It is Enacted, That from and after the First Day of May next, so long as the Revenue of the Post Office shall continue to make a Part of the Aggregate Fund, no Letters or Packets shall be exempted from Payment of Postage, except as follows:

All such as shall be sent from or to The King's most Excellent Majesty.

All Letters and Packets, not exceeding the Weight of Two Ounces, sent from and to any Places within Great Britain or Ireland, during the Sitting of Parliament, or within Forty Days before or after any Summons or Prorogation, which shall be signed on the Outside by any Member of either House of the Parliament of Great Britain, and whereof the whole Supercription shall be of his own Hand Writing, or which shall be directed to a Member of either House, at any of the Places of his usual Residence, or at the Place where he shall actually be at the Time of the Delivery thereof, or at either House of Parliament.

All Letters and Packets, not exceeding the Weight of Two Ounces, sent from and to any Places within Ireland, during the Sitting of Parliament, or within Forty Days before or after any Summons or Prorogation, which shall be signed on the Outside by any Member of either House of the Parliament of Ireland, and whereof the whole Supercription shall be of his own Hand Writing, or which shall be directed to a Member of either House, from any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, at any of the Places of his usual Residence, or at the Place where he shall actually be at the Time of the Delivery thereof, or at either House of Parliament.

All such Letters and Packets as shall be sent from and to certain Persons by Virtue of their Offices, under such Conditions, Restrictions, and Limitations, as in the said Act is particularly expressed.

It is likewise Enacted, That all printed Votes, or Proceedings in Parliament, or printed News Papers, sent without Covers, or in Covers open at the Sides, signed on the Outside thereof, by the Hand of any Member of Parliament, in such Manner as hath been heretofore practised; or directed to any Member at any Place whereof he shall have given Notice in Writing to the Postmaster-General, or to his Deputy at Edinburgh or Dublin respectively, shall pass free of Postage.

And also, That the Clerks in the Offices of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and certain Officers in the Office of His Majesty's Postmaster-General, may continue to Frank such printed Votes, and Proceedings in Parliament, and printed News Papers, in the Manner they have heretofore been accustomed, provided they be sent without Covers, or in Covers open at the Sides.

It is further Enacted, That any Officer employed under the Postmaster-General, shall have Power to examine and search any Packet sent without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the Sides, in Order to discover whether any other Paper or Thing whatsoever be inclosed or concealed in or with such printed Votes, Proceedings in Parliament, and printed News Papers; and in Case any such other Paper or Thing whatsoever, shall be found in or with such printed Paper, or in Case there shall be any Writing, other than the

The White Drop for the Scurvy, one Third of an Ounce for One Shilling.

THESE innocent, yet most efficacious Drops, are an excellent Remedy in more Cases than will admit of being mentioned here, but well known to be one of the greatest Antiscorbuticks in Practice. They will bring away Worms from Children, and are most excellent in promoting the regular Return of Disorders peculiar to Women, and removing Obstructions. They are used with Success in the Disease called St. Anthony's Fire, and other Inflammatory Disorders, giving great Ease by their cooling Qualities. Being applied outwardly, they cure Pimples, and other Eruptions in the Face, and other Parts of the Body. They cure the Scurvy in the Mouth by wetting the Gums with them, and are a very great Antivenereal in all Degrees of the Distemper.

The Red Pills, Six in a Box, Six-pence.

They are very beneficial to Children and young People, given in proper Proportions; being taken in the Spring and Fall, they keep them free from Worms, Coughs, Eruptions, and other Disorders, which Children are usually subject to, by carrying off all internal Foulnesses, and preserving them healthy. They are very efficacious in Rheumatic and other Pains in the Limbs, excellent for Boils and other ulcerous Sores, and a powerful Remedy in most stubborn Chronical Cases, if continued to be taken for a considerable Time; and also in obstinate Venereal Disorders.

The Emetic Sack Drop, Half an Ounce, Six-pence.

Is in general of the same Efficacy as the Red Pill. It has been found to cleanse the Stomach more effectually than the Vomits usually given, and that without occasioning uncommon Reachings.

The Sweating Powders, Fifty Grains, Three-pence.

They are the most agreeable in their Operation of any Sweats whatever, by easing Pain, and giving Spirits to the Patient; and are most powerful in all Rheumatisms, and Pains in the Body and Limbs, and also in Coughs and other Disorders proceeding from Colds.—Two or three of these Powders will frequently restore the Use of Limbs that have suffered by Rheumatic Pains.—N.B. In stubborn Rheumatic Cases, if the Red Pill be taken between every two of these Powders, the Cure will be performed much sooner.

The Paste for Fistulas, Piles, &c. a Pound in a Tin Box, Two Shillings and Ten-pence.

This is most efficacious in the Fistula, Piles, and other Maladies incident to the same Part of the Body, against the Gravel and the Spleen, and for internal Sorenesses in the Stomach and Bowels.

The Liquid Sweat, Half an Ounce, about Five Doses, One Shilling.

This is found to be an excellent Remedy for Pains. It is good against Fevers, Vomiting, Gripes, Complaints in the Head, and Weaknesses peculiar to Women.

The Dropsy Powder, Six in a Parcel, Six-pence.

It evacuates the Water in the Belly, is good in the Jaundice, and Overflowing of the Bile, and Retention of Urine, as it promotes making of Urine.

Essence for the Head-Ach, Half an Ounce, 1 s.

This Essence Mr. Ward would never sell in his Life-time. The immediate Ease it gives in Pains of the Head, and any Part of the Limbs, is very surprizing.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of James Barker, late of Lambeth in the County of Surry, Timber-Merchant, deceased, are forthwith to come in and prove their Debts before William Graves, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn in Chancery Lane, London.
