

At a Special Court of Lieutenancy held at Guildhall in the City of London, on Saturday the 18th Day of May, 1765.

IT appearing to this Court, That a great Number of Weavers, and other Persons, did Yesterday assemble themselves together on Ludgate-hill; and were guilty of great Disorders and Outrages there; and insulted the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and several of his Brethren the Aldermen, who were present in order to put a Stop to such tumultuous Meetings; It is therefore ORDERED by this Court, That publick Notice be forthwith given, That every Person, charged to bear Arms in the Six Regiments of the Militia of this City, do hold himself or his Substitute in Readiness for Service, in Case it should be necessary to call out the Militia to suppress any such tumultuous Assembly; and for preserving the Peace of this City. And the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor is requested by this Court to order out all or such Part of the City Militia as he shall judge necessary, upon his Lordship's receiving Notice of any Disturbance.

Signed by Order,
Edward Grose, Clerk.
