Westminster, May 15.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Septimus Robinson, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for granting Annuities to be attended with a Lottery, to satisfy and discharge certain Navy, Victualling, and Transport Bills; and for charging the Payment of such Annuities on the Sinking Fund.

An Act to alter certain Rates of Postage, and to amend, explain, and enlarge, several Provisions in an Act made in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and in other Acts relating to the Revenue of the Post Office.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties on the Exportation of Coals, and of several East India Goods, and upon Policies of Assurance; for retaining, upon the Exportation of White Callicoes and Muslins, a further Part of the Duties paid on the Importation thereof; and for obviating a Doubt with respect to Stamp Duties imposed upon Deeds by two former Acts.

An Act for more effectually supplying the Export Trade of this Kingdom to Africa, with such coarse printed Callicoes, and other Goods of the Product or Manufacture of the East Indies, or other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, as are prohibited to be worn and used in Great Britain; for encouraging the Importation of Bayles into this Kingdom, for the better Supply of the Export Trade thereof; and for discontinuing the Bounty payable in Great Britain, and all Bounties and Allowances in Ireland, upon the Exportation of Corn, Grain, Malt, Meal, and Flour, from thence to the Isle of Man.

An Act for repealing the Duties now payable upon Raw Silk imported, and for granting other Duties in Lieu thereof; for allowing a Drawback on the Exportation of Raw or Thrown Silk to Ireland; and for prohibiting the Exportation of Raw Silk from Ireland.

An Act to provide for the Administration of the Government, in Case the Crown should descend to any of the Children of His Majesty, being under the Age of Eighteen Years; and for the Care and Guardianship of their Persons.

An Act for applying the Money granted in this Session of Parliament, for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia of that Part of Great Britain called England, for One Year, beginning the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-five; and for punishing Militia Men for neglecting their Duty.

An Act to amend, and render more effectual in His Majesty's Dominions in America, an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters.

An Act for more effectually preventing the Mischiefs arising to the Revenue and Commerce of Great Britain and Ireland, from the Illicit and clandestine Trade to and from the Isle of Man.

An Act to empower the High Court of Chancery to lay out, upon Government Securities, a Sum of Money, therein mentioned, out of the Common and General Cash in the Bank of England, belonging to the Suitors of the said Court; and to apply the Interest arising therefrom towards augmenting the Income of the Masters of the said Court.

An Act for repairing and widening the Road, from the Turnpike Road in Banbury, in the County of Oxford, through Daventry and Cottesbach, to the South End of Mill Field, in the Parish of Lutterworth, in the County of Leicester.

An Act to continue the Term and render more effectual an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for repairing and widening the Roads leading from Spalding High Bridge, through Littleworth, and by Froggall, and over James Deeping Stone Bridge, in the County of Lincoln, to Maxey Outgang, in the County of Northampton, adjoining to the High Road there.

An Act for repairing and widening the Road, from the Great Bridge, in the Borough of Warwick, through Southam and Daventry, to the Town of Northampton.

An Act for amending and widening the Road, from the North End of Old Malton Gate, in the Town and Borough of New Malton, to the Town of Pickering, in the County of York.

An Act for the Building a Bridge over the River Tay, at or near the Town of Perth, in the County of Perth.

And to Six Private Bills.

Cumberland House, May 14.

This Day M. Rouffel, Minister from the Bishop of Liege, had his first private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland. To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

At

At a Special Court of Lieutenancy held at Guildhall in the City of London, on Saturday the 18th Day of May, 1765.

IT appearing to this Court, That a great Number of Weavers, and other Persons, did Yesterday assemble themselves together on Ludgate-hill; and were guilty of great Disorders and Outrages there; and insulted the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and several of his Brethren the Aldermen, who were present in order to put a Stop to such tumultuous Meetings; It is therefore ORDERED by this Court, That publick Notice be forthwith given, That every Person, charged to bear Arms in the Six Regiments of the Militia of this City, do hold himself or his Substitute in Readiness for Service, in Case it should be necessary to call out the Militia to suppress any such tumultuous Assembly; and for preserving the Peace of this City. And the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor is requested by this Court to order out all or such Part of the City Militia as he shall judge necessary, upon his Lordship's receiving Notice of any Disturbance.

Signed by Order,
Edward Grose, Clerk.
