

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 8, to Tuesday June 11, 1765.

St. James's, June 7, 1765.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Dwelling-house of the Right Honorable the Countess Dowager of Effingham, situated in George Street, Hanover-Square, was, on the 18th of May last past, in the Night-time, robbed of a large Sum of Money, and other Things of Value, her Ladyship's Property; and at the same Time, as there is much Reason to believe, wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, with a View the said Robbery might be the better concealed, whereby her Ladyship's Life was exposed to the most imminent Danger; and that one Thomas Halland, Butler to her Ladyship, is now in Custody for the above Offences, who, from the Nature and Circumstances of them, it is judged may have had Accomplices in the Committing of the same: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said daring Robbery and Arson, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person principally concerned in the said horrid Crimes) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Right Honorable the Countess Dowager of Effingham, does, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid, by her Ladyship, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

A. Effingham.
