AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th. Day of June, 1764.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament, which stands Prorogued to Thursday the 21st of this Instant June, should be further Prorogued to Thursday the 16th Day of August next.

Naples, May 15. The Imperial Minister Count Kaunitz, who arrived here the 4th Instant, had on Thursday last an Audience of his Sicilian Majesty, when he presented his Credentials. The same Day Count Kinski took his Leave of his said Majesty, and set out last Saturday on his Return to the Court of Vienna, having before his Departure been presented with the King's Picture set with Diamonds. The Duke of Termoli, Son of Prince San Nicandro, who had lately been named to go to Vienna, to pay a Compliment in his Sicilian Majesty's Name to that Court, upon the Election of the King of the Romans, departed from hence Yesterday Morning.

We are at present so well provided here with Corn, that Orders have been sent to several Parts, to stop the Buying up any more, as there had been given unlimited Commissions; though in some of the Provinces the Want of Bread is still very great.

Genoa, May 19. On the 13th arrived in this Port His Britannick Majesty's Sloop the Vultur, from Cadiz and Marseilles.

Aranjuez, May 21. The Prince of Asturias has been a good deal indisposed, and obliged to keep his Bed; but is now out of Danger, and will soon appear again at Court.

The Marquis Paolucci arrived here the 16th, and has already had all his Audiences; and Yesterday Count Pogi, his Predecessor, had his Audiences of Leave.

Venice, May 23. Lord and Lady Spencer, Lord Palmerston and many other English, are come, and many more expected, to partake of the Festivals that will be given for the Entertainment of his Royal Highness the Duke of York.

Seeckhelm, May 25. The Consistory of this Diocese having met to make their Nomination of three Persons for the Archbishoprick of Upsal, the Majority fell upon the Bishops Serenius, Beronius, and Hilenius.

Turin, May 26. The Count de Pignatelli, who succeeds here the Marquis de Carraccioli as Envoy Extraordinary of the King of Naples at this Court, arrived here a Week ago from Lisbon, where he has long resided as his Neapolitan Majesty's Minister.

Berlin, May 29. The general Review of the Troops in this Neighbourhood being ended on the 22d Instant, His Prussian Majesty returned to Potzdam the same Evening, where he still continues, having been prevented by a slight Fit of the Gout from going to Custrin and Stargard; and it is said, that Generals Seydlitz and Ramin are appointed to review the Troops assembled at those Places.

Hague, June 5. Yesterday being His Britannick Majesty's Birth-Day, his Excellency Sir Joseph Yorke gave an Entertainment to the Foreign Ministers residing here, the People of Distinction of both Sexes of this Country, and a great Number of Foreigners; the Company did not separate till Four o'Clock this Morning.

Petersburg, May 15. The Empress set out Yesterday for Czarskoe Selo, where she proposes to remain about a Fortnight. Count Bestucheff has been very dangerously ill, but is now much better.

Cumberland House, June 5.

This Day M. de Grosse, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Empress of Russia, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Leicester House, June 6.

This Day the Prince of Aversperg, sent from the Emperor to notify the Coronation of the King of the Romans, had an Audience of Leave of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

General Post-Office, June 8, 1764.

Public Notice is hereby given, That the Mail, which was to be have been made up at this Office, on Thursday next, for His Majesty's Islands in the West Indies, Pensacola, St. Augustine, Savanna and Charles Town, will not be dispatched from hence until Thursday the 12th of July; as the Hillsborough Packet Boat, being a new Ship, cannot be completed in Time to sail with a Mail of this Month.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Equivalent Office, June 6, 1764.

The Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company give Notice, That the Transfer Books of the said Company will be shut on Wednesday the 20th of this instant June, and continue so till Wednesday the 11th of July next, in order to settle the Dividend of Two per Cent. due the 5th of July next; and that the Warrants for the said Dividend will be ready to be delivered out and paid on Wednesday the said 11th of July next, and afterwards every Wednesday from Eleven in the Forenoon to One in the Afternoon, at the Equivalent House in Warnford Court Throgmorton Street, London, and at their Office in Edinburgh.

James Mathias, Secretary.
