

Declaration mentioned in an Act of Parliament made in the Twenty fifth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, "An Act for preventing Dangers which may happen from Popish Recufants," in the Presence of Our said Governor, his Lieutenant, or Deputy, or in the superior Court or Courts of Record in Our said Island, upon Pain of Our highest Displeasure, and as they will answer the contrary at their utmost Perils: And Our Will and Pleasure further is, that all Jurisdiccions and Authorities whatsoever, which were heretofore carried on and exercised in the Name of the Lord of Our said Island of Man for the Time being, or of any other Person or Persons whatsoever, and which are now vested in Us, Our Heirs, and Succellors, by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, shall be henceforth carried on and exercised in the Name of Us, Our Heirs, and Succellors only: And that all Writs, Precepts, Processes, Orders, Injunctions, and all other Forms of Law and Justice, and all Acts of State and Policy, for the due Ordering and Government of Our said Island, and the Territories and Dependencies thereunto belonging, shall be issued and executed in the Name, and by the Authority, of Us, Our Heirs, and Succellors, or of Our Governor or Lieutenant, or Deputy Governor, for the Time being, appointed or to be appointed by Us, Our Heirs, and Succellors, and in no other Name, and by no other Authority whatsoever: And we do hereby strictly command and enjoin Our said Governor, and all other Our Magistrates and Officers, within Our said Island, and the Territories and Dependencies to the same belonging, to see this Our Royal Proclamation duly carried into Execution; and to cause the same to be publickly read in all the principal Towns of the said Island, between the Hours of Eleven in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon; and printed Copies thereof to be affixed in the most publick Places of the same, and to be distributed to all the Ministers of Churches, Chapels, and other Places of Religious Worship, within Our said Island, and the Territories and Dependencies thereunto belonging: And we do hereby lastly charge and command all Ministers of Churches, Chapels, and other Places of Religious Worship aforesaid, publickly to read this Our Royal Proclamation therein, on the next Lord's Day after they shall receive the same, during the Time of Divine Service, immediately before the Homily or Sermon, upon Pain of our Highest Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-first Day of June, 1765, in the Fifth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

Naples, May 28. Some Days ago a Shock of an Earthquake was felt at Tiano and Mignano in the Terra di Lavoro, between Thirty and Forty Miles distant from Naples. At Mignano it was so violent as to drive out the Inhabitants; three Houses were thrown down, and two Churches much damaged.

Naples, June 4. A few Days ago arrived from Rome, a melancholy Account of the Death of Baron Werpup, a very amiable young Hanoverian Gentleman, who, with his Valet de Chambre, was overturned in his Chaise near Rome, and both were unfortunately killed on the Spot.

Berlin, June 4. Yesterday Morning early the King of Prussia set out from Potzdam for Magdebourg, in order to make a Review of the Troops there. Last Sunday Morning Prince Dolgoruki, the Russian Minister at this Court, waited on her Royal Highness, Consort to Prince Henry the King of Prussia's Brother, and delivered to her Royal Highness, with great Ceremony, the Empress of Russia's Letter, together with the Order of St. Catherine. In the Evening that Princess, decorated with the Order, went to Schonhausen, the Queen of Prussia's Summer Palace, where there was a very numerous and splendid Court; from whom her Royal Highness received the Compliments suitable on the Occasion.

Berlin, June 11. The King of Prussia arrived last Sunday in perfect Health, at Potzdam from Magdebourg. The Prince Royal, young Prince Henry of Prussia, and the two Princes of Brunswick, in this Service, set out from Magdebourg for Brunswick with their Uncle Prince Ferdinand, Governor of Magdebourg, to make a Visit to that Court.

Lieutenant General Hulsen, Governor of this Capital, who had also accompanied his Majesty in his Journey to Magdebourg, returned hither last Sunday Evening.

Dresden, June 10. Count Wurmbbrand, who was the Imperial Minister at the Court of Denmark, is appointed to succeed Count Sternberg here in the same Character: And Count Vitzdom, named by this Court as Envoy Extraordinary at Vienna, will set out very soon for his Place of Residence.

Hague, June 14. His Royal Highness the Duke of York landed at Helvoetsluys, in perfect Health, on Wednesday Morning at Three Quarters past Ten. His Royal Highness was received, by Order of the States of Holland, with all Military Honors at that Port, and at the Brille, and arrived here at Five o'Clock the same Evening. Though his Royal Highness was pleased to declare his Intention of being incognito yet he permitted every Body to pay their Court to him Yesterday Morning without Ceremony, and to see the Ladies in the Evening at a Ball at the House of Sir Joseph Yorke.

Hague, June 18. His Royal Highness the Duke of York intends to proceed from hence to Germany, about the latter End of this Week, and to visit Amsterdam and Utrecht in his Way.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 24, 1765.
