St. James's, July 31.

THE following Address of the President and Commander in Chief, the Council and Assembly of the Bermuda or Sommer Islands, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the President and Commander in Chief, the Council, and Assembly of your Bermuda or Sommer Islands.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President, Council, and Assembly of your Bermuda Islands, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, with the warmest Sentiments of Regard and Affection, for your Paternal Care and unwearied Fortitude in Supporting a long and successful War for the Honour of the Crown and true Happiness of your People. After your Majesty was pleased to pursue every laudable Measure that could contribute to the Glory and Security of your extensive Dominions, you have at last, by your consummate Prudence and Wisdom, procured us a safe, honourable, and, we hope, a lasting Peace.

And we take Leave to express the most permanent and unfeigned Joy on the Birth of a Second Prince to your Illustrious and August House; an Event which we esteem as an additional Strength to the present happy Establishment, and a further Prop and Security to our excellent Constitution in Church and State. Permit us, though remote, to confess, that the happy Influence of your Majesty's mild and constitutional Government enables us to taste the Sweets of Liberty; in such a Situation, must we not admire that Goodness of Heart that distinguishes You as a humane, benevolent, and amiable Prince? As your Arms have been a Scourge, so may your conspicuous and shining Virtues unite your Subjects in the highest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection. May your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours prove successful in procuring to your Kingdoms, and their Appendages, the invaluable Blessings of Peace; may your Royal Example teach your Subjects to enjoy Freedom without Licentiousness; and that the innumerable Blessings we reap under your auspicious

Reign, may for a long Series of Ages be continued to our Posterity in your Illustrious Line.
