AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th Day of July, 1765,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day his Grace William Henry Duke of Portland Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, his Grace Augustus Henry Duke of Grafton, the most Honourable Charles Marquess of Rockingham, the Right Honourable Henry Seymour Conway, Esq; and the Right Honourable William Dowdeswell, Esq; Chancellor and Under Treasurer of His Majesty's Exchequer, were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint his Grace Augustus Henry Duke of Grafton, and the Right Honourable Henry Seymour Conway, Esq; to be His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, they were this Day, by His Majesty's Command, sworn His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of July, 1765,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Honourable Daniel Earl of Winchilsea and Nottingham Lord President of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Scarborough, John Earl of Ashburnham, William Earl of Beaufort, and George Bussy Villiers, Esq; commonly called Lord Viscount Villiers, Vice Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, July 13.

The King has been pleased to appoint Charles Marquess of Rockingham, Knight of the most

[Price Six-pence.]

Noble Order of the Garter, the Right Honourable William Dowdeswell, Esq; the Honourable John Cavendish, Esq; commonly called Lord John Cavendish, Thomas Townshend, and George Onslow, Esqrs. to be Commissioners for Executing the Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Exchequer.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable William Dowdeswell, Esq; the Offices of Chancellor and Under Treasurer of His Majesty's Exchequer.

Whitehall, July 13; 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a Threatening Letter was, on Thursday Morning the 10th instant, found under the Gateway of the Court-Yard of George Prescott, Esq; in Coleman-Street; which said Letter was directed as hereunder, and contained the Words and Letters following, viz.

" Gravel lane July 9th. 1765.

" Sir,

" If you do not collect the Sum of 30 Pounds, and put it under your gait so that I may tacke away to Mo row Night, your House shall be burnt down to the ground on the same Evening and all the hole Street on both Sides of the way by a prodigious number of Saylor.

" Your very

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and Laying the said threatening Letter under the said Gateway, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Crime, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

G R A F T O N.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said George Prescott does hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid, by him, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

George Prescott.

And also, as a farther Encouragement, the Church-Wardens of the Parish of St. Stephen Coleman-street, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, over and above the Reward above mentioned, to be paid upon Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, except the identical Person who wrote the said Letter.

John Appleton, } Church-Wardens.
John Bailey, }

St. James's, June 28, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That Thomas Cocker otherwise Coaker, and Francis Lock, with divers other Persons unknown, to the Number of Three Hundred and upwards, (as was supposed) did, on the Seventeenth Day of this Instant June, unlawfully and riotously assemble together in the Village of Bolham within the Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace; and did, then and there, unlawfully and with Force, begin to demolish, and did demolish, break open and beat down, the Windows, Doors and other Parts of the Dwelling-House, there situate and belonging to John Webber, Esq; Mayor of the Corporation of Tiverton; and did also, then and there, threaten to kill and murder the said John Webber, if they could have found him; and did also, then and there, unlawfully and riotously assault and ill-treat Susannah Symmons, and other Servants of the said John Webber, and also greatly damage, injure and destroy the Furniture, Goods, and Effects of the said John Webber, which were then in and about the said Dwelling-House; and did also pull down and destroy several Cloth-Tenters or Racks in a Field adjoining to the said Dwelling-House; and did also break and destroy the Windows of other Dwelling-Houses in the said Village of Bolham, occupied by Edward Blagdon and Thomas White: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Thomas Cocker otherwise Coaker, and Francis Lock, or either of them, or any others concerned in the said Riot, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Rioters who shall discover the said two Persons above-named, or either of them, or any others concerned in the said Riot, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Webber, the present Mayor of Tiverton, does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of one or more of the said Rioters.

Whitehall, June 29, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a sudden and dreadful Fire broke out on Saturday Night last, about Eleven o'Clock, at Gun Dock, Wapping, by which a Sail Maker's Warehouse, and above Twenty Dwelling Houses were totally consumed; and that there is great Reason to believe, that the same was wilfully set on Fire: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this wicked Action, is pleased hereby to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually set the Premises on Fire) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SANDWICH.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Minister, Church-wardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Principal Inhabitants of the Parish of St. John of Wapping, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making Discovery of the Party or Parties guilty thereof, (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Church-Wardens of the said Parish, on the Conviction of any one or more of them.

Admiralty-Office, June 15, 1765.

Whereas my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have received authentick Information, That on the 30th of January last, about Nine o'Clock in the Morning, as a Ship called the Elizabeth of Dunkirk, Adrian Frederick, Master, was sailing from thence, bound for Bourdeaux, the said Ship was piratically and feloniously attacked on the High Sea near Pavensca, by two English Shallops or large Boats, the Crews of which by Force plundered and robbed the said Ship Elizabeth of several Chests of Merchandize to a very considerable Value, in Violation of the Laws of Nations.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of the said Piracy and Robbery, are pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within Three Months from this Time, discover any of the Offenders guilty of the above-mentioned Offence, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of the said Offenders, who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any one or more of the said Offenders.

Ph. Stephens.

The Conditions of the Contract's may be seen at the Secretary's Office, or by applying to the Collector or Chief Officer of His Majesty's Customs at Bantry in Ireland.

Excise Office, London, July 5, 1765.

The Commissioners of Excise do hereby give Notice, that Attendance will be given the 6th Instant, and for 30 Days afterwards (Sundays and Holidays excepted) at the Excise-Office in the Old Jewry, London, from Eight o'Clock in the Morning till Two in the Afternoon, for receiving such fresh Notices, Entries, and Duties, as are required by Act of Parliament passed in the 20th Year of his late Majesty, for laying a Duty of Five Shillings upon every Hundred Ounces of Plate, which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, shall own, use, have, or keep, within the Limits of the said Chief Office of Excise: And that the like Attendance will also be given at the several Offices of Excise in England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for receiving the like Notices, Entries, and Duties from the several Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, not inhabiting or being situate within the Limits of the said Chief Office of Excise.

South Sea House, London, July 9, 1765.

The Court of Directors of the South Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at this House on Thursday the 25th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, for the Purpose of declaring a Dividend on their Capital Stock for the Half-Year ending the 5th of this Month.

London, July 11, 1765.

Notice is hereby given, that Warrants for the Dividend declared on the Nominal Capital Stock of the Governor and Company for working of Mines, Minerals, and Metals in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, will be ready to be delivered to the Proprietors, on Thursday the 25th Instant, and every Thursday thereafter till the Whole is paid, at the Sun Fire-office, the Corner of Freeman's Court in Cornhill: And that the

the Transfer Books of the said Company, which are now shut, will be opened again on Thursday the said 25th of this Instant July.

General Post-Office, June 8, 1765.

PUBLICK Notice is hereby given, That by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, "For altering certain Rates of Postage, and for amending, explaining, and enlarging several Provisions in the Act of the Ninth of Queen Anne, and other Acts relating to the Post-Office;" It is, amongst other Things, Enacted,

That Letters between London and any Port within the British Dominions in America, (in which all His Majesty's West-India Islands are included) shall pay Single One Shilling, Double Two Shillings, Treble Three Shillings, the Ounce Four Shillings.

That Letters, by Sea, from any one Port to any other Port within the said Dominions, shall pay Single Four Pence, Double Eight Pence, Treble One Shilling, the Ounce One Shilling and Four Pence.

That Letters, by Land, to or from any Chief Post-Office in America, from or to any other Part thereof not exceeding Sixty Miles from such Chief Post-Office, or from the Office where such Letters, not passing through a Chief Office, may be put in, shall pay Single Four Pence, Double Eight Pence, Treble One Shilling, the Ounce One Shilling and Four Pence. And being upwards of Sixty, and not exceeding One Hundred Miles within the said Dominions, shall pay Single Six Pence, Double One Shilling, Treble One Shilling and Six Pence, the Ounce Two Shillings. And being upwards of One Hundred, and not exceeding Two Hundred Miles within the said Dominions, shall pay Single Eight Pence, Double One Shilling and Four Pence, Treble Two Shillings, the Ounce Two Shillings and Eight Pence. And for every Distance not exceeding One Hundred Miles above such Two Hundred, and for every such further Distance within the said Dominions, shall pay Single Two Pence, Double Four Pence, Treble Six Pence, the Ounce Eight Pence.

That no Vessel shall be permitted to break Bulk, or make Entry in any Port within the British Dominions, where Posts are or may be established, until all Letters on board are delivered to the Postmaster of such Port (he paying the Bringer One Penny for each Letter) to be forwarded according to their respective Directions, except such as are excepted by the Act of the Ninth of Queen Anne; and such as may be brought by Vessels liable to Quarantine, which last are to be delivered to the Persons superintending the Quarantine, for proper Care, before they are forwarded by the Post. And that all Masters, Mariners, Passengers, &c. neglecting to deliver the Letters as aforesaid, shall, for every Neglect, forfeit Twenty Pounds.

That the Postmaster shall take for every Letter brought by such Vessel, for any Place within his Delivery, One Penny, above the Penny paid to the Master or other Person for the same.

That Letters conveyed in Great Britain and Ireland, not exceeding one Stage, shall pay Single One Penny, Double Two Pence, Treble Three Pence, the Ounce Four Pence. And in England, above one and not exceeding two Stages, Single Two Pence, Double Four Pence, Treble Six Pence, the Ounce Eight Pence; but these Rates are not to affect the Penny-Post.

That Letters passing between England and Ireland, through Carlisle, Dumfries, Port Patrick, and Donaghadee, shall pay the same Rates of English, Scotch, Irish, and Packet Postage, according to the Distance or Number of Stages they are conveyed in each Kingdom, as are settled by the Act of the Ninth of Queen Anne, or by this Act.

That no Packet exceeding the Weight of Four Ounces shall be sent by the Penny-Post; unless coming from, or passing thereby to the General-Post.

That Letters passing between London and Hamburg shall pay as Letters between London and all other Parts of Germany, viz. Single One Shilling, Double Two Shillings, Treble Three Shillings, the Ounce Four Shillings.

That any Officer of the Post-Office secreting or destroying any Letter, Bag or Mail of Letters, containing any Bank Note, Bill, or other Paper, Writing, or Order for the Payment of Money; or sealing out of any Letter any such Bank Note, Bill, &c. on Conviction, shall suffer Death as a Felon.

That any Person robbing a Mail, in any Place or in any Manner whatsoever, although it may not appear that any one was put in Fear by such Robbery, shall, on Conviction, suffer Death as a Felon.

That any Officer of the Post-Office, entrusted to take in Letters, and receive the Postage thereof, embezzling the Money received, or destroying the Letters; or any Officer advancing the Rates on Letters, and not accounting for the advanced Postage, shall, on Conviction, be deemed guilty of Felony.

That any Post-Boy having a Mail or Bag of Letters under his Care, deserting the same before his Arrival at the next Stage; or suffering any other, Person to ride on the Horse or Carriage along therewith; or loitering on the Road; or not, in all possible Cases, conveying the Mail after the Rate of Six measured Miles an Hour, shall, on Conviction, before one Justice of the Peace, be sent to the House of Correction for any Time not exceeding One Month, nor less than Fourteen Days.

That any Post-Boy, singly, or in Combination with others, unlawfully collecting, or conveying Letters, or causing the same to be unlawfully conveyed, shall, on Conviction, before one Justice of the Peace, forfeit Ten Shillings, to be paid to the Informer, for every Letter so unlawfully collected, conveyed, or delivered. And if the Forfeiture is not immediately paid, shall be sent to the House of Correction, for any Time not exceeding Two Months, nor less than One Month.

That all Rates of Letters, and all Forfeitures, mentioned in this Act, shall be paid in Sterling Money of Great Britain.

The Rates established by this Act for the Post of Letters between London and Hamburg; and the Limitation of the Weight of Packets to be sent by the Penny-Post, commence from the Fifth of July next. All other Regulations, Rates of Postage, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures beforementioned, commence from the Tenth Day of October next.

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anthony Todd, Secretary.
