

and the Evening concluded with a Supper and Ball at the Prince Royal's Apartments. This Day, being her Danish Majesty's Birth-Day, there will be a Ball and Supper at Court; and To-morrow the Royal Family will return to Fridenburgh; from whence, it is said, the Prince and Princess will speedily set out for Hanau.

The King of Denmark on this Occasion gave nine Ribbons of the Order of Dannebrog, and made some other Promotions of less Moment.

Turin, September 8. There is Advice from Genoa that two Genoese Ships, endeavouring to throw some Succours into St. Firenzo, then closely besieged by the Malecontents of Corsica, were opposed in their Design by four Ships belonging to the Corsicans; and that, after a very sharp Engagement, the two Genoese Ships had taken one of the Corsicans, sunk another, and obliged the two others to run away; after which they brought their Succours into the Port of St. Firenzo.

About a Fortnight ago three Maltese Gallies (of those which are the Property of the Great Master of the Order of Malta) attacked, on the Coast of Sardinia, four Algerine Xebèques, took three of them, and gave the other Chance, though in vain. These Gallies were come, at the Request of the Vice Roy of Sardinia, to cruize on the Coasts of the Island, which are infested with Algerines; and his Sardinian Majesty has just now ordered his two Frigates to sail but immediately to join the Maltese Ships on the same Cruize.

St. James's, September 21, 1764.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Saturday the 25th of August last, between the Hours of One and Two in the Morning, a Fire broke out in the Workshop of Aynsworth Thwaites, of Rosaman's-Row in the Parish of St. James, Clerkenwell, which totally consumed the same, with sundry curious Pieces of Church, and other, Clock-Work, finished, or nearly so; and, also with great Variety of Working-Tools, Engines and other expensive Utensils in Trade; and that there is Reason to apprehend the said Workshop was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in that wicked Crime, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person principally concerned therein) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Aynsworth Thwaites, and other Inhabitants of Rosaman's-Row, Clerkenwell, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Forty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by Joseph Brayne, Church-warden of St. James's Clerkenwell, upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Aynsworth Thwaites.
