Page, Esq; Price Sixpence, on fine Paper Ninepence.

The White Drop for the Scurvy, one Third of an Ounce for One Shilling.

THESE innocent, yet most efficacious Drops, are an excellent Remedy in more Cases than will admit of being mentioned here, but well known to be one of the greatest Antiscorbuticks in Practice. They will bring away Worms from Children, and are most excellent in promoting the regular Return of Disorders peculiar to Women, and removing Obstructions. They are used with Success in the Disease called St. Anthony's Fire, and other Inflammatory Disorders, giving great Ease by their cooling Qualities. Being applied outwardly, they cure Pimples, and other Eruptions in the Face, and other Parts of the Body. They cure the Scurvy in the Mouth by wetting the Gums with them, and are a very great Antivenereal in all Degrees of the Distemper.

The Red Pills, Six in a Box, Six-pence.

They are very beneficial to Children and young People, given in proper Proportions; being taken in the Spring and Fall, they keep them free from Worms, Coughs, Eruptions, and other Disorders, which Children are usually subject to, by carrying off all internal Foulnesses, and preserving them healthy. They are very efficacious in Rheumatic and other Pains in the Limbs, excellent for Boils and other ulcerous Sores, and a powerful Remedy in most stubborn Chronical Cases, if continued to be taken for a considerable Time; and also in obstinate Venereal Disorders.

The Emetic Sack Drop, Half an Ounce, Six-pence.

Is in general of the same Efficacy as the Red Pill. It has been found to cleanse the Stomach more effectually than the Vomits usually given, and that without occasioning uncommon Reachings.

The Sweating Powders, Fifty Grains, Three-pence.

They are the most agreeable in their Operation of any Sweats whatever, by easing Pain, and giving Spirits to the Patient; and are most powerful in all Rheumatisms, and Pains in the Body and Limbs, and also in Coughs and other Disorders proceeding from Colds.—Two or three of these Powders will frequently restore the Use of Limbs that have suffered by Rheumatic Pains.—N.B. In stubborn Rheumatic Cases, if the Red Pill be taken between every two of these Powders, the Cure will be performed much sooner.

The Paste for Fistulas, Piles, &c. a Pound in a Tin Box, Two Shillings and Ten-pence.

This is most efficacious in the Fistula, Piles, and other Maladies incident to the same Part of the Body, against the Gravel and the Spleen, and for internal Sorenesses in the Stomach and Bowels.

The Liquid Sweat, Half an Ounce, about Five Doses, One Shilling.

This is found to be an excellent Remedy for Pains. It is good against Fevers, Vomiting, Gripes, Complaints in the Head, and Weaknesses peculiar to Women.

The Dropsy Powder, Six in a Parcel, Six-pence.

It evacuates the Water in the Belly, is good in the Jaundice, and Overflowing of the Bile, and Retention of Urine, as it promotes making of Urine.

Essence for the Head-Ach, Half an Ounce, 1 s.

This Essence Mr. Ward would never sell in his Life-time. The immediate Ease it gives in Pains of the Head, and any Part of the Limbs, is very surprizing.
