effects, as well as their Persons, on Board of Ships of their own Nation, is likewise stipulated, under the same Conditions, in Behalf of such of His Majesty's Subjects, as shall have settled in the Island of Cuba, or have any Commercial Affairs to settle there.

And whereas some separate Applications have been already made to His Majesty's Secretary of State, for obtaining Passports according to the said above-recited Articles from the Crowns of France, and Spain, in order to the procuring of which it may be necessary, that the whole Number of Ships intended to be sent, the Name and Tonnage of each, and the Term within which they will set Sail, should be at once declared; It is therefore hereby proposed and desired, that all Merchants, or others, concerned in the Execution of the Stipulations contained in the above-recited Articles, do deliver into the Office of the Earl of Halifax, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, with all convenient Speed, a Declaration in Writing, signed with their Names, of the Ships proposed to be sent by all, and every of them, either jointly or separately, with the Name and Tonnage of each, and the Time within which they are intended to sail to any of the French Islands, or Places, (specifying to which) or to the Isle of Cuba, respectively: Upon the Receipt of which Declarations, His Majesty's said Secretary of State may be enabled to make Application, in the King's Name, to the Courts of France and Spain, for the Delivery of the respective Passports agreed by Treaty to be given to the said Vessels, as is above set forth.

Leicester House, December 11, 1763.

This Day his Excellency the Prince de Masserano, Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Spain, had a Private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

And afterwards of her Royal Highness Princess Augusta.

To both which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq. Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, November 21, 1763.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cocaineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted; Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making of such Settlements, do, by His Majesty's Command, give public Notice, that His Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Lands in His Majesty's said Provinces of East Florida and West Florida shall be surveyed and laid out into Townships, not exceeding Twenty Thousand Acres each, for the Convenience and Accommodation of Settlers; and that these Townships, or any Proportions thereof, will be granted, upon the same moderate Conditions of Quit-Rent and Cultivation as are required in other Colonies, to such Persons as shall be willing to enter into reasonable Engagements to settle the Lands, within a limited Time, and at their own Expence, with a proper Number of useful and industrious Protestant Inhabitants, either from His Majesty's other Colonies, or from Foreign Parts; and all Persons, who may be willing to obtain such Grants, are desired to send their Proposals in Writing to John Pownall, Esq; Secretary to the said Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By Order of their Lordships,
J. Pownall, Secretary.

Viſtualling Office, December 12, 1763.

The Commissioners for Viſtualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Saturday Morning the 31st Instant, at Ten o'Clock, Mr. John Ommanney, Agent to the said Commissioners at Plymouth, will expose to Sale at the Viſtualling Office at the said Port, One Hundred Pipes of Red Port Wine, lying in His Majesty's Stores there, which they may be viewed by any Persons willing to become Purchasers till the Day of Sale.

A Deposit of Twenty-five Pounds per Cent. is to be made on the Purchase of each Lot at the Time of Sale; and the Remainder is to be paid, and the Wine taken away, within Thirty Days afterwards, in Default of which the Deposit-Money is to be forfeited, and the Wines to remain the Property of the Crown.

The Conditions of the Sale may be seen at the Viſtualling Office at Plymouth, and at the Secretary's Office at the Viſtualling Office, London.

Portsmouth, December 14, 1763.

Whereas sundry Prizes were put into the Hands of Robert Browne and William Warner, of Antigua, during the Command of Admiral Moore on the Leeward Island Station; and afterwards the Subscriber of this Advertisement was concerned for sundry other Prizes taken by some of the Men of War under the Command of Sir James Douglas, on the said Station. And whereas there are sundry Shares of said Prizes still unpaid, although the said William Warner attended several Days for four Months last Winter, at the Castle Tavern in Lombard-street, London, to recall the said Lists, and to pay off the said Prize-Money: He therefore gives this public Notice, (as his Affairs require his Return to and Residence in Antigua) that the said Lists will be recalled the first Tuesday and Wednesday in every Month, at the said Robert Browne's Counting-house, or at the Subscriber's Office in Antigua, till the 1st of January 1765, in order to pay off all legal Demands; after which, such Prize-Monies as have lain Three Years and upwards in the said Agents Hands, and not legally demanded in Person or by proper Powers, as well as the Monies for R. and D. Men, will be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, agreeable to Act of Parliament.

William Warner, Agent.

St. James's, December 10, 1763.

Whereas the House of the Earl of Harrington, in the Stable Yard St. James's, was, on Saturday Night or early on Sunday Morning last, robbed of a considerable Sum of Money, and other Things of Value; His Majesty is pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in the said Robbery, who will surrender himself, and discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, or they, may be brought to Justice.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And as a farther Encouragement for the Discovery of this daring Robbery, the Earl of Harrington promises a Reward of One Hundred Guineas to any Person who shall be the Means of bringing any of the Offenders to Justice.
