By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For the Suppressing Riots, Tumults, and Unlawful Assemblies.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Us by an Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, That a Tumultuous and Riotous Mob of several Thousand idle and disorderly Persons, arrayed under Banners, and directed by Leaders, assembled at the House of Lords on the 15th, 16th, and 17th Days of this Instant, to the Terror and Danger of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, in Breach of the Privilege, and in Violation of the Freedom of Parliament, and that the Persons so assembled, or a great Number of them, riotously, and in open Violation of the Laws, assaulted and endangered the Life of his Grace the Duke of Bedford, in his Return from the House of Lords, beset his Grace's House in Bloomsbury Square, and would probably have committed the most enormous Outrages there, had they not been prevented by a Military Force assisting the Civil Magistrates, as Part of the Posse Comitatus. — We taking the same into Our most serious Consideration, and being resolved to suppress all such tumultuous Riots and Disorders, tending to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace, and to the Endangering of all Order and Government, have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby strictly Charging and Commanding the Lord Mayor and the Justices of the Peace of Our City of London, and the Justices of the Peace of Our City and Liberties of Westminster, and Borough of Southwark, and of the Counties of Middlesex and Surry, that they do use their utmost Endeavours to prevent and suppress all Riots, Tumults, and Unlawful Assemblies, and to put in due and strict Execution the Laws and Statutes made for preventing, and for the more speedy and effectual suppressing and punishing the same; and that all our loving Subjects be aiding and assisting therein.
