Genoa, February 11.

THREE Days ago this Republick received Advice from Bastia, that Pasquale de Paoli had put himself at the Head of a Body of Malecontents, with some Cannon. Yesterday Morning his Royal Highness the Duke of York set out from hence for Turin, and seemed very well satisfied with the Attention shewn by this Republick to make his Stay here as agreeable to him as possible.

Venice, February 15. The last Advices from Dalmatia, which have been received at the Health Office, are rather more favourable than the Preceding, the Plague having ceased entirely in Clissa, and not increasing in the Suburbs of Spalato: Nevertheless on Saturday last the Senate appointed a noble Venetian to go into that Country, to assist the Proveditor General in taking the best Methods for stopping the Progress of the Contagion.

Hague, February 28. We hear that the Hereditary Prince and Princess of Brunswick arrived safely at Brunswick from Lunenbourg, on the 23d Instant, where they had been received with the greatest Demonstrations of Joy.

This being the Anniversary of the Princess of Nassau-Weilbourg's Birth-Day, the Prince Stadtholder received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, and all the People of Distinction at the Hague, upon the Occasion.

Hague, March 2. M. Kalkoen, who had been named on the Part of the Republick to reside as Ambassador at Constantinople, died this Morning.

Admiralty Office, March 3.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the concerned, That Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 26th of last Month, about Ten o'Clock at Night, the Ship Anna Maria, whereof John Verboom was Master, of the Burthen of about Two Hundred Tons, bound from Hamburg to Bourdeaux, with Iron, Copper, Scythes, Tin, Lead, and Leather, in a Storm struck on Happisburgh Sand off the Coast of Norfolk, where she lost her Steerage, and the Pumps being choaked, about Two o'Clock the next Morning there was nine Feet Water in the Hold, when the Master with his People took to the Boat, and got safe ashore at Happisburgh.

Pb. Stephens.

St. James's, February 28, 1764.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, that on Wednesday the 15th Day of this Instant February, Mathew Delobanty, an Irish Chairman, and several other wicked and ill-disposed Persons, riotously assembled before the House of his Excellency the Morocco Ambassador, in Panton Square, Piccadilly, and most audaciously broke open the Outer Door of the said House, and forcibly entered the same, and were guilty of great Outrages therein, in Violation of the Rights and Privileges of Ambassadors, and in open Defiance of His Majesty and His Law; for which Offences, a Bill of Indictment has been since found by the Grand Jury of the County of Middlesex, against the said Mathew Delobanty, and Five of his Accomplices, who have been apprehended, and are now in Custody; but the said Mathew Delobanty, and some other of the Offenders, abscond, and are fled from Justice: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in the said audacious Riot and Violence, is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to such Person or Persons, who shall apprehend the said Mathew Delobanty, and bring him before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, so that he may be proceeded against and brought to Justice, and a suitable Reward to any Person or Persons, who shall in like Manner apprehend any other of the Offenders not yet taken, to be paid by Philip Carteret Webb, Esq; Solicitor to His Majesty's Treasury: And if any one of the said Offenders now at large, except the said Mathew Delobanty, will surrender himself, and give Information against any other of the Offenders now at large, so that he or they may be apprehended, he or they shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

[ Price Three-pence. ]

DUNK HALIFAX.

N. B. Mathew Delobanty is described to be near Six Feet high, about Twenty-eight Years of Age, of a pale Complexion, and wears his own Hair, which is of a light brown, short and curling.

General Post-Office, February 7, 1764.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail from York to Malton, was on Sunday Morning last the 5th instant, about One o'Clock, attacked and robbed upon Stockton Common, betwixt York and Malton, about half a Mile before he came to the Lobster House, by a single Highwayman on Horseback, who carried away the Horse on which the Post boy rode, together with the said Mail and all the Bags and Letters it contained, viz. The Bags and Letters sent from this Office on Thursday Night the 2d Instant for the Towns of Malton, Whitby, Scarborough, Bridlington, and all Places within their respective Deliveries, and also all the Bye-Letters of that Post from different Parts of the Kingdom, for the Towns above-mentioned, and Places in their Neighbourhood.

The Person who committed this Robbery is described to be about five Feet three Inches high, broad-set; had on a light-coloured Surtout Coat, and rode upon a strong little black Horse of the Cart Kind, with a bob Tail.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed the said Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or, if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Offender, be intitled to the same Reward of Fifty Pounds, and will also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
