St. James's, April 23.

Chapter of the most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned to meet this Day, the Knights Companions, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned, all in their Mantles, attended the Sovereign in his own Apartment; and being called over by Garter King of Arms, a Procession was made from thence to the Great Council Chamber, in the following Order:

Earl of Bute. Earl of Cardigan. Earl of Lincoln. Duke of Bedford. Duke of Leeds.

His Royal Highness Prince William. Black Rod.—The Deputy Register.—Garter... The Chancellor of the Order.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being feated, the Chancellor signified to the Chapter, the Sovereign's Pleasure for filling up the two vacant Stalis.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to Election; and the Suffrages being collected by the Chan-cellor, and prefented to the Sovereign, his Serene Highness the Dake of Mecklenburgh Strelitz was declered duly crefted.

Guras and Black Rod were then fent to introduce the Earl of Halifax, who being knighted by His Majefly, with the Sword of State, withdrew.

The Chapter then proceeded to the other Election, and the Earl of Halifax was declared duly elected: His Lordship was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter Room by the two junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to the Sovereign; being preceeded by Garter King of Arms, bearing the Enfigns on a Cushion, and Black Rod.

Garter presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty delivered it to the two Senior Knights, who buckled it upon his Lordship's Lest Leg, the Chancellor reading the Admonition.

Garter then presented the Ribbon with the George; and his Lordship kneeling down, the Sovereign, with the Assistance of the two Knights, put it over his Shoulder, the Chancellor in the mean Time pro-nouncing the Admonition; and having kiffed His Majetty's Hand, and severally saluted all the Knights present, he withdrew.

Garter then calling over the Knights, a Procession was made back to His Majesty's Closet, in the same Order it came from thence.
