

granted by an Act of Parliament made in the 29th Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, have neglected to renew their Notices, and to make true Entries in Writing of the Number of Ounces of such Plate, and to pay the Duty due for the same, according to the Directions of the said Act, although Application hath been made to them for that Purpose by the Directions of the Commissioners of Excise: These are therefore to give Notice, that if they do not comply with the Directions of the said Act, and pay the Duties due for their Plate, at the proper Offices appointed to receive the same, forthwith, the said Commissioners will think themselves obliged, without further Notice, to order Bills to be filed against them in the Court of Exchequer, to enforce the Payment of the said Duties.

Likewise Notice is hereby given to all Persons who own, use, have or keep Silver Plate chargeable with the said Duty, and who have never made any Entry for the same, that they are liable to be prosecuted for their Neglect thereof.

Exchequer Bill Office, March 26, 1765.

The Paymasters of Exchequer Bills give Notice, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have directed Exchequer Bills, issued pursuant to an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for raising the Supplies for the Year 1764, and charged on the Aid of the present Year, to be discharged at two several Payments for the greater Convenience of paying off the said Bills. The Principal and Interest on which Bills, from N^o 6001, to N^o 10500, inclusive, amounting to the Sum of 400,000 l. last in Course of said Bills, will be paid off at their Office near the Exchequer, Westminster, on the 30th of this Instant March: And Attendance for that Purpose will be given on that and the succeeding Days, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon, (Sundays and Holydays excepted:) And for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers, and Times of Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sums, and Interest due on such Bills, computed by the Quarters and Days in the Year, to the said 30th Day of March, 1765; on which Day the Interest on the said Exchequer Bills from N^o 6001, to N^o 10,500, is to cease. And they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and endorse their Names on the Backs of the said Bills.

N.B. Such Persons possessed of the Exchequer Bills, from N^o 1, to N^o 6000, amounting to 400,000 l. first in Course, which were set off the 23d of this Instant March, and have not yet brought them for Payment, are desired to bring the same, as the Interest on those last Bills ceased on that Day.

George Rogers, and Co. of London, Agents.

Whereas Frazer Honeywood, late of Hampstead, in the County of Middlesex, Esquire, who died on Saturday the Twenty-eighth Day of January, 1764, did in and by a Codicil, to his last Will and Testament, give and bequeath to his Executors, Sir John Honeywood, of Evington, in the County of Kent, Baronet, Abraham Atkins, of Clapham, in the County of Surry, Esquire, Clerke Willshaw, of Hemel Hempstead, in the County of Hertford, Doctor in Physick, and Mr. Edwin Martin, of Reading in the County of Berks, Twenty Thousand Pounds, upon Trust, that the said Executors, or the Survivors, or Survivor, of them, his Executors, or Administrators, should distribute, and dispose of, the Whole of the said Sum, and the Interest, and Improvement, to be made thereof, to and amongst such of his, the said Testator's Relations (by Consanguinity and not by Marriage) who should not appear, to his said Executors, to be worth, each Person, more than Two Thousand Pounds, and who within Two Years, next after his Decease, should apply, or being Minors, or otherwise incapable of applying in their own Persons, should cause Application to be made, or have Application made, on their respective Behalves, to his said Executors, or the Survivors, or Survivor, of them, his Executors, or Administrators, for the Benefit, or to have a Share, of, or to participate in, that Legacy, or Donation: Such Distribution to be made amongst such of his Relations as aforesaid, at such respective Time, or Times, and in such Manner, and Form, and in such Proportions, or Disproportions, as his said Executors, or the Survivors, or Survivor, of them, his Executors, or Administrators, should in his, or their, own Discretions, or Discretion, judge to be most proper. And the said Testator, by his said Codicil, declared, that he did not mean to restrain, or confine, the said Application, and Distribution, to be made, to and amongst his Relations, of any Particular Degree of Kindred; but did thereby authorize his said Executors to pay, apply, and distribute the same, to and amongst any Persons, whom they should find to be proper Objects of such Application and Distribution; whether any such Persons should be related to him in the First, Second, or Third, or in the Fourth, Fifth, or Sixth, or any other farther Degree of Kindred. Now all Persons, qualified, or intitled, to receive, any Share of, or Benefit from, the said Legacy, or Donation, are, in pursuance of the said Testator's said Codicil, hereby required, to deliver, or cause to be delivered, Notice in Writing, of the several Claims, or Pretensions, to any Part thereof, and of their respective Names, and Places of Abode, to his said Executors, or the Survivors, or Survivor, of them, his Executors, or Administrators, within Two Years from the said Twenty-eighth Day of January, 1764; or otherwise, they will be excluded the Benefit of such Legacy, or Donation: And all Letters, upon this Subject, may, for Convenience, be directed to the Executors of Frazer Honeywood, Esquire, at his late Dwelling-house, in Birchin Lane, London.
