Naples, May 1.

HIS Sicilian Majesty returned to Caserta on Easter Monday, after having assisted, in the usual Manner, at the various Functions of the Holy Week. Count Kinski arrived here a few Days ago from Franckfort, to notify to this Court the Election and Coronation of the Archduke Joseph as King of the Romans; and, on Sunday next, the said Nobleman is to have a publick Audience of his Sicilian Majesty. The many Supplies of Corn lately arrived at this Port, have greatly lessened the Distresses this City laboured under from the Want of Bread; and, in all Probability, we shall very soon be entirely free of our Fears on that Account, as there are fresh Supplies coming in daily from all Parts.

Vienna, May 9. On Sunday last her Imperial Majesty instituted, with great Solemnity, a new Order called the Order of St. Stephen, which is to consist of 20 Grandes Croix, 30 Commandeurs, and 100 Chevaliers.

Count Rosenberg, the Imperial Ambassador at Venice, is recalled, and will be succeeded by Count Durazzo.

Baron de Malzan, sent by the King of Prussia to compliment this Court upon the Election of the King of the Romans, is arrived here; as is also young Count Zinzendorf, sent by Prince Xavier of Saxony upon the same Occasion.

Bern, May 9. The Capitulations between France and the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, relative to their Regiments in the Service of that Crown, were signed at Soleure, by M. de Beauville the French Ambassador, and the respective Deputies of the Two States, on the 7th Instant.

May 21.

This Day the Prince of Aversperg, sent from the Emperor to notify the Coronation of the King of the Romans, had a Private Audience of her Royal Highness Princess Amelia.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 22.

The King has been pleased to order a Congé d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, London, empowering them to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being now void by the Death of the Right Rev. Father in God Doctor Richard Osbaldeston late Bishop thereof; and a Letter recommending the Right Rev. Father in God Richard Lord Bishop of Peterborough, to be by them chosen Bishop of the said See of London.

St. James's, May 19, 1764.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Statues in the Earl of Peterborow's Garden at Parson's Green in the County of Middlesex, have lately been all broke down and defaced; That the Mount-House hath been broke open, and much damage done at Five different Times, to his Lordship's Property there, by Persons whom it hath not, as yet, been found practicable to apprehend for committing the said Crimes: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person principally concerned therein) who shall discover His, or Her, Accomplice, or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that He, She, or They, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Earl of Peterborow does hereby promise a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to be paid by his Lordship, at his House at Parson's Green, or New Burlington Street, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.
