From Saturday December 22, to Tuesday December 25, 1764.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of December, 1764,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 12th Day of October last, to order, permit, and authorize the Importation of Salted Beef, Salted Pork, Bacon, and Butter, from Ireland, into that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called England (pursuant to the Powers vested in His Majesty for that Purpose, during the present Recess, by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament) until and provided the same be landed in any of the Ports of that Part of the said Kingdom of Great Britain called England, on or before the Thirty-first Day of this Instant December. — And whereas the Time thereby limited for the Importation of the said Salted Provisions is now near expiring; and it being judged expedient that the same should be continued for as long Time as His Majesty by the said Act is empowered to permit the same—His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore Order, and it is hereby accordingly Ordered, that the Time limited by the said Proclamation, for the Importation of Salted Beef, Salted Pork, Bacon, and Butter, from Ireland, be prolonged and extended to the Ninth Day of January next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice.

W. Blair.

Madrid, December 3. His Catholick Majesty, the Queen Mother, and all the Royal Family, arrived here from the Escurial the Day before Yesterday; and for the first Time inhabit the new Palace, which is but just finished.

Monsieur Ayres de Sa Mello, his most Faithful Majesty's Ambassador to the Catholick King, is arrived: He is accompanied here by his Relation Don Joseph de Sa Pereira, who was lately in England; and who is now going to Naples.

Genoa, December 10. Yesterday the French Consul received an Express from the French Vice-Consul at Diano, with Advice of the Arrival there of Twenty-five Vessels, with Part of the French Troops designed for Corsica, under Convoy of a Xebec of War: He writes, that there were Forty Sail of Transports when failed from Toulon the 6th Instant in the Morning, which were separated the same Night by bad Weather; and it is conjectured, that the other Transports are put into some other Place in the Western Riviera.

Admiralty Office, December 24, 1764.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign,

This is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information hath been sent to this Office, That the Sloop or Vessel called the Barbara, of about 52 Tons Burthen, whereof Robert Webster was Master, and Part Owner, laden with Pickled Salmon, and bound to Leghorne, being at an Anchor in Corton Roads, on Saturday the 15th Instant, a loaded Brigantine (the Name of whose Master was not known, nor the Place where she was bound) steering before the Wind and Tide, under Sail, ran on Board the said Sloop or Vessel, and carried away her Bow-sprit, broke her best Bower Anchor, and stow in her Larboard Bow; and that the Vessel thereupon making a great Deal of Water, the Master and Crew, in order to preserve their Lives, were obliged to run her ashore at Corton aforesaid, where she was stranded on the Beach, and the Crew were all saved.

Ph. Stephens.

St. James's, December 25, 1764.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That His Majesty's Custom-House at Boston, in the County of Lincoln, was, on Friday the 14th Instant, in the Night, feloniously broke and entered by several Persons unknown; and that an Iron Chest, in which the Crown's Money was deposited, was broke open, and the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, was, by the said Persons, feloniously taken and carried away; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Facts, does, hereby, promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do, hereby, promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Wm. Wood, Secretary.

Vitrualling-Office, December 24, 1764.

The Commissioners for Vitrualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 21st of January next, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be inclinable to undertake to furnish Sea Provisions to such of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels as may touch at Liverpool, and be in Want thereof.

The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Vitrualling-Office, London; or by applying to the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Liverpool.
