

General Post-Office, December 31, 1763.

The Post-Boy bringing the Rye Mail to this Office, having between Four and Five o'Clock this Morning, imprudently stopt at the Horse and Groom, a Public House in Kent-street, to take some Refreshment, found, upon his Return to his Horse left at the Door, that the said Mail, containing the following Bags of Letters, was cut off and carried away, viz.

Rye, Stonecrouch, Sevenoaks, Tunbridge, Hastings, Battle, Cranbrook, Biddenden, Tenterden, and Hurltgreen.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person or Persons who stole and carried off the said Mail, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds; or, if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplise in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person or Persons, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of Fifty Pounds.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Anthony Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, December 31, 1763.

Public Notice is hereby given, That all such Letters for Germany, and for Turkey by Vienna, as are intended to pass through Flanders, must be directed accordingly via Flanders; otherwise they will be sent by the Way of Holland.

Letters for the Levant are dispatched from Vienna, twice every Month, on the nearest Wednesday or Saturday to the 1st and 15th Days of the Month, without being address'd to the Care of any Correspondent at Vienna. When the said Days of the Month happen on a Tuesday, or Friday, the Letters for Turkey ought to be sent from London so as to reach Vienna within the Fortnight; but, if the 1st or 15th fall out on any other Days of the Week, the Letters ought to depart from hence a Post sooner.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
