

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 22, to Saturday May 26, 1764.

Aranjuez, May 7.

M. Ifassi, a Colonel in this Service, is appointed Governour of New Orleans, and will probably be very soon sent thither.

The 3d Instant, Count Kaunitz and his Brother arrived here to notify the Election of the King of the Romans. General Wall arrived the same Day, and was received most graciously by his Catholick Majesty; and the Day after was invested with the Order of St. Januarius.

Venice, May 11. The Austrian Government in Itria has opened a free Communication with the Venetian Itria, which had been shut up by Sea, on Account of the Plague in Dalmatia; and the Proveditor Extraordinary in Itria has published a Proclamation, containing Orders and Rules for the Venetian Subjects, and particularly Fishermen on that Coast, for avoiding all Intercourse with such Places and Vessels, as might be dangerous by Reason of the Plague.

Florence, May 12. The Rejoicings here for the Election and Coronation of the King of the Romans are to begin To-morrow being the Empress's Birthday; they are to last for three Days: On the first Marshal Botta receives the Nobility in the Morning, and gives a Dinner: In the Afternoon Te Deum is to be sung, at which the Members of the Regency, and all the public Magistrates, are to assist; during which the Cannon of the Fortresses are to be discharged; and, in that and the two following Evenings, there are to be public Illuminations about the Town; and Marshal Botta makes an Assembly for the Ladies. The other two Days are to be distinguished by some Academical Exercises performed by the young Nobility; a Chariot Race; and a publick Ball in Mask in the Theatre, at the Expence of the Society of Gentlemen who are the perpetual Directors of that Theatre.

The Scarcity of Corn at Rome is greatly diminished by the considerable Supplies that have been received from Abroad at Civita Vecchia, and Ancona.

Turin, May 12. The Island of Sardinia being now in Want of Corn, this Court has ordered a considerable Quantity to be immediately sent into that Part of his Sardinian Majesty's Dominions, through the Genoese States; and they have also granted the Republick Leave to extract from Piedmont 5000 Bags of Corn for their own Use.

Copenhagen, May 15. We have received from Fridrickstadt in Norway, the melancholy News, that a Fire broke out there on the 1st Instant, which entirely consumed the whole Town: The Flames were so violent, that the Inhabitants had not Time to save any of their Effects. The Magazine of Powder was happily preserved.

St. James's, May 23.

This Day Lacky Abdeleadar Hadiel, Ambassador

from the Emperor of Morocco, had an Audience of Leave of His Majesty:

To which he was introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 24.

This Day Lacky Abdeleadar Hadiel, Ambassador from the Emperor of Morocco, had an Audience of Leave of Her Majesty.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harcourt, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty; and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, May 25, 1764.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Wednesday the 16th Instant in the Night, in the Field by the Halfway House going to Stepney, some wicked and malicious Persons unknown, perpetrated the most notorious and villainous Act on Eight Cows, the Property of Robert Marr, Butcher in St. Catherine's, by their cutting and mangling the said Cows Paps and Udders in a most shocking Manner, one of which they drove into a Pond and was drowned, and the other Seven rendered useless; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person principally concerned therein) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SANDWICH.

And, as a further Encouragement, I Robert Marr do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by me, of St. Catherine above-mentioned, on the Conviction of any one, or more, of the Offenders.

Robt Marr.

Admiralty Office, May 11, 1764.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Thursday the 21st Day of June next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

Ph. Stephens.

Custom-House, London, May 25, 1764.

The Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs gives Notice, that he shall be ready on the 5th of June next, and the Four following usual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that became due between the 14th of March, 1764, exclusive, and the 23d of the same Month, inclusive, without Interest.

[Price Three pence.]
