Helvoet, February 3. The Prince and Princess of Brunswick, landed here Yesterday about Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, after a very long and fatiguing Voyage. About Ten o'Clock this Forenoon, His Royal Highness sailed from hence in the Dutch Yachts for Delft, which will arrive there some Time in the Night, and where the Prince of Orange's Equipages will meet her Royal Highness.

Petersbourg, January 3. The Great Duke appeared at Court on Sunday, and seems perfectly recovered from his late feverish Indisposition.

Petersbourg, January 13. Yesterday being New Year's Day, O. S. there was a Ball at Court in the Evening, and the Foreign Ministers had the Honour of supping with the Empress and the Great Duke.

Florence, January 14. The Princess of Modena arrived here on Thursday Evening from Massa; she went through the principal Streets in her Chaise, in order to see the Town, and then proceeded to a Country House belonging to Marquis Corsi, at a small Distance, which had been prepared for her. Marshal Botta and all the Foreign Ministers went the next Morning to wait upon her: The next Night she was entertained at a Country House of Marquis Gerini; and this Night, at the Emperor's Expence, at a Place on the Confines of the Bolognese State.

Genoa, January 21. By Letters from Bastia of the 10th Instant, the Malecontents have blockaded Calvi and Hiaci. Two large Barks have been laden with Flour and other Species of Provisions, and three Companies of the German Troops sailed in them six Days ago, to relieve the Places which were blockaded.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York continues to enjoy a perfect good State of Health in this City. To-morrow Night a Mask'd Ball will be given at the Theatre; and on Wednesday another by the Deputies, in the Palace which the Republick had prepared for his Royal Highness's Reception.

Lisbon, January 21. The Duke of York Packet arrived on Thursday the 12th Instant, after a Passage of 17 Days; and the Expedition Packet on Sunday the 15th, in 28 Days; each with one Mail.

Their most Faithful Majesties and the Royal Family came from Pinheiro on Sunday, to be present at the three Days Devotion, annually observed on the 16th, 17th, and 18th of January. And their Majesties returned, on the last of those Days, to Pinheiro, where they will reside until about the Beginning of February, when they will proceed to Salvaterra, where the Princess of Brazil, and the Infantas will meet their Majesties.

The Chevalier de St. Priest, Minister Plenipotentiary from his most Christian Majesty, and the Prince of Sanseverino, in the same Character from the King of the Two Sicilies, had an Audience of the most Faithful King on Tuesday the 17th, to present their Credentials.

Last Week some Fishermen upon the Coast, perceiving a Vessel at Sea in Distress, went up to her, and found it to be an English Vessel with only two Men on Board. They brought the Ship into this River, which appears to be the Molly Sloop, Capt. Henry Hartley, belonging to Placentia, and bound from Sta. Cruz in Teneriffe to New York, with Wines. The Captain, while at Teneriffe, being in
