St. James's, February 7.
THE Two following Addresses having been transmitted by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Halifax, have, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to offer our most humble and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty, on the happy Solemnization of the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Augusta, with his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick Lunenburg.

Your Majesty, by forming this strict Alliance with that most Illustrious House, has given a fresh Proof of your Wisdom, and of your watchful Concern for the Liberties and the Protestant Interest of Europe. The eminent Services and most exalted Valour of his Serene Highness, in Support of that Cause, during the late glorious War, had in a peculiar Manner endeared his Person and Character to your Majesty's Subjects of these Kingdoms; and although they must be affected with Concern, on your Majesty's being deprived of the Presence of a Princess, adorned with every valuable and amiable Accomplishment, yet they must observe with Pleasure, and acknowledge with Gratitude, that those Virtues, and Services, which have been the shining Objects of National Admiration, are thus highly considered by your Majesty, and dignified by this most distinguished and inestimable Reward.

We humbly entreat your Majesty to accept our warmest Wishes, that this joyful Marriage may prove a fruitful Source of continued Felicity to your Majesty, and to the Princess, and of Strength to your Royal House; and that it may be blessed with the same successful and salutary Consequences, that have attended every other Measure which your Majesty has so wisely determined, and so steadily pursued, through the Course of your most auspicious and happy Reign.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
 The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations upon the Nuptials of her Royal Highness the Princess Augusta, with his Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick Lunenburg. We observe, with the highest Satisfaction, this new Instance of your Majesty's Prudence and Discernment, in uniting more closely to your Royal House, a Prince, whose great and eminent Virtues have rendered him one of the principal Ornaments and Bulwarks of the Protestant Interest; and Europe must be sensible of your Majesty's Justice and Goodness; in rewarding the Merits of a Prince of so distinguished and heroic a Character, with so amiable and so accomplished a Princess.

The Prosperity we have long enjoyed under the Government of your Majesty's August Family, makes us seize, with the most lively Gratitude, every Opportunity to convince the World of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person; and to shew, how warmly and sincerely we interest ourselves in every Event; which can promote the Strength, and contribute to the Happiness of the Illustrious House of Brunswick.
