

delivered up to be tried and punished according to the equitable Laws of England: And should any White Man be guilty of the like Crime towards the Indians, he shall be immediately tried and punished, if guilty: And the Senecas are never for the Future to procure themselves Satisfaction, otherwise than as before-mentioned, but to lay all Matter of Complaint before Sir William Johnson, or His Majesty's Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Time being, and strictly to maintain and abide by the Covenant Chain of Friendship.

Agreed to.

Article 8.

For the due Performance of these Articles, the Senecas are to deliver up three of their Chiefs as Hostages, who are to be well treated, and restored to them, so soon as the same are fully performed on their Parts.

They agree to leave as Hostages, Wannughisa, Serrihoana, and Arajungas, three of their Chiefs.

Article 9.

In Consequence of their perfect Agreement to the foregoing Articles, Sir William Johnson doth, by virtue of the Powers and Authorities reposed in him, in the Name of His Britannic Majesty, promise and engage, that the said Indians shall have a full Pardon for past Transgressions: That they shall be left in the quiet and peaceable Possession of all their Rights not comprized in the foregoing Articles; and that on their duly performing the same, and subscribing to the Definitive Treaty of Peace, to be held in Consequence hereof, they shall be once more admitted into the Covenant-Chain of Friendship with the English; and be indulged with a free, fair, and open Trade, so long as they abide by their Engagements.

This Article the Senecas expect will be strictly regarded; and also that Trade will be carried on in a fair and equitable Manner.

The foregoing Articles, after being duly and fully explained to the Chiefs and Warriors, Deputies from the Senecas, they have signified their Assent thereto, by affixing the Marks of their Tribes to these Presents.

Given under my Hand at Johnson Hall, the third Day of April 1764.
