Whereas on Monday the 25th of February last, about Twelve o'Clock at Night, a Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of 20 or thereabouts, all on Horseback, armed with large Hedge Stakes, Clubs, and other offensive Weapons, were assembled in a Lane leading to the House of Mary Noyce, in the Parish of Pagham in the County of Sussex, in order to be aiding and assisting in the Rescue of a large Quantity of Brandy, which had been seized by Hyde Warnett, Thomas Baker, and John Wheatley, Officers of His Majesty's Customs in the Port of Chichester, who in the due Execution of their Office, were forcibly and violently obstructed, and 40 Casks of the said Brandy, so by them seized, were, by the said Smuglers, rescued and taken away.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and the more effectually to put a Stop to such outrageous Proceedings, do hereby promise a Reward of 50 l. to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any or either of the said Offender or Offenders; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction, General Excise-Office, London, March 7, 1765.

Whereas many Persons who own, use, have or keep Quantities of Silver Plate chargeable with the Duty granted granted by an Act of Parliament made in the 29th Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, have neglected to renew their Notices, and to make true Entries in Writing of the Number of Ounces of such Plate, and to pay the Duty due for the same, according to the Directions of the said Act, although Application hath been made to them for that Purpose by the Directions of the Commissioners of Excise: These are therefore to give Notice, that if they do not comply with the Directions of the said Act, and pay the Duties due for their Plate, at the proper Offices appointed to receive the same, forthwith, the said Commissioners will think themselves obliged, without further Notice, to order Bills to be filed against them in the Court of Exchequer, to enforce the Payment of the said Duties.

Likewise Notice is hereby given to all Persons who own, use, have or keep Silver Plate chargeable with the said Duty, and who have never made any Entry for the same, that they are liable to be prosecuted for their Neglect thereof.
