

Whitehall, November 21, 1763.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida, in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cochineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted; Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making of such Settlements, do, by His Majesty's Command, give public Notice, that His Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Lands in His Majesty's said Provinces of East Florida and West Florida shall be surveyed and laid out into Townships, not exceeding Twenty Thousand Acres each, for the Convenience and Accommodation of Settlers; and that these Townships, or any Proportions thereof, will be granted, upon the same moderate Conditions of Quit-Rent and Cultivation as are required in other Colonies, to such Persons as shall be willing to enter into reasonable Engagements to settle the Lands, within a limited Time, and at their own Expence, with a proper Number of useful and industrious Protestant Inhabitants, either from His Majesty's other Colonies, or from Foreign Parts; and all Persons, who may be willing to obtain such Grants, are desired to send their Proposals in Writing to John Pownall, Esq; Secretary to the said Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By Order of their Lordships,
J. Pownall, Secretary.

Viewing Office, December 12, 1763.

The Commissioners for Viewalling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Saturday Morning the 31st Instant, at Ten o'Clock, Mr. John Ommanney, Agent to the said Commissioners at Plymouth, will expose to Sale at the Viewalling Office at the said Port, One Hundred Pipes of Red Port Wine, lying in His Majesty's Stores there, which they may be viewed by any Person willing to become Purchasers till the Day of Sale.

A Deposit of Twenty-five Pounds per Cent. is to be made on the Purchase of each Lot at the Time of Sale; and the Remainder is to be paid, and the Wine taken away, within Thirty Days afterwards, in Default of which the Deposit-Money is to be forfeited, and the Wines to remain the Property of the Crown.

The Conditions of the Sale may be seen at the Viewalling Office at Plymouth, and at the Secretary's Office at the Viewalling Office, London.

24 December, 1763.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, that they have made an Agreement with the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to circulate Exchange Bills, made forth or to be made forth, pursuant to several Acts of Parliament for that Purpose now in Force; from the 15th Day of December 1763, to the 5th Day of August 1764.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

By Order of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, Notice is hereby given, that the Clergy are to pay their Tenths that will become due at Christmas 1763, to Stephen Comyn, Esq; at his Office over against the Garden Gate in the Middle Temple, London, where daily Attendance will be given for Receipt of the same from the 7th of January next, to the last Day of April following, Sundays and Holidays excepted; and for the Ease of the Clergy, or their Friends in London, the said Receiver desires them to take Notice, that by the great Crowd in the Month of April, many are obliged to wait an Hour, before it comes to their Turn;

and by the same Means the Clerks are so hindered, that they cannot make up the Rolls of Non-Solvents in the Time limited by the Act of Parliament; the Clergy are therefore desired to order the Payment of their Tenths as soon as conveniently may be.

Mercers Hall, London, December 16, 1763.
