St. James's, September 28.

LAST Night one of His Majesty's Messengers arrived from Madrid with Dispatches from His Majesty's Ambassador at that Court, transmitting a Duplicate of the Orders, which, in consequence of his Excellency's late Remonstrances, that Court has dispatched to Don Felipe Ramirez de Estenoz, Governor of Yucatan: In which Orders his Catholick Majesty disapproves the Proceedings of the said Governor, with respect to His Majesty's Subjects in the Bay of Honduras; expresses his Desire of giving His Majesty the greatest Proofs of his Friendship, and of preserving Peace with the British Nation; and commands the said Governor to re-establish the British Logwood Cutters in the several Places from which he had obliged them to retire, and to let them know, that they may return to their Occupation of Cutting Logwood, without being disquieted or disturbed under any Pretence whatsoever.

Warsaw, September 8. The Ceremony of the Election of Count Stanislas Poniatowski to the Throne of Poland, passed the 6th Instant, with the most perfect Unanimity of the Suffrages of the whole Nation, delivered by the different Palatinates assembled for that Purpose: And Yesterday he was proclaimed by the Name of Stanislas Augustus, and conducted to the Court and Palace through the Acclamations of several Thousands of Spectators. The Primate announced the Election to all the Foreign Ministers, who in consequence thereof demanded Audiences this Morning; and they accordingly had the Honour to pay their Respects and Congratulations on his happy Accession to the Crown.

The Coronation is fixed for the 25th of November.

Segovia, September 10. Don Pedro de Salazar, a Colonel in the Spanish Guards, and who has the Rank of Brigadier in this Service, is appointed Captain-General of the Province of Guatimala, in the room of Don Joaquin de Aguiavié, deceased.

Berlin, September 18. Last Saturday the King of Prussia arrived in this Capital from Silesia, accompanied by the Prince Royal, and Prince Henry of Prussia, the Hereditary Prince, and the two Princes of Brunfwick. His Prussian Majesty, soon after his Arrival, had a Levée, at which the Foreign Ministers here were present. The next Morning the King of Prussia set out from hence for Potsdam, where in all Probability he will remain for some Time, as there will, on the 27th of this Month, be a Camp formed in that Neighbourhood, which is to be composed of the Troops in Garrison at Potsdam, Spandow and Brandenbourg, and of two or three Regiments from this Place; they have received Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to march against the 25th or 26th Instant.

Admiralty Office, September 28, 1764.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 25th Instant, the Ship Charlotte of Stockholm, whereof Peter Homan was Master, of the Burthen of 200 Tons, bound from Stockholm to London, with Iron, Tar and Deals, and consigned to Messrs. Spalding, Brander and William Wilton in London, struck on the Scroby Sand coming into Yarmouth Roads, and filled with Water.

Ph. Stephens.

St. James's, September 21, 1764.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Saturday the 25th of August last, between the Hours of One and Two in the Morning, a Fire broke out in the Workshop of Aynsworth Thwaites, of Rosaman's-Row in the Parish of St. James, Clerkenwell, which totally consumed the same, with sundry curious Pieces of Church, and other, Clock-Work, finished, or nearly so; and, also with great Variety of Working-Tools, Engines and other expensive Uensils in Trade; and that there is Reason to apprehend the said Workshop was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in that wicked Crime, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person principally concerned therein) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Aynsworth Thwaites, and other Inhabitants of Rosaman's-Row, Clerkenwell, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Forty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by Joseph Brayne, Church-warden of St. James's Clerkenwell, upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Aynsworth Thwaites.

London Assurance House, September 26, 1764.

The Court of Directors of the London Assurance Corporation hereby give Notice, that a General Court will be held at their House in Birckin-Lane, on Thursday the 4th of October next, from Eleven in the Forenoon till Two, for the Election of a Deputy Governor.
