Malaga, November 29.

THE Autumn in this Kingdom has been very favourable to the Farmers; and it was hardly ever remembered, that so much Corn has been sown at one Season. The People expect a most abundant Crop next Harvest; and these Hopes make them the readier to bring their Stocks of Corn to Market; so that the Price of Wheat has fallen full 10 per Cent. within this Fortnight. Two French Ships of War of the Line passed close by this Port the 27th Instant: It is supposed they are ordered to cruize about the Streights Mouth, to meet with and convoy their West India Trade homeward-bound.

Vienna, November 30. There are Letters from Constantinople of the 3d Instant, which mention the Deposition of the Vizir, and his being succeeded by Mustapha Pacha, Governor of Aleppo, who has been twice in that Post before.

Warsaw, December 3. Every Thing is quiet here: Many of the Nobility are gone into the Country to prepare their Measures for the Dietines, which are to be held the Beginning of February. The Primate has nominated M. de Poninski to notify the Death of the late King to the Court of England, and to Holland. The same Gentleman is also to go to Spain.

Turin, December 10. His Royal Highness the Duke of York is expected here the 20th Instant. This Court is making all necessary Preparations for the Reception of his Royal Highness, and express the greatest Pleasure at this Opportunity of testifying their perfect Regard and cordial Friendship for His Britannick Majesty and His Royal Family.

Copenhagen, December 13. Count Bothmar set out the 8th Instant, on his Return to London. M. de Poikerfahm, who was his late Polish Majesty's Envoy to this Court, is returned hither with the same Character from the present Elector of Saxony.

Cumberland House, December 20.

This Day his Excellency the Prince de Masserano, Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Spain, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, December 21.

This Day his Excellency the Count de Seilern, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Emperor and Empress Queen, had a Private Audience of His Majesty, to notify the Death of her most Serene Highness Isabella late Wife of the Archduke of Austria.

To which he was introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 23, 1763.

Orders for the Court's going into Mourning on Sunday next the 25th Instant, for her Most Serene Highness Isabella, late Wife of the Archduke of Austria, viz.

The Ladies to wear black Silk or Velvet, fringed or plain Linen, black or white Fans, and white Gloves.

The Men to wear Black full trimmed, fringed or plain Linen, black Swords and Buckles.

St. James's, December 20, 1763.

WHEREAS by the 8th and 19th Articles of the Definitive Treaty of Paris, the Ratifications whereof were exchanged the 10th Day of March last, Eighteen Months from the Day of the said Exchange are allowed to such of His Majesty's Subjects, who shall have settled in the Islands of Guadeloupe, of Marie Galante, of Desfrade, of Martinico, and of Bellisle, or in the other Places restored to France by the said Treaty, or who shall have any Commercial Affairs to settle there, to sell their Lands, and Estates, to settle their Affairs, to recover their Debts, and to bring away their Effects, as well as their Persons;—And whereas, in order to their settling themselves, in the most secure, and effectual Manner, of the Liberty so stipulated, in Behalf of His Majesty's Subjects, it is also provided by the said Article, that they shall be permitted to send Vessels to the said Islands, and other Places restored as above; which Vessels are to serve to no other Use than That of bringing away their said Persons, and Effects;—To go in Ballast;—Their whole Number, and the Tonnage of each, to be limited;—To set Sail within a fixed Term;—To make one Voyage only;—And all the Effects belonging to the English to be embarked at the same Time—And it being further agreed, that his Most Christian Majesty shall cause the necessary Passports to be given to the said Vessels, &c.——Which Liberty of bringing away their Effects, as well as their Persons, on Board of Ships of their own Nation, is likewise stipulated, under the same Conditions, in Behalf of such of His Majesty's Subjects, as shall have settled in the Island of Cuba, or have any Commercial Affairs to settle there.

And whereas some separate Applications have been already made to His Majesty's Secretary of State, for obtaining Passports according to the said above-recited Articles from the Crowns of France, and Spain, in order to the procuring of which it may be necessary, that the whole Number of Ships intended to be sent, the Name and Tonnage of each, and the Term within which they will set Sail, should be at once declared; It is therefore hereby proposed and desired, that all Merchants, or others, concerned in the Execution of the Stipulations contained in the above-recited Articles, do deliver into the Office of the Earl of Halifax, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, with all convenient Speed, a Designation in Writing, signed with their Names, of the Ships proposed to be sent by all, and every of them, either jointly or separately, with the Name and Tonnage of each, and the Time within which they are intended to sail to any of the French Islands, or Places, (specifying to which) or to the Isle of Cuba, respectively: Upon the Receipt of which Designations, His Majesty's said Secretary of State may be enabled to make Application, in the King's Name, to the Courts of France and Spain, for the Delivery of the respective Passports agreed by Treaty to be given to the said Vessels, as is above set forth.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, November 21, 1763.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida, in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cochineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted; Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making of such Settlements, do, by His Majesty's Command, give public Notice, that His Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Lands in His Majesty's said Provinces of East Florida and West Florida shall be surveyed and laid out into Townships, not exceeding Twenty Thousand Acres each, for the Convenience and Accommodation of Settlers; and that these Townships, or any Proportions thereof, will be granted, upon the same moderate Conditions of Quit-Rent and Cultivation as are required in other Colonies, to such Persons as shall be willing to enter into reasonable Engagements to settle the Lands, within a limited Time, and at their own Expence, with a proper Number of useful and industrious Protestant Inhabitants, either from His Majesty's other Colonies, or from Foreign Parts; and all Persons, who may be willing to obtain such Grants, are desired to send their Proposals in Writing to John Pownall, Esq; Secretary to the said Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By Order of their Lordships,
J. Pownall, Secretary.

24 December, 1763.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Saturday Morning the 31st Instant, at Ten o'Clock, Mr. John Ommanney, Agent to the said Commissioners at Plymouth, will expose to Sale at the Victualling Office at the said Port, One Hundred Pipes of Red Port Wine, lying in His Majesty's Stores there, which they may be viewed by any Person willing to become Purchasers till the Day of Sale.

A Deposit of Twenty-five Pounds per Cent. is to be made on the Purchase of each Lot at the Time of Sale; and the Remainder is to be paid, and the Wine taken away, within Thirty Days afterwards, in Default of which the Deposit-Money is to be forfeited, and the Wines to remain the Property of the Crown.

The Conditions of the Sale may be seen at the Victualling Office at Plymouth, and at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London.

24 December, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, that they have made an Agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to circulate Exchange Bills, made forth or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament for that Purpose now in Force, from the 15th Day of December 1763, to the 5th Day of August 1764.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

By Order of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, Notice is hereby given, that the Clergy are to pay their Tenths that will become due at Christmas 1763, to Stephen Comyn, Esq; at his Office over against the Garden Gate in the Middle Temple, London, where daily Attendance will be given for Receipt of the same from the 7th of January next, to the last Day of April following, Sundays and Holidays excepted; and for the Ease of the Clergy, or their Friends in London, the said Receiver desires them to take Notice, that by the great Crowd in the Month of April, many are obliged to wait an Hour, before it comes to their Turn;

and by the same Means the Clerks are so hindered, that they cannot make up the Rolls of Non-Solvents in the Time limited by the Act of Parliament; the Clergy are therefore desired to order the Payment of their Tenths as soon as conveniently may be.

Mercers Hall, London, December 16, 1763.

The Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Mercers of the City of London do hereby desire their Bond and all other Creditors to meet a General Court of the said Company, at their Hall in Cheapside, London, on Friday the 13th Day of January next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, to consider of an Application to Parliament in Relation to the Company's Affairs.

W. Cawce, Clerk.
